WANTS BOTH LAND AND INDEMNITY

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia, who came to Paris yesterday in connection with the situation over the Austrian treay, which the Jugo-Slava state has not yet signed, declared today that the allies ought to see that his nation should not be asked to sign new engagements presented at the last moment. He was referring to the annex to the treaty submitted for signature which contained a provision setting off the debts of the new parts of the kingdom against the inremnities due Serbia. This, Prince Alexander declared, was incontestably a new provision. "We are obliged to make this declaration," said Prince Alexander, "while holding sentiments of the utmost devotion to our friends and allies, but conscious of our responsibility toward our people. They desire to be useful members of the society of Nations, and they will be such if we and our friends alike bear in mind the principle, "No one can be compelled to do the impossible."
