—FERNWOOD RESIDENT DIES—The deep sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. George F. MacFarlane of Fernwood and his family in the sad bereavement, which has come to them by the death of Mrs. MacFarlane, who passed to her eternal rest on Wednesday afternoon, at 72 years of age. Mrs. MacFarlane was a lady of many fine attributes and though ill for some time will be sadly missed in the home, which she had so long and nobly graced. She was formerly Charlotte Anderson, a daughter of the late Alex Anderson and Isabella MacCallum, his wife. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn two sons, J. Harrison MacFarlane, and Edwin A. MacFarlane, both of Fernwood, and two daughters, Mrs. Frank Cairns (Winnifred) of Freetown, and Miss Georgie L. at home. The funeral is being held this Friday afternoon from her late home in Fernwood.—S.

—GILLESPIE—GREEN—NUPTIALS— A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, July 14th, at two o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gillespie, Summerside East, when their eldest daughter Olive Ballem, became the bride of Preston MacNutt Green, son of Mrs. Lois Green, Malpeque. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ewen MacDougall, Charlottetown, in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride entered the drawingroom on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Miss Viola Gillespie. The young couple stood before a lattice work of pink and white roses and ferns, with potted plants charmingly arranged about the room, the bride who was unattended wore an ankle length dress of white satin with lace trimming and a coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of briar cliff roses and maidenhair fern. Immediately following the ceremony a delicious wedding luncheon was served in the dining room, which was decorated in the same colour scheme as the drawing room. The bride's table was centred with pink and white roses in a large silver bowl, two smaller ones being placed at each end. Shortly after, Mr. and Mrs. Green left by motor, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, on a honeymoon trip to Cape Breton and other Maritime points. The bride travelled in a suit of carnation blue crepe with white accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Malpeque, where the groom is a valued employee of Messrs Peter MacNutt and Son. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home when she was the recipient of many lovely gifts. The Guardian joins a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Green a very happy journey through life.
