The Fredericton, N. B. Gleaner of a recent date says that a jolly company of more than fifty Methodist students at the Normal School and U. N. B., and others, assembled by invitation at the Methodist parsonage, the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. McConnell. Games were played, songs were sung and lots of good things were served. When the happy gathering was breaking up they voted the evening a grand success.

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. Dr. James Henderson, Union Road, Lot 33, was laid to rest on Saturday afternoon, Feb 26, in Sherwood Cemetery, beside the remains of her husband, who predeceased her less than two years ago. The funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen at this part of the Province, many being present from Charlottetown and surrounding districts. The late Mrs Henderson was widely known much respected and greatly endeared to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her life indeed was an exemplary one. In her were developed those qualities of mind and heart that made her not only the comfort of the home but a valued member of the social circle where her presence will be greatly missed. She was always foremost in church and charitable works. She leaves to mourn four daughters, Madge of Inuitat, Jean and Elise at home and Marion, who is taking an Arts Course in Dalhousie, College and one son, Kenneth, who holds a good position in California, besides a brother, Dr. Leigh R. Gregor, Professor of modern languages at McGill University, and sister, Bessie of Colorado Springs. The funeral services, which were very impressive, were conducted by Rev. T. F. Fullerton, Charlottetown, Rev. W. H. Spencer, Covehead, and Rev. E. Bell, York.

The exceptionally varied and decidedly interesting program put on at New Wonderland Saturday night excelled previous entertainments and drew forth hearty appreciation from those present. Bud Carmin is a wonder and well worth the price of admission alone. His singing is superb and wins for him instantaneous friends, while his specialties are the most up-to-date procurable.

On Sunday last Rev. W. J. Kirby, Albert, N. B., baptised an adult, a father of a family, and received two into full membership with the church at Albert. We keep losing from our membership by removals, but God has not left us, and new members are coming in to fill the vacancies. Several other persons are taking their stand for Jesus, and we hope to report more additions shortly.—Wesleyan. Mr. Kirby formerly preached in Grace Church, city.

Mrs. G. F. Dawson, Chatham, N. B., who formerly resided in this province writes The Wesleyan: At our December meeting we went to the home of our "Shut-in" member, Mrs. John Read, and in celebration of the twenty-fifth Anniversary of the W. M. S. of N. B. and P. E. I. Branch, we presented Mrs. Read with a Life Membership Certificate. This came as a great surprise, but was very greatly appreciated by this dear worker, who has been confined to her home for eight years or more. A pretty feature of the meeting was the presentation of a beautiful bunch of twenty-five white chrysanthemums to Mrs. Read from a member who ever loved to add the touch of beauty to all such occasions.

The concert and social held under the auspices of the Presbyterian congregation of Brackley Point Road on February 16th, was an unqualified success. The audience room was crowded to its utmost capacity. The entertainment, rendered solely by local talent, was the best ever given in the community, and could not be easily excelled in any of our rural districts. This consisted of choruses, duets, solos, action song by seven little girls, readings and dialogues. Each part, without exception, was recited in a most happy, natural and effective manner. The committee, as well as the participants, older and younger, are to be congratulated in furnishing an entertainment so highly appreciated by the public, as also upon the financial success. Mrs. J. W. Hoid in a capable manner presided at the organ. Boyd Carter, of the city, assisted by D. McInnis and Geo. Richards, auctioned the baskets. The proceeds amounted to $104, from which about $10 are to be deducted for expenses.
