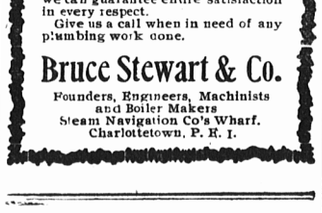
BLATCHFORD'S CALF MEAL



The thrifty farmer raises Calves cheaply and successfully with little or no milk by using BLATCHFORDS' CALF MEAL

"We are satisfied the calves can be raised successfully on Blatchford's Calf Meal and water."—Aug. Paulson, New Holstein, Wis.

"The feed furnished for this experiment was very pure, palatable and nourishing." Enclosed is a photograph of the calves which certainly appear to have appreciated the appetizing feed you supplied.—A. A. Brigham, P.H.D., Rhode Island Agricultural Experiment Station, Kingston, R. I.

"We have indications of some very good results from feeding Blatchford's Calf Meal."—J. J. Edgerton, B.S.A., Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station, Ames, Ia.

"It is very good for preventing scouring. I fed it to 17 calves last spring and shall feed it more. There is nothing else you can feed that will make calves grow so fast."—Frank J. Goodemote, Franklinville, N. Y.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON II, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 10.

Text of the Lesson, I Kings xii, 25-33—Memory Verses, 28-30—Golden Text, I John v, 21 — Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

The Lord, the God of Israel, had just given to Jeroboam the ten tribes to be his kingdom, with the assurance that if he would be obedient and do right in the sight of the Lord He would be with him and build him a sure house (chapter xi, 29-38, and especially verse 38), but at the very beginning of his reign, as recorded in today's lesson, he turned his back upon God, as if there was no God and his own hand had got him all this. His record is summed up in the words which are repeated more than twelve times in the two books of Kings, "Jeroboam, thou son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin." (I Kings xiv, 16; xv, 26, 30, 34; xvi, 19, 26, etc.)

Both Shechem and Penuel, mentioned in the first verse of our lesson as having been built by Jeroboam, had been laid in ruins in the days of the judges (Judg. viii, 17; ix, 45, 46). At Shechem the Lord first appeared to Abram in the land, and there Abram built his first altar unto the Lord (Gen. xii, 6, 7). There lie the bones of Joseph awaiting the resurrection of the just, and there the Lord Jesus first announced Himself as the Messiah (Josh. xxiv, 32; John iv). At Penuel the Lord wrestled with Jacob and broke him down and blessed him as he clung to Him in conscious weakness, and changed his name to Israel (Gen. xxxii, 28, 30, 31).

Jeroboam waited not for the counsel of God. He contemned the counsel of the Most High (Ps. cvi, 13; cvii, 11.) He took counsel, but not of God, for he desired none of God's counsel (Isa. xxx, 1; Prov. i, 30). He devised of his own heart this great sin (verse 33). He seemed wholly unconscious of the fact that God gave him the kingdom and fancied that he must take care of his own life and the kingdom, too; so he said, "If they go to Jerusalem to worship they will turn back to the king of Judah and kill me" (verses 6, 7). The thought of helping the Lord to manage His affairs by some help or advice of ours is very old. Abram and Isaac and Rebekah and Jacob all tried it. Simon Peter also was not wanting in this line of things, and there are many who still think that without some of their common sense and good judgment the Lord will hardly be able to accomplish His purposes. Will the Lord's people never learn to obey Prov. iii, 5, 6?

Jeroboam must have known the story of the golden calf in the wilderness which Aaron made and of the thousands who fell because of that sin, yet he disobediently, deliberately and presumptuously commits the same sin and proclaims the same lie (verse 28; Ex. xxxii, 4, 8). If any one had reminded him of God's judgment upon Israel and had suggested that his present conduct was both dangerous and openly wicked he might have replied, if he had the wisdom of some professed defenders of the faith today: "Oh, that was 500 years ago, and we do not know whether there was any truth in it or not. That is an old story and perhaps only a tradition. Look at those idol groves and high places on Olivet which the great Solomon built for his wives, and where he worshiped also, and yet he prospered and died peacefully."

Jeroboam had the spirit of Cain, who preferred his own thoughts and ways to those of God and feared not to disobey. When he said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem" (verse 28) he talked like the devil in the garden of Eden when he suggested to Eve that God demanded too much of her, or when he suggested to Achan that it was too much self denial not to take that garment and gold, or when he suggested to the Lord Jesus through Simon Peter that it was too much for Him to think of suffering and dying at Jerusalem. The devil is ever talking on the same lines. He says it is too much for you to go twice to church on Sabbath or to go so far to church at all; too much to shut yourself up on Sunday when you have been shut up in the store or office all the week; too much to ask you to give back to God any of your hard earned money when you need it all, and more, for yourself and family.

Think of a golden calf at Bethel, where the Lord had revealed Himself to Jacob in the vision of the ladder. Contrast this work of sinful hands with the God of Jacob and the ministry of holy angels. What a desecrator of holy places and things this man was who had sold himself to do evil in the sight of the Lord! (II Kings xvii, 17.)

It is not enough for him to despise the only true God, the God of Israel, and the Holy City and the temple, the only appointed place of sacrifice, but he also despises God's chosen priesthood and sets up one of his own. There may be man made priests, so called, even now, who worship golden eagles and are in God's sight of the lowest of the people. Let us rejoice that God takes the lowest and most sinful and by the blood of the Lamb makes them true priests unto Himself and gives them the assurance that they shall yet reign with Christ on earth (Rev. i, 5, 6; v, 9, 10).

Moses did not ordain feasts or priests or anything in connection with the tabernacle worship. God did all. But this man takes the place of God and imitates God, making us think of II Thess. ii, 4. Notice in the last two verses of our lesson the repeated phrase "which he had made" and compare in Dan. iii, "which the king had set up," and let us beware of man and "worship God."

Be Particular About the Priming

THE ordinary Ochre so generally used for priming coats on buildings is cheap in first cost but the most expensive in the end. Ordinary Ochre priming is poor priming. Poor priming means poor wearing quality for the best paint that can be put on.

The priming coat is the foundation. If that's inferior the paint will not last. Cracking, peeling, scaling are in the majority of cases traceable to the priming coat.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS LIQUID PRIMER

is made with the same care as is used in the manufacture of The Sherwin-Williams Paint. It is made to thin with one gallon of pure Raw Linseed Oil to each gallon of primer. It is easily applied and gives an elastic surface. It is economical for the consumer; it saves in the amount of paint used; it saves in the wear of brushes as it is ground finer than ordinary primers. It is of light straw color, giving a good foundation for body or trimmers. It is put up in the same size packages as S. W. P., quarts, half-gallons, gallons and 5 gallon packages.
