DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Today is the final wind up day for harness racing over New England tracks.

Many horsemen have been travelling to the Walnut Hall Farm, Kentucky, Hanover Shoe Farms and Village Farm, both in Pennsylvania, looking over colts which will be consigned to the Old Glory Sale in New York, November 22nd to 27th.

At Hanover Shoe Farms they will be looking for another Dean Hanover, which was sold at $410 as a yearling, to become the world's champion three-year-old trotter this season and be sold back to the Farms for $20,000.

Prominent three-year-olds of this season which were sold in the same farm were in addition to Dean Hanover, Maude Hanover 2:03 1-4 for $325; Nate Hanover 2:02 3-4 for $350; Robert Hanover 2:07 for $200; Exit Hanover 2:09 1-2 for $175.

On the contrary, Walnut Hall Farm, Lexington, Kentucky, yearlings usually bring high prices if very fashionably bred.

John P. Scripps, of the powerful Scripps-Howard newspaper chain, is an enthusiastic harness horse owner with several good campaigners.

The dead Peter Volo liveth by the performance of his sons and daughters, twelve of whom have entered the 210 list this season.

Our old friend John "Red" Hanafin will be auctioneer at Topfield, Mass., speed sale on Monday, when some two or three dozen trotters and pacers will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Unfavorable weather probably prevented a new pole team record from being made at Lexington, Kentucky, last week, as Ben White, noted trainer, was all set to have a crack at the pole team record of 2:03 1-4 set by Uhlman 1:58 and Louis Forest 2:03 1-4 twenty-five years ago, with Margaret Castleton 1:59 1-4 and Rosalind 1:59 1-4.

Walter Cox, whose name was reverberating through the harness horse world ten years ago with such champions as Fireglow 2:04, Walter Dear (3) 2:02 3-4, Volomite (3) 2:03 1-4, Sam Williams 2:01 1-4 and Ethelinda (3) 2:02 1-4, has cut down the time of harness horses and instead owners have purchased some runners. No doubt Walter finds the increasing years a handicap to training a large stable. With the runners it is different. They stick up a boy on their backs and give him instructions as to how far he is to run the candidate.

Mr. E. A. Webber, Bangor, Maine, writes us that Lady Lockett, 2:06 1-4, and Mr. Counter, advertised in this paper have been sold.

A village blacksmith, Leon Holden, was the hero of the day at Gorham, Maine, last Monday, when he drove the four-year-old Lady Lee to victory in two heats, giving her a record of 2:14 1-4. A holder of the daily double ticket won $278.60 as Kelly Hanover and Georgia L. scored surprising wins.

During the current season $48,916.185 was wagered at the various tracks (running and harness) in Massachusetts. Of this the state will receive as their share $2,145,098.

The Western Racing Association, a purely running affair, accounted for over twenty million dollars of the handling and other running events practically all of the remainder. The harness horses take in New England States Grand Circuit was $137,000. Great Barrington Fair $89,690, Marshfield Fair $80,742.

"Red" Hanafin had a streak of luck last Tuesday at Gorham, Maine. The previous day he bought the trotter Mac Harvester and the next afternoon won the eighth dash on the program with his purchase, and a ticket that he held on him—the only one—paid $248.

The Indianapolis, Indiana, speed sale takes place the week after next, dates are November 8-9-10-11. A lot of good horses will find new owners there, including the high priced Hal Cochato (3) 2:02. Ready Dale 2:05 1-2 and a lot of well-bred young ones.

An attempt will be made to revive ice racing at Ottawa, Landsdowne Park, an outdoor sheet of ice controlled by the city, will be utilized this winter. Back in 1908 to 1915 winter ice racing was a feature of Canadian racing and a world record was made there of 2:15 by The El in 1911. If I remember correctly, The track was a difficult one to race on, being flat on the turns. The stables were built directly on the ice and many of the horses stabled there while the meet was in progress. It was a great place to bet, and thousands and thousands of dollars changed hands over an important race.

Had a short confab with Dr. J. M. Nicholson the other morning. The Doctor, as many readers know, is a walking encyclopedia of harness horse facts. Said he, "Why didn't you tell about the race Special Blend went in Amherst when I was writing about him?" I said I didn't know anything about it. "Well," he said, "that was before LeRoy Willis owned him. He lost the first two heats in 2:31 and 2:33, then our old friend P. S. Brown was put up and P.S. won the next three heats and gave him a record of 2:21. Not only that but he started him the next day and won another race in straight heats." The Doctor then went on to tell about ex-Mayor Brown and other great races he had won that season and said, "There is no doubt about it, he was the greatest driver of them all."

DeSota (3) 2:02 1-2, fast and handsome three-year-old stallion that was one of the best trotters of his age racing in 1937, has been sold to parties in Italy which will be raced. He was purchased from Paul Bowser of Boston, Mass., who bought him out of the annual consignment of the Walnut Hall Farm in 1935. He was one of the top three-year-olds this season, is very highly bred and a marvelous individual.

Plans are already being discussed to revive ice racing in Charlottetown the coming winter. Several members of the Victoria Driving Park will take an active interest in it and with the number of good horses in its vicinity, there should be no dearth of an alliable speed to make an interesting series of classes.

The many friends of Ernie McTague will regret to learn that he is ill in the Charlottetown Hospital, and will hope for his speedy recovery.

Hugh Walker, North River, looks to have one of the best slow class trot prospects in the five-year-old next season, in Crispin 2:06 1-4. Peter Pin was one grand trotter late last season, being timed in 2:11 1-2 at Fredericton and even faster in one of his races in Maine. He has practically recovered from the injury which stopped his racing this fall and is a beautiful horse in appearance and has lovely manners. Stable companions of Peter Pin are Flucky Scott 2:06 and Claire Napoleon 2:12. Hugh will have a trial for the ice this winter that will be hard to head.

Alie Webster, Marie, paid a visit to Charlottetown last Thursday and reports Balbo 2:15, Leta Kalmuck 2:14, and his three-year-old, two-year-old and weanlings in great shape. One is by Lusty Frisco 2:07 out of Quinla 2:04 1-2. Quinla also has a two-year-old sired by Dillington 2:13 1-4 that is said to be a real pacer. Quinla

Interest In The Binns - Kelly Bout Mounts

As the date for Joey McDonald's big boxing card at the Forum draws near the fighters are rapidly rounding into shape for what probably will be their last appearance in a local ring this season, on Wednesday next, Nov. 3rd.

The main bout, a ten-round go between Bennie Binns and "Irish" Leo Kelly for the middleweight championship of the Island, is one that is arousing considerable interest among Island boxing fans. Fight followers have long awaited a scrap between this pair and although several attempts were made to match them, something unforeseen always happened to delay their meeting.

Training steadily the past month he worked-out yesterday at the Forum. After three rounds of shadow boxing he breezed through five fast heats with Earl Kinsman and wound up with a skipping exercise.

Kelly looks a much improved fighter since his last appearance here, throwing his punches faster, blocking better, and his in-fighting leaves nothing to be desired.

On the other hand Binns is leaving no stone unturned to be in the best possible condition for the defence of his crown. Never far out of fighting trim, Bennie has been paying strict attention to training for some time and is at present perhaps in the best condition of his career.

Already boasting one victory over Kelly, Binns confidently predicts he will make it two straight and judging by the manner in which he polished off Bobby Orr and Pat Metallic in recent bouts, the majority of fans are not inclined to doubt his prediction.

However, Kelly has gained confidence since the last time the pair hooked up and those who have been following the training activities of the two battlers are somewhat dubious as to who will be declared the winner.

Regardless of how the fight ends, fans are assured that once the two start throwing leather they will see a rough, tough even battle as long as it lasts.

In the semi-final Earl Kinsman, the Berwick Cyclone will tangle with Danny McCormick former Island lightweight champion. A pleasing card of preliminaries is also scheduled for festive fans.

By virtue of their win over Derbies last night Felt Hats are leading the Y House League with four wins and no losses. Score for the game was 21-15.

In the second game the Old Hats and Soft Hats battled to a 12-8 decision for the latter.

The last game of the evening brought the Top Hats and Hard Hats together. In marked contrast to the previous fixture the teams played wide open all the way and the fans were treated to some nice exhibitions of ball handling and team play. Top Hats finished ahead 28-16.

Cullen started for the Felt Hats while honors were even between Muirhead and Harper in the final tilt. Arthur Godkin handled the whistle for all three contests.

has been bred back to Calumet Budlong 2:02 3-4; that combination should give a wow of a pacer. It is reported that Frank McKay, East Royalty, has purchased Betty S. 2:07, which has been in his care and bred to Calumet Budlong 2:02 3-4. Betty S. was almost a hundred per cent winner a few seasons ago, and is certainly one of the best mannered and gamest race mares that has struck these parts.

Red Wings Still Regarded As "Team To Beat" For National League Title

DETROIT, Oct. 29—Blessed with one of hockey's acknowledged great defense units and an abundance of first-class forwards, Detroit Red Wings, in the opinion of Manager Jack Adams and the rest of the League, are "the team to beat" for the National League title and the Stanley Cup, both Detroit property for the last two years.

There is no reason to suppose Wings are not as good as last season, and three reasons why they might be better. They are we Larry Aurie, ace of the first string line, Captain Doug Young and Orville Rouleau, all of whom played only a part season because of broken legs.

Either Rouleau or Scotty Bowman, another defenseman, and centre Wally Kilrea will drop back to Pittsburgh Hornets of the Int.-Am. league when the National League opens Nov. 4. Johnny Sherr, native of Calumet, Mich., will replace Kilrea on the third line.

Two other minor changes have been made. Johnny Gallagher and goalie Earl Robertson, who starred in the playoffs, have been sold to New York Americans. Aside from these shifts, the Red Wing management has let well enough alone.

Back of the blue line will be Norm Smith in goal. Bucko McDonald and Young will form one defense pair and Ebbie Goodfellow and Rouleau or Bowman the other. Smith is one of the best netminders in the business and his defensesmen can really hit, and attack in their spare time.

In the first string line lies the Wings' greatest offensive. It is centered by veteran Marty Barry, who makes plays so well that Herbie Lewis on the left wing and Aurie on the right have their work made much easier.

Two steady trios back up the aces, Syd Howe, Johnny Sorrell and Pete Kelly will form the second line with Gord Pettinger, Mud Brunelau and Sherr as the third stringers. The Ottawa speedster, Ice Kilrea will give up his regular forward duty for use as utility man.

Not the least reason for the Detroit successes, the forwards have always backed up. With the necessary speed and size this season's 10 should have plenty of back-checking power.

If injuries do strike again Adams can fall back on the Pittsburgh farm which helped him each time a Wing was felled last season. From the Hornet camp, came Robertson, Jimmy Oriana, Sherr and Rouleau as one after another was injured. There wasn't a replacement who didn't make good.

Phil S. Cobb New Curling Club Prexy

Mr. Phillip S. Cobb was elected president of the Charlottetown Curling Club at the annual meeting held last night at the club headquarters. Other officers elected were:

Vice President—A. Belcher. Secy Treasurer—John A. Fraser. Chairman of the committees are: Bill Davis, Entertainment; Hal Spillie, Games; D. A. MacKinnon, Building; Fred Cordwell, Membership; Ralph Worthy, Publicity.

Retiring President, Mr. Harry Winchester, who presided, gave a resume of the activities of the club last season. Due to the unfavorable curling weather play was necessarily curtailed, but the membership nevertheless continued strong, he said. Mr. Winchester referred briefly to the acquiring of a site on Euston Street which he felt would be ideal for the location of a club house and the installation of an artificial ice plant. He said, however, it was up to the curlers themselves whether or not plans would be left in abeyance pending further consideration by the incoming executive.

The report of Secretary-Treasurer J. A. Fraser was read and adopted. A vote of thanks to the Secretary-Treasurer and the various committees was moved by Mr. H. L. Brenton and seconded by Mr. A. W. Hyndman and unanimously carried.

A motion by Mr. D. A. MacKinnon that the Charlottetown Curling Association from tonight cease to exist and that the incoming executive be known as officers of the Charlottetown Curling Club Ltd., taking over all liabilities and assets of the Association was discussed and action deferred.

Des Smith Signs With Royals

MONTREAL, Oct. 29—Montreal Royals of the Quebec Senior Hockey League announced tonight they had signed up Des Smith and Mel Carey who tried out this fall with Montreal Maroons of the National Hockey League.

Smith, a husky defenceman, played hockey in England last year. He previously was with teams in Charlottetown and Saint John. Carey used to goal in Toronto.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Score. Includes M. Clinton, Monday night's games will start at 7 o'clock sharp with the same eight couples taking part.

Attractive Quarters For Yacht Club

Much public interest has been shown in the construction, now nearing completion, of the new quarters for the Charlottetown Yacht Club, situated on the reconnoitred property formerly known as Lorus Wharf at the foot of Pownall St.

The building, designed by Mr. J. M. Hunter and constructed by Mr. Leo F. Doyle, is a fine example of club-house architecture, combining modern and traditional features with pleasing effect. It is roofed and shingled with fire-proof material, and has a water frontage of 60 feet, with a verandah, 50 feet long, opening upon the main club-room, and capable of accommodating twenty chairs, where the view and breeze from the harbour can be enjoyed luxuriously.

The club room, 45 by 35 feet, is only and commodious, suited for play for dancing and other social functions. A nautical effect is achieved by specially designed lighting fixtures, and a cozy touch is added by the large stone and cement fireplace. This fine piece of craftsmanship is the work of Mr. James Gormley.

Ample provision is made for a ladies card-room and cloak-room, stove heated; a ladies' dressing room with shower and other conveniences for bathers; a small room for gentlemen; a kitchen and washroom and an up-stairs office for club officials.

The land surrounding the club house has been enclosed and leveled off in preparation for seeding next year. The finished effect will be that of a lawn with gravelled pathways to the gate and street entrance, to the west side of the wharf, where an apron with shed roof will be built for the accommodation of row-boats, and to the landing stage at the head of the wharf. There a flood-light is being erected, which will illuminate the floating platform and surrounding waterfront.

The construction of the wharf by the civic authorities, and the dredging of the basin by the Dominion Public Works Department, were carried out in a very satisfactory manner. Nine feet of water is now available at the landing stage, ensuring safe and convenient accommodation at all times.

Although no membership campaign has yet been conducted, Commodore Fred E. Morris reports the Club membership to be already over fifty, with the prospect of it exceeding the hundred mark next spring.

It is planned to open the clubhouse next June, and to hold a Regatta in the latter part of July, in which yachtsmen from Halifax and other maritime clubs are expected to participate. This gala event should prove of great maritime interest and attraction.

In addition to its yachting membership, the Club is planning to open an associate membership for swimmers, the facilities provided being equally well suited to this popular sport.

The Commodore glowed with enthusiasm as he conducted a Guardian reporter over the Club premises yesterday. He expressed warm appreciation of the courtesy and co-operation received from the civic and federal authorities, as well as with the work of the architect, the contractor, and others concerned. Everything, he declared, has gone smoothly and satisfactorily; and now, at long last, it seems that the hopes of yachting enthusiasts are to be realized, and facilities provided which will be a credit to the city and province.

Saints Take Lead In Intercollegiate Series Defeating P. W. C. 11-3

Saint Dunstan's Intermediate rugby team proved the better "mudders" as they dribbled to a 11-3 victory over Prince of Wales in the second game of the best two-of-three series for the Intercollegiate championship at the C. A. A. A. grounds yesterday afternoon. The opening game played Tuesday ended in a 11-11 draw.

The win put the Saints in position to clinch the crown now held by the city collegians in the third game to be played the first part of next week.

The rain-soaked field made handling difficult and traveling underfoot precarious and both teams resorted to dribbling tactics with the fast-traveling, rugged Saint forwards holding an edge over their city rivals. They were quick to capitalize on the "breaks" of the game and took the lead early in the opening half when F. Connolly plunged over the line following a scramble some ten yards out. Murnaghan failed in an effort to convert.

Early in the second half Prince of Wales detached the count when Maurice "Moose" Hughes followed fast on a kicked ball over the Saint line to block a return punt and fall on the loose play. The flashy forward was injured in the play but gamely carried on for the remainder of play. Jubilation among P. W. C. followers was short-lived, however, for the Saints again countered when J. Connolly went over following a dribbling attack the entire length of the field. Murnaghan converted for the two extra points. Saints scored their final three points in the dying moments of play when Murnaghan dropped over a penalty kick from thirty yards out awarded when an over-anxious city collegian executed a false tackle.

The Lineups Prince of Wales: Fullback, Johnson; three-quarters, Coyle, Doyle, Saunders, McKinnon, Halves, Sinclair, A. McDonald, V. McDonald; Forwards, Glover, Gillis, Hughes, Mullins, Mooney, McTague, Richardson.

Saint Dunstan's: Fullback, Murnaghan; three-quarters, Shay, J. F. McDonald, V. Roach, M. Campbell, Hughes, Trainer, Sullivan, O'Brien; Forwards, Aylward, T. F. McDonald, Hogan, McNeill, J. Connolly, F. Connolly, W. McGrath.

Referee: James McCallum.

Armstrong Gains Featherweight Title

NEW YORK, Oct. 29—(AP)—Henry Armstrong, sensational Los Angeles Negro fighter, gained undisputed possession of the world featherweight boxing title tonight by knocking out Pety Sarron of Birmingham, Ala., holder of the National Boxing Association crown in the sixth round of a 15-round match that inaugurated the Mike Jacobs regime in Madison Square Garden.

In a sudden and unexpected finish to a whirlwind slugfest Sarron took the count of 10, on all fours, after capturing four of the first five rounds and boxing his way to a decisive margin on points. The little Syrian weakened without warning under a heavy barrage of blows to the head, staggered half-way across the ring, then went down from a short right to the chin.

Sarron was counted out after two minutes 37 seconds of the sixth round had elapsed without apparently knowing just how it all happened. Still on his knees, he looked inquiringly at referee Arthur Donovan and remained in a complete daze as Armstrong's hand was raised in token of victory.
