WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

TUESDAY

Sergeant Leo Bradley of the R. M. P., returned last evening om a visit to Detroit, Chicago and ontreal. As State Deputy for rince Edward Island, Sergeant radley attended the Knights of olumbus Convention at Detroit on ug. 21 to 23. He was accompanied Mrs. Bradley and his little aughter Phillipa, and by Mr. W. ewart McIntyre, East Point, Past ate Deputy and Mrs. McIntyre

..*PAINFUL ACCIDENT — Mrs. ary Duke suffered a regrettable cident at her home at Montague Wednesday morning which re-ulted in a broken collar bone and ther injuries. Mrs. Duke, at the me of the accident was standing a chair arranging window cur-ins, and in some way the chair pped, causing a bad fall. Al-ough somewhat shaken Mrs. uke is doing nicely and an early covery is looked forward to. H.

FUNERAL SERVICES — The fun-al of Mr. S. A. McDonald was held turday afternoon from his late sidence, 25 Hillsboro St., to the ople's Cemetery. Service at the use and grave were conducted by ev. Carlyle Webster, assisted by ev. Wm. Ryan. The pall bearers ere: Lt.-Col. C. Leonard McKay, essrs. Wm. McMillan, A. J. Houle, enton Higgins, Murdock Ross and mes T. McKee.

Friends in Summerside will be terested to learn of a double edding which took place on Aug-st 24th in Milford, New Hamp-hire. The contracting parties were r. Ralph Steele of Allston, Mass., Miss Tisy Howatt of Boston, ass., and Mr. Ralph Clark of righton, Mass., to Miss Lillian teele of Allston, Mass. Both young ouples are well known in Sum-erside. Miss Howatt is the aughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howatt Summerside. Mr. Ralph Steele nd his sister, Lillian, are the child-en of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Steele, ormerly of Summerside. Mr. Steele well known in racing circles. ummerside friends wish the young eople every success in life. S.

A wedding anniversary of inter-st to a wide circle of friends took lace at the home of Mr. and Mrs. rtemas Cook, Mount Stewart, on he evening of August fifteenth. ifty years ago, at her home in Clarktown, Miss Almira Clark was married to Mr. Artemas Cook, York, Rev. D. Lodge officiating. After heir marriage Mr. and Mrs. Cook ent to live at their home, Pisquid West, where the following child-en were born: Blanche (Mrs. Cor-lis) Boston; Jennie (Mrs. George ay) Fanning Brook; Hamilton, Saskatchewan; Hilda (Mrs. Enman) Edmonton; Pearl (Mrs. Edwin Craig) Toronto; Etta (Mrs. W. H. ane) Montague; Haviland and Elsie (Mrs. Clarence Coffin).

Mr. Alexander McPherson pas-ed to his eternal rest at his ome in Brooklyn, Caledonia, Aug. 1, 1934, aged 77 years, after consid-rable sufferings for months though with one or two short spells of such ecovery as gave his loved ones and friends hope that he would remain with us for years more. But it was not to be, God knows best and acts with unerring wisdom. So Mr. Mc-Pherson is not, for God took him. Born in Dige Parish of Kilmuir, kye, Scotland, he was brought to this country a babe of nine months old in his parents' arms who settled in Brooklyn, where Alexander spent the rest of his life with the excep-tion of about 2 years railroading in Western Canada before he was mar-ried. The widow, five daughters and one son survive, one son and one daughter passing on before. Mrs. Mary Lamont, Mrs. Christy Stewart, Mrs. Lizzie J. Banks, all of Boston, Mrs. Margaret Matheson, Brooklyn; Mrs. Agnes Whiteway, Dover, and Mr. John Martin McPherson in the old home.

At her residence, 31 Essex Street, Cambridge, Mass., after a protract-ed and painful illness, there passed peacefully into rest, Mrs. Harriet M. Horton, in the fifty-first year of her age. The deceased was born at Rose Valley, P. E. I., and came to New England with the other members of the family circle many years ago. Predeceased by her hus-band last autumn, she leaves to mourn for her, her aged mother, Mrs. Eleanor MacKenzie, of Water-town, Mass., also four sisters and two brothers, all residents of Great-er Boston, except one brother in the Canadian West. Mrs. Horton bore her trying illness with humble persistence and calm resignation to the divine well, receiving with warm appreciation the spiritual ministra-tions of her pastor, Dr. J. W. S. Lowry to whose congregation she belonged. The burial service at Long's Funeral Parlors, Porter Square, Cambridge, were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. A. Graham, Dr. Lowry being absent on a visit to Ontario. Interment was made in the family plot in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, the funeral being private.

The death of Mrs. Michael Hen-her home 97 Kent St. The deceased who was formerly Margaret Mur-nessey took place last evening at phy was born in Summerville ninety years ago, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mur-phy. She was one of a family of ten, of whom there survive two sisters, Mrs. Martha Wickham, Montague and Mrs. Sophia Doyle, Summerville.

Her husband who conducted a funeral establishment in this city predeceased her by eighteen years. She is survived by four daughters, (Dr.) J. T. Collins, Vernon Mrs. John B. Connolly, City, Anastasia Hennessey, Vernon Mrs. Peter Doyle, City, and two sons, Mr. James Hen-nessy, M., Frank Hennessey, and Councillor A. A. Hennessey, all of Charlottetown. Three sons, Frank, Joseph and Sir George predeceased her.

The late Mrs. Hennessey was widely known and well-beloved as possessing a high Christian char-acter, in which charity and sym-pathy were combined. To the ber-eaved The Guardian extends sin-cere sympathy.

Empire Lodge No. 19 of the Knights of Pythias was honoured Saturday night by a visitation from Hon. Reno S. Harp, Frederick, Mary-land, Grand Chancellor of the Order for the world. Mr. Harp was wel-comed at the Canadian National Hotel by a number of prominent Knights of Pythias of the City, who had dinner with him.

—WELCOMED TO SUMMER-SIDE—Rev. Emmett O'Hanley of Charlottetown has taken up his residence at St. Paul's Rectory, Summerside, and will assist Rev. G. J. MacLellan, D.D., V.G., as curate in the place of Rev. Bennett Mac-Donald, who leaves on Wednesday for Grand River, where he will as-sist Rev. John A. MacDonald. Rev. Father O'Hanley has many friends in Summerside who are extending him a cordial welcome; although they regret the departure of Rev. Father MacDonald and wish him every success in his new sphere. S.

—SLIGHT FIRE AT MIS-COUCHE—The residence of Mr. Wm. Perry, section man at Mis-couche, was considerably damaged by fire, which broke out about nine o clock Saturday morning. The fire was discovered by some one pass-ing by a little after nine. The flames were bursting through the roof. Neighbours quickly gathered and assisted Mr. Perry in subdu-ing the fire. Considerable damage was done to the rooms on the up-per floor by fire and water, but the downstairs was unharmed. The house is near the railway and had the fire got out of control many buildings would have been in dan-ger. S.

The annual Labour Day parade of the members of the Labourers' Protective Union was held yester-day morning, as scheduled, and was well up to the standard of former years. About one hundred men appeared on parade. Mr. Frank Doyle acted as marshal.

Headed by the Canadian Legion Band with the pipe band of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders bringing up the rear, the procession left the Labour Union Hall at 10 o'clock, and proceeded through the city by way of Queen, Grafton, Hillsboro, Water, Pownal, Kent, Queen Streets, thence to the hall. The Union banner was borne behind the Legion Band with the insignia prominently displayed. President Daniel Coughlin and members of the executive at the rear. The pa-rade was followed by the fire engine and a number of firemen.

Large crowds lined the route of march to view the procession.

WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Leonard Lane, Brunswick St., left Friday morning for Ken-sington P. E. I., where she will visit for a few days guest of Mrs. W. A. Lockhart. Mrs. Loskhart was a former resident of Truro, having resided on Park Road for several years. Truro News

INCREASED CITY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE—Increased attend-ances were recorded at the opening of the city schools yesterday. At Queen Square School more than 600 pupils were enrolled, at West Kent 510, at Rochford Square 560, and at Prince Street almost 600. In Prince Street and Queen Square Schools, it is probable that addi-tional rooms will be required to ac-commodate the pupils.

VISITORS RETURN TO U.S.A. — Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cutliffe and two children, Jackie and Elsie, have returned to their home in Belmont, Mass., after spending two weeks at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cutliffe, of West Roy-alty. While here they visited many parts of the Island, including Corn-wall, New Haven, Southport, Appin Road, Charlottetown Royalty, and Summerside, and were very pleased with the kindness shown them by their many relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cutliffe hope to return again in the near future.

HISTORIC PICTURE PRE-SENTED—Dr. J. C. Webster, Shedi-ac, N. B., has very kindly presented to the Provincial archives a copy of a water colour portrait of Lieu-tenant Governor Colonel J. F. W DesBarres, in advanced manhood. Dr. Webster previously presented a portrait of Colonel DesBarres drawn at an earlier period. The subject of the portraits was Lieutenant Governor in this Province from July, 1805 till October, 1812. The pictures are of much historic value and interest, and needless to say will be carefully preserved.

Miss Ethel Tanton, teacher at the Summerside High School, was re-elected as President of the East Prince Teachers Association at their annual convention which was held yesterday afternoon in th auditorium of the Summerside High School. Vice President, Mr. Elmer Roberts, Kinkora. Secty. re-elected. Miss Mary Ready, Kensington.

The convention opened at 10:30 with one of the largest presiding attendances on record, over one hundred registering during the day. Present at the convention were Chief Superintendent of Education H. H. Shaw, Dr. G. D. Steele, Prin-cipal of Prince of Wales College, Miss Katherine MacLean, Junior Red Cross Nurse, Charlottetown, Miss Bateson, Librarian, Charlot-tetown, Miss Taylor, Secty. Teach-er's Federation, C. B. Jelly, Prin-cipal Summerside High School, In-spectors W. M. Smith, Stewart Williams, Peter Gallant and Miss Hilda Gillis

—RETURNED HOME—Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson and daugh-ters, Ethel and Marjorie, and Mr. Lockhart have returned to their home in Newcastle, N. B. after a most enjoyable two weeks on the Island.—S

Miss Margaret Harvey, Halifax, eldest daughter to Professor D. C. Harvey, Provincial Archivist of No-va Scotia, and Miss Evelyne Har-vey of Cape Traverse, have return-ed to their homes after spending several days visiting in Crapaud, the guests of Miss Edith Leard.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED — Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Golding Delaney of Sum-merside in the death on Monday of their little son, Preston, aged fourteen months, from pneumonia. Besides the bertaved parents a twin sister is left to mourn. The little one was laid to rest on Tuesday afternoon in the People's Cemetery, following a short service at the home at which Rev. Mr. Campbell officiated.—S

RETURN FROM CONVENTION Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jenkins and Mrs. T. G. Ives, Charlottetown, ac-companied by Mrs. Boswell Carver and Gordon Carver, Hazelbrook re-turned home Monday evening after a very enjoyable motor trip to Wolfville, N. S., where they at-tended the Women's Missionary Convention and General Convention of the Maritime United Baptist Church. Mrs. Ives was reappointed superintendent of the P. E. I. Bap-tist Mission Band not Mrs. Colin Stewart as previously reported.

RECEPTION ENJOYED—A very pleasing reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, Lyndale, on Saturday evening, Sept. 1st, when the Lyndale Women's In-stitute entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, new residents of the district. During the evening an address was read by Mr. M. E. Mc-Donald and Mrs. Daniel M. Mc-Kenzie and Mrs. Robt. S. Brehaut presented Mr. and Mrs. Martin with a clothes-wringer and a beautiful fruit cake. Mr. Martin on behalf of himself and wife thanked the peo-ple for their kindness and generos-ity, after which a generous supply of refreshments was served by the ladies.

FORMER RESIDENT PASSES — Word has been received here of the death of Miss Lucille Ellen Donahoe, R.N., which occurred in the Mercy Hospital, at Dubuque, Iowa. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Nellie Donahoe, and a sister, Sister Pau-line, of Sisters of Mercy, St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Dubuque, who was with her when she died. Lucille and her mother spent some time in Prescott, where the former came for her health. While here she lived at the Linn Hotel and made many friends who mourn her passing. Miss Donahoe was the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. M. Donahoe, for-merly of Peakes Station, P. E. I., and left here about fourteen years ago, after the death of her father.—(Pat-riot please copy).

..*MR. ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL —There passed away at his home at Montague on August 28, 1934, Archi-bald Campbell, aged eighty years. The deceased was a life-long and respected resident of this commun-ity and a devout member of the Montague Christian Church. He was one of a family of eleven children and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex-ander Campbell. The funeral ser-vice was held in the Christian Church at Montague on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Watterworth of-ficiating. Mr. Watterworth took his text from Psalm 17:15: "I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with Thy Likeness." His wife is left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving hus-band. The pall bearers were: Mr. M. McLean, Mr. J. McGregor, Mr. D. J. McLean, Mr. A. Campbell, Mr. L. B. Mellish, Mr. R. Mellish. Interment took place in the Montague Ceme-tery.—H.

JAY—MCASSEY NUPTIALS — A pretty wedding was solemnized in Mt. Stewart Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Aug. 29th, when Doris Isabel Jay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jay, of Fanningbrook, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Wendell Ralph McAssey, the young-est son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mc-Assey, of Mt. Stewart, the ceremony being performed by the minister, Rev. John A. Pritchard. As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away, Mrs. McKenzie played the wedding march. The bride was at-tended by Miss Hester Birt and the groom was supported by Harold Af-fleck. At the close of the ceremony a duet was rendered by Rev. and Mrs. John A. Pritchard, entitled "Heirs together of the grace of life." After the ceremony, the party left by motor to Borden and other points on the Island. Upon their return to the home of the bride's parents a-bout 7 p. m., a wedding dinner was served to a large number of relatives and friends. The church was beau-tifully decorated for the occasion.

..*PAINFUL INJURY — Mr. Archie Bruce of Montague had the misfortune last week of breaking his left arm at the shoulder when he fell off a small staging he had built when repairing one of his farm buildings. He was taken to the P. E. Island Hospital to have the shoulder set in a proper splint.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The fun-eral of the late Mrs. William Cur-ran took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from her late residence 210 Weymouth Street to St. Dun-stan's Basilica where solemn High Mass was sung by Rev. A. J. Mc-Intyre assisted by Rev. Lou's Dou-gan as Deacon, Rev. Eugene Murray Sub Deacon. His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan and Rev. John Cass, S. J., were in the Sanctuary. The commital service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Dr. P. McMa-hon assisted by Rev. John Cass, S.J.—(Halifax papers please copy.)

THURSDAY

VISITING GENEVA—Among the interested spectators at the League of Nations meetings at Geneva this week is Mr. Ben Rogers, the winner of the I. O. D. E. Scholarship, who is pursuing his studies at Oxford.

—RETURNED HOME—Mr. George Frizzell returned last night to his home in Summerside from Montreal, where he had been for medical treatment. Mrs. Frizzell, who has been with her husband during his stay, accompanied him home.—S.

RETURN FROM HALIFAX — Among the Island exhibitors re-turning from Halifax Saturday night was Mr. J. Reagh Horne, Winsloe, with horses and cattle; Mr. J. Walter Jones, Bunbury, with Holsteins; Mr. George Kitson, Hampshire, with horses; W. Almon Boswell, Dunstaffnage with sheep. A number of race horses for Sum-merside were brought over in care of Mr. Tyndal Semple.

—Mrs. (Con) Allen MacDonald and her two daughters, Jeanette and Dorothy, have returned to their home in Sydney, N.S., after a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends on the Island. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Mac-Quaid, of Alberton, who will spend some time in Sydney. They were ac-companied as far as Sackville by Mrs. John MacQuaid, of Alberton, and Mrs. M. P. Driscoll, Summerside. —S.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The fu-neral of Mrs. M. Hennessey, which was one of the largest seen in the city for some time, was held yes-terday morning from her late res-idence, 97 Kent Street, to St. Dun-stan's Basilica, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis Dougan. The pall bearers were: Messrs. D. J. Riley, Wm. Flynn, A. E. Toombs, and J. P. Duffy. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. P. McMahon, D.D.

—SERIOUSLY ILL—Word was re-ceived by telegram on Tuesday by Mr. Harry Arnett of Albany, that his son, John Arnett, was dangerously ill in the City Hospital, Boston. His mother, Mrs. Harry Arnett; his two sisters, Mrs. Heber Schurman and Mrs. Claude Howatt and his brother-in-law, Mr. Norman MacDonald, left by motor on Wednesday morning for Boston, to be at his bedside. His many Island friends hope for his speedy recovery. John is a nephew of Mr. J. Frank Arnett, of Summer-side.—S.

WEDDING BELLS—A pretty wed-ding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Frizzell, Stanchel on Wed-nesday evening, August 29th, when their daughter Miss Verna Margar-et, a popular young school teacher, was united in marriage to a pros-perous young farmer of the dis-trict. Mr. George Grant Dixon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Arthur R. Wallis, B.A., of Bradal-bane. Following the ceremony a re-ception was held, upwards of sixty guests being present. Their many friends join in happiest felicitations.

SUCCESSFUL ISLAND GIRL— Miss Myrtle C. Taylor of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. is spending a holi-day with her parents of Granville. Miss Taylor holds a high position with the Company at Sydney, N. S. being in charge of the Ladies Ready to Wear and Millinery Department and supervisor of these departments at Glace Bay, Sydney Mines and New Waterfrod stores which includes several trips a year to the Montreal and To-ronto centres as purchasing agent of the Company. She was formerly on the staff of Jordon Marsh & Co., Boston, later with the Eaton Com-pany at Moncton and when the Sydney branches were established four years ago was transferred there to the responsible position which she now holds. Just instance of where the natural ambition, ability and perseverance of the sons and daughters of P. E. I. make them known as "successful Island-ers abroad.

Mr. J. W. McPhee, accountant with the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., Boston, Mass., was a passenger to Charlottetown on the late train Tuesday evening from Boston, and left yesterday af-ternoon on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McPhee, Elmira.

BRIDGE HOSTESSES—Mrs. J. G. MacLellan and Mrs. Jervis Mac-Lellan of Indian River were host-esses for a card party in aid of St. Mary's Branch of the Catholic Womens League, on Tuesday even-ing, August 28th. Progressive Auc-tion was played, prizes being won by Mr. Robert Glover and Miss Loretta Murphy. A dainty lunch was served after which dancing was indulged in. Brendon Driscoll. Wil-lard Brown, Jim Evans, Mrs. Alonzo Cameron and Miss K. McLellan kindly furnished the music. An en-joyable evening was had by all.

WEDDING BELLS—The mar-riage of Miss Julia Isabel Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Taylor of Charlottetown, to Mr. John Forbes Kennedy, son of Mrs. Kennedy of O'Leary, took place Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Gerald Street, Rev. Ewen MacDougall of-ficiated. The couple were unattend-ed. The bride wore a dress of fawn crepe with hat and shoes to match, and carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. The bride and groom received many valuable wed-ding presents. Last week a miscel-laneous shower was tendered the former at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Bonnell, in this city. The bride also received a set of dishes from her fellow employees at the Falconwood Infirmary and the groom a lamp from his fellow at-tendants at Falconwood Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left today on a honeymoon trip by motor car through the Maritime Provinces.

VISITORS RETURN — Among the tourists motoring to the Island recently were Mr. George Nichol-son of Lynn, Mass., and his sister, Mrs. Laura Winch of New York City, who is a native of Charlotte-town. Mr. Nicholson spent his early boyhood in Charlottetown and has visited the Island on several occa-sions. It is over thirty years since Mrs. Winch visited here. They both enjoyed seeing the old friends and meeting many new ones. Both have a great love for the Island. Mr. Nicholson has been successful in bringing together many of the branch of the Nicholson clan to which he belongs through corres-pondence and an annual reunion each summer to which the distant members send greetings, thus keep-ing in touch with the clan. While in Glen William they were the wel-come guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Collins. They enjoyed a day's fish-ing on MacLean's Mill Pond, also a very successful deep sea fishing trip off Cape Bear. On the eve of their departure for Montague and vicinity a number of friends were entertained in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Col-lins where a very enjoyable time was spent in social chat and a sing-song accompanied by violin and organ. A hearty welcome awaits Mr. Nicholson and Mrs. Winch at any time they favor us with a visit.

A regulation recently passed by Dominion Order in Council dis-continuing the shipping of unin-spected meats from one Maritime Province to another was the sub-ject of considerable discussion at a Board of Trade meeting held yes-terday afternoon. A committee con-sisting of President T. E. MacNutt, who presided at the meeting, Messrs R. E. Mutch, J. M. Roop, J. O. Hyndman and E. T. Higgs was ap-pointed to consider the matter and interview Premier MacMillan with a view of having the regulation withdrawn.

A letter read by the president from Mr. E. W. MacKinnon, Sup-erintendent of the Railway, indi-cated that a round trip of the car ferry costs $150, and that three trips cost $400 to $450.

Mr. W. L. Higgins remarked that one day last week the ferry carried all the cars possible on the car deck and in addition ferried cars on six-teen flat cars.

Mr. A. L. Wright made reference to a case of lack of courtesy on the part of the crew, which had re-fused to lower the apron to admit an additional car before the ferry cast off. The indifference of the crew was to blame.

It was decided to ask the Sup-erintendent, Mr. MacKinnon, to in-vestigate the matter.

A letter from Mr. F. McLure Sclanders, St. John, stated that while Newfoundland goods entered Canada without tariff. Canada paid the regular duty on Newfoundland goods. Special reference was made in this connection to Newfoundland competition with the New Bruns-wick salmon industry.

The communication was referred to the industrial committee.

BEREAVEMENT—The death oc-curred at Norton, N. B., of Mrs. George Raymond, aged 85, mother of Rev. H. D. Raymond of Char-lottetown.

SECOND YEAR STUDENTS ENROLL—About 120 students en-rolled for their second year at Prince of Wales College yesterday afternoon. This number is some-what less than that enrolled in 1933. At present it appears that there will be four divisions, as compared with five last year.

MAYOR IS RE-ELECTED—The most exciting election in the town of Borden was held on Tuesday, Sept. 4th, Willard Leard being re-elected with a majority of 22 votes over Willard McNeil, his nearest opponent, the vote being, Leard, 38; McNeil, 16; Sherry, 12. B. Gillespie was returning officer and Tom Mc-

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN A. LONGWORTH — Word has been received by Mrs. H. J. Palmer of the death in LaSalle, Quebec, of her sister, Mrs. John A. Longworth, widow of the late Col. Longworth of Charlottetown. Mrs. Longworth died at the residence of her niece, Mrs. John Y. Reay, where she has been making her home for the last few years. Mrs. Longworth will be buried in the family plot at Sher-wood. The funeral will be held from St. Paul's Church tomorrow (Fri-day) afternoon, service starting at 2.30.

YACHT RETURNS — The trim auxiliary yacht "Menemsha", owned by Mr. John Dulles of New York, which has been anchored in the riv-er near the Southport side, left Sat-urday morning on return to New York, calling at Boston enroute. The owner, with two friends, Messrs. Robert and Richard Hart, called at Halifax en route to the province, where the former entrained for New York, the friends continuing to this port, arriving about two weeks ago. Through an accident a portion of the rigging was torn away, and as it could not be replaced here, the bro-thers anchored the boat off South-port, leaving Mr. Jack McInnis in charge. Mr. McInnis accompanied the Hart brothers as far as Boston.

FAREWELL PARTY—On Sunday, Sept. 3rd, a large number of C. W. L. Lot 11 members gathered at the home of Mrs. Phillip McKenna, to bid her farewell on the eve of her departure from Conway, to reside in California. Mrs. Ernest Arsenault presided, and, briefly stated the ob-ject of the gathering, and called on Mrs. B. P. Murphy to read the ad-dress. Mrs. William Fitzgerald, Vice-president, presented Mrs. McKenna with a beautiful "Rosary." Mrs. McKenna, in her mild and gentle manner, thanked the donors for their kind remembrance. A bounti-ful lunch was served by the ladies, of the League, and a pleasant even-ing was spent socially. After some time the crowd dispersed wishing Mrs. McKenna a happy and safe journey.

At an inspiring service attended by a large congregation, Rev. Hugh Miller and Rev. J. W. Barbour were inducted to the joint pastorate of Trinity United Church last evening. Rev. G. A. Christie, York, Chairman of the Presbytery, conducted the im-pressive service and inducted the two ministers to their new positions. Rev. S. J. Boyce, Mount Stewart, preach-ed the sermon for the occasion, and Rev. John Stirling, West Cape, ad-dressed the ministers and congrega-tion. Present were a large number of clergymen, members of the Prince Edward Island Presbytery.

Enthusiastic Christian living, and enthusiastic Christian service were stressed by Rev. S. J. Boyce in his sermon. The speaker went on to say that the soul life is imperiled if one is neutral in matters of right and wrong. The work of winning the world for Christ requires every one to be an enthusiastic worker. The Church itself should have an aggres-sive, kindly, helpful zeal for Christ-ian service. Great as have been the achievements of this Church in the past, the best is yet to come.

Rev. John Sterling, in the course of his address, congratulated Trinity Congregation on their choice of min-isters. He also spoke of the great work the new ministers have before them, urging co-operation and mut-ual helpfulness between pastor and people.

FRIDAY

BUILDING TO BE COMPLETED —Work was begun Wednesday tear-ing down the remaining part of the wooden building on Queen Street, owned by Mr. Frank Currie, prepar-atory to constructing a new brick and steel building. Part of the new building has already been completed, but the work on the remaining half is not expected to be finished before the end of November. When finish-ed, the new structure will have a frontage of eighty feet and will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. Four large shops will occupy the ground floor, while the second floor will have eight large offices with all modern conveniences. Mr. William Hennessey is the building contractor, Chappell & Co. have the lighting, and Currie & Murnaghan the plumbing and heating contract.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bears, with son and two daughters, from Boston, motored to P. E. I., where Mr. Bears and his wife formerly resided at Murray River. Mr. Bears is Assist-ant Superintendent in the Mechan-ics Building at Boston, Mass. They are the immediate guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hume and family, Mur-ray River, and have many relatives in this part of the province.

St. Margaret's Church was the scene of a very interesting event, on Wednesday morning, August 1st, when Arthur McDonald, son of the late John V. McDonald, Selkirk, led to the altar Mary H. McIsaac, daughter of the late Francis H. McIsaac of Bear River. They pro-ceeded up the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Michael McIntyre. Sel-kirk.

IN HIGH POSITION — Among those appointed to the new U. S. Mail Act Commission by President Roosevelt is Franklin Knight Lane, Junior, California lawyer and world wide flyer, son of Wilson's Secret-ary to the Interior, the late Frank-lin Lane, a native of DeSable, P. E. Island and who resided for some time as a boy at River John, Pictou County. It is said that had Franklin Lane not been an alien, he would have succeeded Wilson in the presidency.

SUCCESSFUL PICNIC — The C. W. L. of St. Ann's Sub-division, Lot 65, held a very successful picnic on Thursday, August 17th. The picnic was held in the hall, where supper was served from early in the even-ing, after which "bingo" was played, both of which realized a large sum of money. Another interesting ev-ent of the evening was a beautiful quilt, donated by Rev. Father Her-rell, Chaplain and lotteried by Mrs. Frank Costello, President, Mrs. Mc-Donald (nee Mary McManus) being the lucky winner. All returned to their homes satisfied with an even-ing well spent.

Three daring young mariners, Frank Kenny, Whylie Hamilton and Harold Page natives of Rexton, N. B., made port at West Point wharf on Aug. 30 in a howling gale in their miniature sail yacht, after an exciting trip across the Straits. The craft is about 16 feet overall perfect in every detail and its youthful crew, whose ages range be-tween 15 and 17 years, are spend-ing a very pleasant vacation, guests of Mr. W. L. McIsaac, West Point. Upon their arrival, they wired their friends that they were safe on shore, and enjoying themselves.

—CANADIAN LEGION—The reg-ular monthly meeting Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. (O'Leary Branch) met at the home of Comrade Ches-ter Woodside, Springfield, Monday, August 13th with a large number of members present. The regular business was carried out in the us-ual manner. At the close of the business meeting a very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing, dur-ing which time lunch was served. Plenty of good musicians were in attendance, as well as some good step dancers, which made the even-ing such a success, as Mr. and Mrs. Woodside are so capable of putting on. At the close of the evening a vote of thanks was extended to the host and hostess, every one departed feeling they had spent a most enjoyable evening. The next regular meeting will be held at Comrade Matthews in O'Leary, Sept. 10th. There will be considerable business to deal with that evening, and a large attendance is requested.

—IN MEMORIAM—The funeral of Master Preston, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Golding Delaney, was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late home. Many friends came to express their sympathy with the bereaved parents. Rev. L. B. Camp-bell who conducted the service, spoke words of comfort to the par-ents. "When He Cometh" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul" were the hymns sung. Lovely floral tributes were sent from the following friends and relatives: Mother, fath-er and sister, Etheline, pillow; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Cannon, foot pillow; Grandma and Grandpa De-laney and family, crest; Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Woodside, crest; Great Grandmother, cord; Angie and Denzie MacNeill, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Leith Creue, wreath; Inter-national Fox and Animal Foods, Ltd., wreath; Grandma and Grandpa Hicks and family, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Creue, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacLure, spray; cousins, Connie and Leitha Creue, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clow, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Arthur, spray; Mrs. George Call-beck, spray; Mr. and Mrs. George Morrison, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Merril Dawson, spray; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Costain, spray; Miss E. Mac-Neill, spray; Miss V. MacKenzie, spray; Miss Verna Costain, spray; Mrs. Manson MacNeill, spray; Mrs. L. Larkin and family, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Petersen, spray; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sharpe, bouquet; Mrs. W. K. Llewellyn, buoquet; Mrs. Joseph Clow, bouquet; Miss Gallant, bouquet.

The little one was laid to rest in the People's Cemetery.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING— At a meeting of the School Board held last evening three new teach-ers were appointed. The total en-rollment of the city schools was reported to be 2,278. On account of the increase in the number of pu-pils it was found necessary to open a new room at Prince Street and Queen Square Schools. The resig-nation of Miss Lily Cairns of the staff of Rochford Square School was accepted and Miss Laura Des-Roches was appointed in her place. Miss Penelope Pray was appointed to the staff of Prince Street School and Mr. Kenneth C. MacMillan, B.A., to the staff of Queen Square School. A vote of thanks was ten-dered to the chairman, Mr. C. H. B. Longworth, for the luncheon given by him to the members of the Board at the Canadian National Hotel yesterday.

LAID TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. Michael Hennessey was held on Thursday morning from her late residence, 97 Kent Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis A. Dougan. In the sanctuary were His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, Mgr. M. MacDonald, Rev. Dr. Murphy, Rev. P. D. McGuigan, Rev. A. J. MacIntyre, Rev. R. MacKenzie, Rev. J. Sullivan, Rev. F. McQuaid, Rev. E. Murray, Rev. F. Cass, Rev. P. Hogan, Rev. Fr. Murphy C. SS. R., Rev. Charles McCarthy. Assisting in the choir was Rev. Bernard Gillis. Services; at the grave were conducted by Rev. Pat-rick McMahon, D. D. The pall bearers were Messrs. William Brad-ley, A. E. Toombs, James P. Duffy, William Flynn, D. J. Riley and George Reddin.

BIRTHS

ADAMS—At Sea View, July 1st, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, a son, Lyman Witfield.
McKINNON—At the P. E. Island Hospital, Sept. 6, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKinnon, city, a son.
CRUWYS—At the P. E. Island Hospital, Sept. 3, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cruwys, Brookfield, a daughter.
STEWART—At the P. E. Island Hospital, Sept. 4, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Alan Stewart, Strathgartney, a daughter.
WATTERWORTH—At Summerside, September 3rd, 1934, to Rev. Car-lyle and Mrs. Watterworth, a son—William Maitland.
DIXON—At Little Sands, on August 24, 1934, to James Q. and Mrs. Dixon, a daughter, Marlene Anne.
SOPER—At the City Hospital, Sept. 3, 1934, to Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Soper, a daughter.
WEATHERBIE — In this City, on August 31, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Weatherbie, a daughter, Le-ona Katherine.
McINNIS—At St. Peter's Bay, Sept. 4, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mac-Innis, a daughter.
MacDONALD—In the P. E. Island Hospital on September 2nd, 1934, to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mac-Donald, City, a daughter (Marion Johanne).

MARRIAGES

KENNEDY—TAYLOR — At Char-lottetown, P. E. Island, on 4th of September, 1934, by Rev. Ewen MacDougall, B.D., John Forbes Kennedy of O'Leary to Miss Julia Isabel Taylor of St. Peter's Island.
McLEAN--GASS—At the United Church Manse Hampton on August 31, 1934, by Rev. Geo. Ayers, George A. McLean of Crapaud to Elsie M. Gass of Appin Road.
CAMPBELL-DUGGAN — At the Rectory, Kensington, Wednesday, August 15, 1934, by the Rev. B. Fream, Elva Margaret Duggan to William Lorne Campbell, both of Sea View.
DIXON—FRIZZELL—At the home of the bride's parents, Stanchel, Aug. 29, 1934, by Rev. Arthur R. Wallis, B.A., Verna Margaret Friz-zell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frizzell to George Grant Dixon of Stanchel.

DEATHS

RILEY—At Waltham, Mass., Hos-pital, Sept. 4, 1934, Mrs. Howard Riley, (nee Hazel McKenzie), of Pinette, P. E. I.
CAIRNS—At Summerside, P. E. I., Sept. 6, 1934, Alexander Cairns, formerly of Freetown, aged 69.
BEER—At Clyde River, on Sept. 3rd, 1934, Fannie Darrach, beloved wife of Frederick Beer, aged 56.
CRASWELL—At Boston, Mass., Sept. 4, 1934, Frances B. Craswell, age 72. F
CURRAN—In this city, Sept. 1, 1934, Mrs. William Curran, aged 80.
HENNESSEY—In this city, Sept. 3, 1934, Mrs. Michael Hennessey, aged 90 years.
LONGWORTH—Entered into rest, Sept. 3, 1934, at LaSalle, Quebec, Louise C. Longworth, widow of the late Col. John A. Longworth. F

BRINGING UP FATHER —BY GEORGE MCMAN