ANOTHER VICTORY

The following letter is from a worthy and well known resident of St. Albert, Charlottetown, Royal: Dear Sir, My thirteen-year-old son suffered a great deal from asthma for four or five years and could not sleep at night. He was often grasping for breath and would cough a great deal. We decided to try Oxygen Therapy and began its use over a year ago, and from that time on he began to improve. After using the machine he could sleep soundly all night. He is now entirely cured. I gladly recommend the Farador to all sufferers.

The Farador is constantly gaining victories of a similar nature all over P. E. Island. Some very remarkable cures of acute ailments have recently taken place in the city of which more shall be said later on. Everyone who needs health should investigate the writer's name and addresses of more than two hundred Islanders who endorse Oxygen Therapy and many of these are in the highest ranks of society. Write for literature W. E. Enman, Farador Agent, 12 Alley Street, Charlottetown.

SAD NEWS. A telegram received by Mr. Albert Simpson, North St. Eleanor, on Monday afternoon conveyed the sad news of the death of his brother, Rev. Burton Simpson, River Falls, Wisconsin, after an illness of only a few weeks of typhoid fever, at the age of 38 years, on Tuesday, Wednesday night. There are left to mourn a sorrowing mother, also the following brothers: Rev. Edwin, Des Moines; Iowa; Milton, East Lansing, Mich.; Fulton, Lot 16; Albert, North St. Eleanor; also one sister, Miss Sophie, North St. Eleanor. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., from the home of Albert Simpson.

WEDDING BELLS. The first marriage took place in the new St. Peter's Church, Lot 1, on Tuesday, Dec. 8th, when Miss Lillia May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Adams, became the happy bride of Mr. Harry Lester McKinnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McKinnon of Colman. Precisely at 3:30 o'clock the bridal party entered the church and proceeded to the altar where the bride's pastor, the Rev. J. J. Banford, of Port Hill, tied the nuptial knot. The bride was becomingly gowned in blue silk with brown hat and gloves and was attended by her sister, Miss Lulu Adams, who also had at her side. The groom was ably supported by his brother Mr. Hugh McKinnon, of Summerside. Immediately after signing the register the happy young couple accompanied by a number of their friends and neighbors left the church to the strains of "Wedding March," beautifully played by Miss Florence Palmer, of Freeport and drove to the bride's home, where a bountiful supper was served. After supper they drove to their future home in Colman where a reception was tendered them at the home of the groom's parents. The many presents they received goes to show the popularity with which the bride and groom are held. Many good wishes follow Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon for a happy journey through life.
