WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding took place in the United Church Parsonage at York, on Wednesday evening November 19th, when the principals were Mr Arthur Leith Brown, of York and Miss Emma Louise Scott of Marshfield. Rev. F. E. Boothroyd officiated at the ceremony. The couple were attended by Mr Alec Scott and Miss Muriel Brown. As the principals are so well known, they have the best wishes of a great circle of friends.

SOCIAL GATHERING—On Friday evening, Nov. 14th, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Newsome entertained very pleasantly at their beautiful home in Kingston the “cast” of “The Church's Awakening”, along with other friends. Both young and old mingled together to the delight of all. Many different games were entered into with real enjoyment, while music both instrumental and vocal was not lacking. Mrs. Everett Holmes in her usual capable manner presided at the piano and Messrs Barret, Heartz and Ward delighted the company with many of the old favourites. The wants of the inner man were not forgotten and at midnight a dainty lunch was served. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess for their hospitality after which Mr. Newsome and several others were waited to the ceiling amid hearty cheers. This was an evening of rare enjoyment and good fellowship brought to a close.

WHAT SIR HENRY THORNTON SAYS:

“I am very much obliged to you for the advance copies of the SOUVENIR EDITION. I congratulate you upon the excellence of the production which is really well done and full of interesting articles dealing with the Garden of the Gulf.”

THE HALIFAX HERALD SAYS:

“With the compliments of The Charlottetown Guardian, we have received a brochure entitled “The Golden Future,” setting forth the attractiveness of Prince Edward Island.

“The spirit of optimism which characterizes this publicity publication is particularly commendable, and the fact that one of the provinces of Canada, in the face of a world-wide depression, is singing a song of faith and confidence, is a good indication that this Dominion has yet many things for which to be thankful.

“Prince Edward Island, pre-eminently a farming district, has led the way in many branches of progressive farming, and also in co-operative marketing. The people are, on the whole, exceptionally contented. They invite the rest of the world to share their happiness with them. And the initiative of the Charlottetown Guardian in the publication of this strikingly illustrated little booklet is highly commendable.”

SILVER FOX PELTS.—Do not sacrifice them when prices are low. I am taking a consignment to Montreal, November 26th, to be sold direct to the Manufacturers. All pelts sold will be paid for December 6th. Unsold pelts returned if shipper requests. Reasonable reserve limits accepted on all consignments. Selling charges 5%. Cleaning charges 50c per skin. All consignments fully covered by insurance. Pelts received at my office, Summerside, up till noon, Tuesday, November 25th. Bring in your pelts. Charles R. Stavert. 9355-11-22-21.

WALTERS—BIRT WEDDING—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist Church at nine o'clock Sunday morning, Nov. 9th, at Berlin, New Hampshire, when Miss Emma E. Birt, of Peakes Station, became the bride of Arthur W. Walters, of Berlin, N.H. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of blue georgette with modish hat and accessories in harmony. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, who wore an outfit of brown and carried a bouquet of red roses. The groom was supported by his nephew, Mr. Wilfred L. Poley. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Albin Birt. Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Walters left for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they will spend the winter, planning to return to Berlin in June. They will visit Washington, D.C., and other interesting points en route. The happy couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for prosperity and happiness.

ENJOYABLE GATHERING—Recently the home of Jake S. McLeod North River Road was the scene of a most enjoyable gathering when the entire choir of Zion Church assembled to greet its fellow member John McLeod Jr., and his bride upon their return from their honeymoon. Congratulatory remarks directed to this popular young couple were numerous to which Jack for his bride and himself capably responded. A commensurate presentation of silverware from the choir, songs, music and general merriment enlivened the evening to a late hour when everything good to eat was liberally distributed.

L. O. L. MEETING—On the evening of Oct. 15th, a number of the officers and members of Jubilee L. O. L. in Iris, together with their wives and daughters gathered at the home of Brother Henry Compton, who is an honorary member of said Lodge and presented him with an address and a sum of money. Brother J. A. Stewart read the address and Brother A. MacDonald made the presentation. Brother Compton thanked the brethren and gave a short, but inspiring talk on Orangism. Short speeches were also given by Brother MacDonald and Brother Stewart. A delicious lunch was then served by Mrs. Acorn, grand daughter of Brother Compton, assisted by Mrs. MacDonald. The remainder of the evening was spent in conversation and singing some old favorite songs, accompanied on the organ by Miss Sadie Buell and a most enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing God Save The King, and also giving three cheers for the Orange Order.
