A good deal of indignation was manifested in Summerside yesterday on account of the Stanley not being on hand as promised. It was announced definitely and officially that the steamer left Charlottetown Saturday morning for Summerside, and the day being fine her arrival was looked for. Her non-appearance yesterday is accounted for by Mr. Lord who informed Mr. Godkin, Summerside, that the steamer had gone to the assistance of a vessel in distress. A meeting of the council of the board of Trade was held in the forenoon when the following telegram was sent to the Premier.—Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—Understanding that the Stanley would be here to begin winter service on the Company's boats stopping, passengers, freight and mails waiting transportation, caused great disappointment, loss and confusion. No definite information here yet when Stanley will arrive. Signed, Neil McQuarrie, President of Board of Trade.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS TO ALL !!

Christmas that delightful season of Peace and Goodwill, is once more drawing near, and as it is the home-coming time for the family, the table and its appointments must be just right. Perhaps there is some new linen needed. A tablecloth, napkins, traycloth. Or there may be a few sets of curtains required to brighten up a certain room. A mantle drape, a chenille or tapestry table cover, a few cushions. Or it may be pair of blankets, a counterpane, sheets, pillow cases, all ready made up, or perhaps a few nice towels for the guest-chamber. We have them all, also bureau scarfs, pillow shams, tablecovers, toilet sets, e. c., and whether you need them for the home, or for presentation purposes, the proper place to get the best values at honest prices is right here. We can save you money as we have others.

Again we would remind you that it is much better not to delay your Christmas shopping until the last few days. You will find every department in this progressive store filled with an almost endless variety of Christmas suggestions, and you will experience an added pleasure in having an opportunity to view them at leisure. Notice the superb display of Furs of all kinds, from the baby's hood at $1.50 up to the magnificent Persian Lamb Jackets $225.00. Take an extra peep at the Fur-lined Coats for both ladies and gentlemen.

Take a good long look through our Dress Goods, and you will say with us, that they are unequalled here, either in quality, variety or price. Be sure you see our fancy goods and novelties, and lastly, don't fail to give special attention to our Millinery, our Gent's Furnishings, and our Ready-Made Clothing departments.
