It will be some time before this work is completed, but by the Confederation Jubilee it is expected this will be far and away the finest road in the Island. The company after dinner enjoyed a musical programme, and returned to town in the cool of the evening.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

The semi-annual examination of the Wheatley School was held on Tuesday, the thirtieth, a very large number of rate-payers and visitors being present, showing the interest taken in the school-work. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by Miss Alvina Gallant teacher of Music Cross School, Mrs. S. J. McKenna, and Mrs. Neil Robinson, former teacher; and by their ready answers spoke well of the teacher, Miss Gladys Craswell. After the children were examined in all the school subjects, the following interesting program was rendered by the pupils, which have great satisfaction to all present:—

Photograph Selection. Opening speech by Gordon McLnis. Recitation by Maud McLnis. What Grandmas Says. Reading by Annetta McDonald, The Spooendykes. Drill by children, The Seven Days of the Week. Recitation by Ronald McDonald, The World Right. Recitation by Hilda Matheson, Recitation by Ruth Matheson, The Relief of Lucknow. Recitation by Evelyn Chandler, The Road to Joyland. Recitation by Ethel McDonald, My First Reward of Merit. Reading by Emma Ling, Mukitt's Boy. The program being ended, Mr. Malcolm McDonald, an old gentleman eighty-four years of age stood up and repeated the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, which was a grand lesson and was very much appreciated by both young and old. Then the visitors and pupils were treated with home-made candy by the teacher. Prizes were awarded, as promised by the teacher, to the following pupils:—Hilda Matheson and Annetta McDonald for best attendance; Annetta McDonald, for excellency in class. The teacher was then presented with a beautiful rattan rocker, by Clara Matheson, on behalf of the pupils, and the following address read by Annetta McDonald:—

To our dear teacher, Miss Craswell:—Dear Teacher!—It is with feelings of great regret that we learn you have resigned your position, as teacher in our school, and allow us to present you with this small gift as a token of our appreciation of you and your faithful labor with us. During the two years you have been among us, you have proved yourself an earnest worker. Though firm, you were always kind, patient, and painstaking, always ready to do everything you could for the benefit of your pupils. The pleasant hours we spent at our homes will long be remembered by parents as well as children; and the pupils of this school shall ever recall, with pleasant memory the days when we were instructed by our loving teacher, Miss Gladys Craswell. And now, dear teacher, in conclusion, we all join in bidding you farewell; and wherever your lot may be cast in this wide world, may you be guided and directed by the All-Wise Hand of the loving Father from on High. Signed on behalf of the pupils of Wheatley School. The teacher, in a few well-chosen words, thanked the pupils for their beautiful present, also for their good behaviour and respect, shown toward her, during the past two years. In conclusion, they all joined in singing, "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again."
