OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

STREET LIGHTS OUT —Heavy wind accompanied by rain caused blackouts in several sections of the city last night as street lights were put out of commission. At Brighton, Upper Prince and King Streets blackness prevailed for several hours during the early part of the night. It is believed that the wind caused some crossed wires and also that trees were partly responsible for the difficulty. Linesmen of the Maritime Electric Company were out most of the night endeavoring to restore the city's lighting.

FUNERAL SATURDAY — The funeral of the late Everett Wedlock was held from 239 Pownal Street, Saturday afternoon, service being conducted by Rev. L. M. Murray, assisted by Rev. D. C. Boothroyd and Rev. T. H. B. Somers, M.A., S.T.M., Interment People's Cemetery. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Mr. Murray. The pallbearers were: Messrs. A. B. Bagnall, Archie Johnston, Wallace MacKay, J. F. Gordon, W. C. MacLeod and I. S. Mitchell. The Trinity United Church quartette, comprising Messrs. T. W. Bentley, Harvey McPherson, Roy Smallman and Vernon Dennis, were in attendance at the funeral and sang, "For Thee I am Praying."

MR. SAMUEL BURROWS MOASE

The town of Kensington and vicinity was both saddened and shocked on the afternoon of Novmeber 10th when it became known that Burrows Moase had suddenly passed away at the age of fifty-six. The late Mr. Moase, had suffered a heart attack thirteen years previous and although he did not regain his usual robust health yet he recovered sufficiently to be able to do less strenuous work. He will be greatly missed in the community where he was always willing and ready to help every cause but especially in the home where he was a kind and affectionate husband. He was honest and upright in all his dealings and being so pleasant and entertaining his home was the scene of many happy gatherings.

—DEATH OF FORMER ISLANDER—Mrs. C. M. Chappell received the sad news of the death recently of her brother George B. Howatt in a Boston Hospital following a serious operation. The deceased was born in Cape Traverse 52 years ago, a son of the late James A., and Mrs. Howatt. He had resided in the U. S. A. for a number of years. Surviving are his wife and five children; also his aged mother, who has been bedfast for 23 months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chappell, three sisters, Mrs. R. H. Campbell, Stoughton, Mass., who was with him when he passed away, Mrs. E. Sherran, Cape Traverse, and Mrs. C. M. Chappell, Summerside. Interment was in Stoughton, Mass.—S.

—TO RESIDE IN MOUNT HERBERT—Mrs. Jack MacWilliams and her daughter, Miss Adele, of Cape Wolfe, Prince County, left last week for Mount Herbert, near Hillsboro, where they will in future reside. Their very modern house trailer, which Mrs. MacWilliams designed herself was hauled down by truck from Prince County. Mrs. MacWilliams and her daughter intend residing in the trailer all winter. The trailer is doubly insulated and fitted with many devices to keep out Jack Frost. It has a large living room fitted with bunks, kitchenette, bathroom and cupboards. It is furnished very comfortably and Mrs. MacWilliams expects to be very cosy in her trailer and has certainly solved the house problem shortage in a very unique way.—S.

LAID TO REST— The funeral of the late Walter E. Burke was held yesterday afternoon, a short service at the house being followed with service at Trinity United Church conducted by Rev. D. C. Boothroyd, who also officiated at the grave. The I. O. O. F. Lodge and Boyne Lodge both attended in a body and each held services for the deceased. The I. O. O. F. service was conducted by Noble Grand Percy Gay assisted by Past Grand J. P. Campbell, Boyne L.O.L. service was conducted by Worshipful Master A. A. MacCallum assisted by Chaplain George Olive. MEN IN UNIFORM ENTERTAINED— About 300 men attended the increasingly popular house party for the men in uniform staged Saturday night at the local Y. M. C. A. The navy, army and air force were each represented at the enjoyable function which is part of the "Y" services for the troops. A very pleasant social evening was spent in dancing, games and other amusements. At the height of the entertainment Lt. Col. F. I. Andrew, M.M., officer commanding No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Centre at Beach Grove, paid a visit to the Y. M. C. A. He expressed himself as being very favorably impressed with the work which is being done for the members of His Majesty's Fighting Forces by the local "Y." At the conclusion of the merry making, the boys were served an enjoyable luncheon by the Saturday Night Ladies' Committee.

Stoker James "Hec" Fergueson, R. C.N.V.R. of Charlottetown is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital with a fracture of the pelvic bone as the result of a car accident at Pleasant Valley, on the Charlottetown-Summerside highway, yesterday morning. Two other naval men, Writer Percy Folland and Stoker William Campbell and a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force, whose name could not be learned last night, suffered minor injuries in the same accident.

They were enroute to the city from Summerside when the mishap occurred at 3 a. m. Driver William Campbell applied the brakes when the car ran into a cloud of fog and a locked wheel caused it to overturn into the ditch. Folland's head was driven through the windshield by the impact and he was confined to the hospital for the greater part of the day while he received medical attention for cuts about the face. However, last evening he was able to leave the institution. He is stationed at the local R.C.N.V.R. barracks but his home is in Summerside.

LAID TO REST—The funeral of the late Mrs. A. J. Grant was held from her late residence, Mt. Stewart, Sunday afternoon to St. Andrew's Church, where service at the Church and grave was held by the pastor Rev. Dr. T. Campbell. DISCOVERS BREAK — Ernest Swallow, of Charlottetown, was taken into custody last night by city police and held pending the laying of formal charges in police court today. Chief of Police A. Birtwistle said one of his constables, Gordon Poole arrested Swallow. The police chief said Constable Poole heard a sound of breaking glass in a gangway beside the L. H. Kennedy Agency on Kent Street. According to police, Swallow was carrying several articles, including motor rugs, spark plugs and articles of harness. A window into the agency was broken. Police said the articles taken from Swallow resembled those handled by Kennedy's. The firm sells farm machinery and automobile accessories.

WEDNESDAY

ROAD BLOCKED — Encountering nine-foot drifts near Fredericton on the Charlottetown-Summerside highway, the first snow plow to go out from the city this season was forced to abandon the fight because of a heavy blizzard yesterday morning. The Government plow left here about eight o'clock and although parts of the road were clear, other sections were piled high with drifts. The machine arrived back in the city about 11 o'clock and it expected to continue the work today. Wheeled traffic between here and Summerside was suspended in the meantime. The roads in the east were clear of drifts and cars from Montague and points on the St. Peter's Highway towards Souris were able to reach the city without difficulty. Officials at the Government garage last night reported that the drifts had reached a depth of nine feet in at least the one section. Canadian National Railways trains to Summerside yesterday carried plows.

MARKET CATCHES FIRE — Burning newspapers behind a radiator in the ladies' rest room in the City Market Building were discovered in time to prevent serious damage at noon yesterday. The wall was badly scorched before the engineer of the building, who accidentally discovered the blaze, was able to extinguish it. The Market Clerk was home to dinner when the conflagration broke out Referring to the incident at the City Council Meeting last night, Coun. J. E. Blanchard, chairman of the public property and market committee, said "we are lucky to have a market tonight." He charged that the building had been "actually set on fire." The doors were open at the time it occurred and "someone is responsible." The engineer happened into the building and discovered the blaze. He tried to extinguish it with the fire extinguisher but was forced to use the hose before finally putting it out.

A large number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mrs. Earl Kennedy on Thursday evening to tender her daughter Rena a shower in honor of her approaching marriage. The dining room was very nicely decorated in pink and white, and after all had gathered and to the strains of "Here Comes The Bride" played by Mrs. R. S. Humphrey, Rena was led to the seat of honor," which like the room was also decorated, by Miss Olive Glydon. A large basket of gifts was brought in and opened by Mrs. William Cousins and Mrs. Fred Semple and the many good wishes and humorous verses were read by Mrs. Ivan Darrach, while Mrs. Orville Darrach and Miss Marion Lockhart placed them on the table. Rene in her usual charming manner thanked one and all for their lovely gifts, and best wishes and extended a welcome invitation for all to visit her in her future home. After which all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A delicious lunch was served by the ladies, and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in social chatter and a lively sing-song led by Mrs. Ivan Darrach at the piano.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER—A large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kier Woodside, Hamilton, to do honor to their daughter, Barbara who is one of the season's brides. The house was prettily decorated in pink and white with a profusion of potted plants. A prettily decorated seat of honor was placed in the bay window of the drawing room. The bride to be was escorted downstairs to this seat of honor by Mrs. William Ramsay to the strains of music by Mrs. W.E. Donald presiding at the piano. A decorated barrel containing numerous gifts was rolled in by Leita Ramsay and Ruth Taylor, while Mrs. Horace MacFarlane and Eileen Hamilton opened the parcels, Elizabeth Ramsay and Mrs. James Ramsay read the accompanying verses and Margaret Cousins arranged them on the table. Miss Woodside then graciously thanked all for their many and beautiful gifts and joined in singing, "For She Is A Jolly Good Fellow." After the gifts had all been admired a bountiful and delicious lunch was served by the ladies in charge and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing. Music was furnished for the occasion by Messrs. Russel MacKenzie and Elmer Phillips. V.

A delightful programme of Christmas Carols was given at last night's meeting of the Women's Music Club, held in the Charlottetown Hotel. The carols were sung by the Music Club Chorus under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Full, before a large and appreciative audience. The accompanists were Miss Sue Brenton and Mrs. K. S. Rogers.

ISLANDER IN HONOLULU. — Miss Jessie Stodart, who formerly resided and went to school in Charlottetown, and who now occupies an important position with the Hawaiian Trust Co., Honolulu, has written friends here under date of Nov. 26th, stating that at that time they were slightly alarmed at the attitude of the Japs. Her parents reside in Miami.

At the recent Annual Meeting of The Canadian Association of Tourist and Publicity Bureaux held in Ottawa on the second and third of December, Mr. Justice Arsenault tendered his resignation as Member and Director of the Association for the reason that having ceased his activities with the Prince Edward Island Travel Bureau he was no longer qualified under the bye-laws of the Association.

—WEDDING CEREMONY—A very pretty wedding ceremony was held at the Manse at Malpeque on Saturday morning when Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kier Woodside, Hamilton, became the bride of William, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Kensington. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Dugald MacNutt, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Crowdis. The bride looked charming in a gown of green silk velvet with green hat, coat with red fox trimmings and matching accessories. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to Borden for a honeymoon trip. When they return they will reside in Kensington where the groom is a prosperous farmer. A host of friends join in wishing this popular young couple many years of wedded bliss and happiness. V.

Yesterday's mail from the West brought the sad news to Mr. G. D. Wright, City, of the passing of his brother, Mark, in Vancouver. Enclosed in the letter was the following clipping from a Vancouver paper:

"Funeral services for Mark Nathaniel Wright, who died at his home, 5018 Joyce Road on Saturday will be held Thursday at 3 p. m. in Mount Pleasant Undertaking Company's chapel. Rev. J. W. Smith will officiate and interment will take place in Ocean View Burial Park.

"Born in Prince Edward Island, Mr. Wright had lived here thirty-one years. He was a retired grocer. He is survived by his wife, a son, Louis R. Wright of Toronto; five daughters, Mrs. P. E. Poole, Vancouver, Mrs. H. MacLean, Los Angeles, Miss Anne M. Wright and Miss Alice L. Wright, both of New York, and Mrs. W. M. Ryan of Nova Scotia; also by six grand-children, a brother, G. Dudley Wright of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and a sister, Mrs. Charles Full, Illinois."

IN HONOLULU — Mrs. A. A. Mutch of this city received a letter yesterday from a Prince Edward Islander in Honolulu, Miss Christine MacDonald of Queens Hospital. She is now on military duty. Miss MacDonald is a daughter of Mrs. MacDonald and the late John N. MacDonald of Kilmuir, and a niece of Mr. Donald MacKinnon, K.C., of Charlottetown. Miss MacDonald in her letter made no mention of the possibility of war breaking out in the Pacific.

The death occurred yesterday at his home, Malpeque Road, of James B. Blake, after a lengthy illness.

He was a son of the late Maurice Blake, Esq., and was well known throughout the province.

He was educated at St. Dunstan's University, and during his student days and later was a fine all around athlete, having been a member of numerous Victoria hockey and football teams.

He leaves to mourn his wife formerly Myrtle Brothers of Vernon River and two daughters, Norah and Maureen. Also his brothers, Lt. Col. J. J. —BIRTHDAY PARTY — Little Miss Eleanor Peters entertained about thirty of her young friends to a jolly birthday party on the occasion of her ninth birthday. The children had a lovely time playing games, afterwards refreshments were served, the birthday cake with nine candles was the chief attraction. The children departed after wishing their little hostess many happy returns of the day.—S.

INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT—Mr. Wilbur Trainor, mail courier, West Royalty is a patient in the City Hospital with a scalp wound as the result of a car accident on the Malpeque Road yesterday morning. He was a passenger in Mr. L. W. Roper's car returning from the funeral of the late James B. Blake when another car crashed into the rear of the auto during a blinding snowstorm. Several stitches were required to close the wound caused when his head struck the roof of the car with the impact. The other machine was operated by Mr. Keith Pickard. Other occupants of both cars escaped with a shaking up. Mr. Trainor's condition was good last night.

SENT TO SUPREME COURT—Ernest Swallow, charged with breaking and entering, also theft, was committed to stand trial in the Supreme Court when he appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning. The case arose out of a break into the L. H. Kennedy agency on Kent Street Monday evening. Const. Gordon Poole arrested Swallow near the scene of the break. Two soldiers from the mainland, who are stationed in this province at present, appeared in Court charged with taking and operating a motor vehicle without the consent of the owner. They were remanded one week. The case arose out of the theft of Chester Campbell's car from the front of his shop the previous night.

WEDDING BELLS—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist church manse Charlottetown, Thursday evening Nov. 20th when Rev. I. J. Levy united in marriage Elmira Blanche, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stead Wheatley River and Vernon John son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Noys, Hunter River. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Andrews of Charlottetown. The bride looked lovely in a black hudson seal coat, wine transparent velvet dress and matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple and attendants motored to Summerside where a sumptuous wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Nays left next morning on a motor trip through various parts of the Maritimes. Upon their return they were tendered a miscellaneous shower by their many friends where many lovely and useful gifts were received. The young couple will for the present remain in Charlottetown where the groom is with the Canadian forces. Their many frieinds wish them happiness and every success through life.
