NEW RECRUITS.—The following young men have joined the strength of the 105th Battalion:—James McLeod, Murray Harbor; Eugene Dunn, Newtown Cross; Moody Acorn Bridgetown; Reuben Acorn, Bridgetown.

AN AGED CITIZEN.—Mr. Wm. D. Tanton, one of the venerable citizens of Charlottetown, is somewhat improved after a severe case of grippe. Mr. Tanton expects, all being well, to celebrate his ninetieth (90th) birthday the seventh of next month.

"C." COMPANY.—The following young men have been added to the strength of "C." Company 105th Battalion Stationed at Summerside: Alfred Haywood, Knutsford; Lemuel Wood, Kensington; John Howat, Cape Traverse; John William Wedge, Ebbeskeay; Frank Robert Fitzsimon's, Long River; Harry Robinson, Capt Traverse.

WARD FOUR.—A large requisition signed by about one hundred prominent citizens has been presented to ex-Councillor Taylor, asking him to contest Ward Four at the forthcoming city election. Mr. Taylor, it is understood, has not as yet decided, but looks upon the matter favorably.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY AWARDS.—The following young people from Murray Harbor North, Rev. A. Sutherland, minister have been awarded certificates by the Presbyterian General Assembly for correctly repeating selected Scripture Passages:—Daisy Van Iderstine, Phoebe Senenbaugh, Mabel L. Kerwin.

MISSIONARY DEAD.—The Presbyterian Witness says:—We have just learned of the death of Mrs. Geddie, wife of the late Dr. John Geddie, our pioneer missionary in the New Hebrides and the first missionary sent out by the Presbyterian Church in the British Colonies. Mrs. Geddie passed away on Jan. 1st, in the 94th year of her age.

CHANGE OF RESIDENCE.—Mrs. Dodd Dwyer left last Tuesday to join her husband in California. Mrs. Dwyer, who has many friends in Charlottetown will be missed by many people in Pictou. She was popular in social circles and an untiring worker in every good cause, in church work, in hospital affairs and in quiet charitable efforts. Some weeks ago the ladies of St. James' Church guild presented Mrs. Dwyer with a handsome hand-bag and an address in which they expressed regret at the loss they would sustain by her removal, and the Pictou Cottage Hospital board at its annual meeting on Thursday made record in its minutes of its appreciation of all Mrs. Dwyer has done to assist the hospital cause. —Pictou Advocate.

THE STANLEY.—The Stanley left Georgetown Saturday morning at 7 p. m. with sixteen passengers, five sacks of mail and four tons of freight and docked about 10.20 a. m.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.—Amherst N. S. News says that Mr. D. E. Laird, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been confined to the house for the past few days. His many friends will regret to know that his ear has given him considerable trouble again.

A CLEVER STUDENT.—Mr. Sidney Bonnell, of Charlottetown, has qualified for a place on the Dalhousie Inter-Collegiate Debating Team, which will meet a similar team from Mount Allison University shortly, in a contest for Inter-Collegiate honors.

FIRE ALARM.—On Saturday afternoon shortly after one o'clock the fire bell rang in an alarm for ward three. Happily there was no fire to fight the alarm being rung in owing to smoke issuing from the Examiner Office cellar where old papers was being burnt.

THE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—The car ferry steamer left Pictou at 7.15 Saturday morning and docked at Charlottetown at 11.30. She brought 105 tons of mixed freight and 35 passengers among whom were Misses Alma and Edith Finlayson from New York; Dr. and Mrs. Garrison; Mrs. H. Benoit; Mrs. J. M. Clark of Summerside.

WEDDING BELLS.—The St. John Globe of Jan. 20th says:—At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Gordon Dickie, on Wednesday evening, Mr. J. Malcolm McLure of Dundas, P. E. I., was married to Miss Margaret Miller, of Boston. The bride arrived on the Boston train Wednesday. The groom is a well known business man in Prince Edward Island.

INTERESTING NEWS.—Mrs. White has returned from Toronto, after visiting all the leading Hair Parlors and has taken up Facial and Marcel and the French twist and three coils are no longer shown but dressings low and medium predominate in eights of all styles. The young girls look so graceful with their hair hanging in one or more curls arranged differently. Mrs. White, Queen Hotel, Phone 323. 6079

SCHOOL WORK.—The following is the standing of the pupils of South Granville School for the month of December 1915. Grade V.—1, Katherine Keir; 2, Phemia McKenzie; 3, Margaret Keir. Grade IV.—1, Evelyn Corbett; 2, Gladys McKenzie; 3, Myrtle Folland. Grade III.—1, Annie McLeod; 2, John Keir; 3, Fulton Folland. Grade II.—1, Annie Keir; 2, Norma McKenzie; 3, Sadie Thompson. Grade I.—1, Mazie Folland. Perfect attendance for month, Katherine Keir and Donald J. McDonald.

RAISED $140.—A most pleasant and successful concert and basket social was held at Milton on Wednesday last. The night being perfect and the roads good, a very large crowd gathered from the different parts of the country and filled the hall until there was not standing room. After the program, which was well rendered by the talented people of Milton, Mr. Benj. Carter, Auctioneer, of Charlottetown, assisted by Mr. Peter Byrdie, of York, auctioneer of the basket, when it was announced that $140.00 had been made. The best of order prevailed and the social closed by singing God Save the King.

HIGHLY HONORED.—The following clipping from the Jackson, Mich., Patriot, will be of interest here as Mr. Chapman made many friends while in Charlottetown conducting a Guardian contest and also sang in Zion Church on several occasions. Mr. A. C. Chapman, of Toronto, Ont., who managed the "Everybody Wins," circulation campaign of the Jackson Patriot last March was paid an exceedingly high compliment at Manistee, where he has recently been

The Cause of a Cough

A cough is caused by an irritation or inflammation of the air passages. With the first warning cough, treatment should be commenced so as to avoid the more stubborn stages which usually result from a neglected cough.

The Treatment

To successfully combat a cough, use—

Our Syrup Tar and Cod Liver Oil

It stops the cough in a very short time by removing the inflammation which caused it. Keep this remedy on hand, ready for immediate use.
