—INTERESTING LECTURE.—A Lantern Lecture, from Ocean to Ocean was held in the Georgetown Town Hall on Monday, the 13th inst. by Rev. J. A. Greenlees assisted by Messrs. Clements and McLean in aid of St. David's Presbyterian Church. In a short opening address Mr. Greenlees explained that he had hoped to procure for the occasion views of the "Island Boys" but on account of the trains being held up by snow they had failed to arrive. The views of Canada were thoroughly enjoyed by all present as they were beautiful and clear. Immediately after the views were shown a splendid recitation was given by Mr. L. W. Shaw, Principal of the "G. H. S." and a recitation by Mrs. Wm. McLaren, who is well known for her talents in that respect after which a sale of well filled baskets followed. Mr. T. E. Morrissey filled the office of Auctioneer with his usual capacity. Fortunately for the good of the cause the "bids" were eagerly competed and a goodly sum was thus procured. Tea and coffee was served by the Ladies of St. David's Church with their usual generosity and capability. The National Anthem closed a most enjoyable time.—G.

—ORIENTAL CUNNING.

In the dry as dust records of the Justice Department it is already known as the "tragedy of a boot-lace" and in all the history of Canadian criminology there perhaps never was a case with so many strange features or such a story of detective work. It opened with the advent of Rokushichi Yoshioka, a Jap. and his wife in the Yukon to start a fox farm near Dawson. It closed on November 19th with the confirmation of death sentence passed on the Jap for the murder of his wife. Yoshioka was in partnership with an Indian named Percy James. One day in the summer it was announced that the Indian and the Jap's wife were missing. A little later the Jap came along with the story that he had found the body of his wife in the bush. She had been shot dead by a shot gun. The inference was, according to the story told by Yoshioka, that the Indian had killed the wife and then made his escape. The search for the Indian was about to be given up when a retired officer of the Mounted Police, living in Dawson, determined to look into the case on his own account. At several points he found the moss pressed flat, as though a weight had been dragged over it. He followed that slight trail and found that it led to a depression near the river. Moss was growing there, and over it a tree was planted. Suspicious, the officer examined the ground closely. He thought the moss had been but recently planted. He notified his old colleagues on the force. They together dug out the tree. Underneath they found the Indian's body. The Indian's Endicott shoes were without their laces, and it was from here that the first trail led back to the Jap. The vendor of the boots was found. He asserted that the boots were of a peculiar type, that the laces were supplied only with the boots, that only one pair had been sold within a recent date—the pair bought by the Indian. In the Jap's house were found a pair of laces corresponding. Yoshioka was convicted and has since paid the penalty of his crime.

—ORIENTAL CUNNING.

Once when in England Steve Brodie, the famous bridge jumper, was in a party which included Charlie Mitchell the prizefighter. Mitchell made some remarks derogatory to John L. Sullivan, to which Brodie rejoined with some sarcastic observations on the sprinting ability Mitchell displayed while in the ring with Sullivan. This angered the prizefighter, who knocked Brodie flat. As he scrambled to his feet Mitchell made another rush at him, but by then Brodie had a pistol in his hand and, thrusting it under his assistant's nose, remarked: "You think you're goin' to make a reputation off lickin' Steve Brodie, don't you? Well, you just hit me once and here'll be a lot in the papers about it, but you won't read it." That closed the incident.

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

A Small bottle destroys dandruff and doubles beauty of your hair.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toll-free counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.
