YOUTH Will Be Sentenced Today For Murdering Sister-in-law.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) SYDNEY, N. S., Nov. 13.—Young Nicholas Markadonis will go into court tomorrow morning to hear himself sentenced to death.

The mandatory penalty will be imposed by Mr. Justice Hugh Ross, who today received the verdict of a petit jury finding the 20-year-old Greek guilty of murdering his sister-in-law, Mrs. Cleo Markadonis, at her Grace Bay home on July 20.

Four Days Trial

The jury's decision was reached after more than four days of trial and following a deliberation of about 2 1/2 hours. The case was completed before noon today with Mr. Justice Ross' summing up, and the verdict was in the hands of the court at 2:15 P. M.

The youthful defendant heard it without visible emotion. He paled slightly as foreman Robert Roberts, like his own father, a shoemaker, read the jury's finding; but a few minutes later he walked steadily out of court and back to the cells.

Asserts Innocence

Before his case closed, Markadonis had taken the stand in his own defence to assert his innocence of the shooting of his brother's wife. The young mother was shot in the back by a bullet from a revolver as she prepared a bottle of milk for her baby in the kitchen of her home.

Markadonis admitted to the court he had traded a shotgun for a revolver a short time before the woman was killed, but he said he was merely preparing for the hunting season. He had not quarrelled with Mrs. Markadonis, he declared.

Death At 81 Of Sir Donald Mann

TORONTO, Nov. 12.—Sir Donald Mann, Canadian railroad builder and financier died here yesterday. He was 81 years of age.

Sir Donald D. Mann was a prominent figure for many years in the country. He was a member of the Board of Directors of extensive railroad building in Canada. He was successfully engaged in farming, lumbering, railway contracting and financing. He retired some years ago.

The contracting firm of Mackenzie and Mann which he established in 1886 became widely known for its railway building activities. Sir Donald was knighted in 1911. He was a Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

A native of Acton, Ont., where he was born March 23, 1853, was educated at public schools. After a brief period of farming he entered the lumbering business. At the age of 21 he became foreman of a lumbering company.

In 1879 he moved to Winnipeg, and the following year became a contractor on the Canadian Pacific railway interests many years ago. Sir Donald married Jennie E. Williams of Winnipeg in 1887. They had one son.

In 1909 he and his son secured the building interests many years ago. Many legends grew up about the stalwart figure of Donald Mann. One story concerns an incident in China, where the Canadian was challenged to a duel by a pompous Russian count, who took exception to remarks Sir Donald had made. Sir Donald was convinced the challenge must be accepted, but as the man challenged he had the right to choose his own weapons. He selected broad-swords which he told the Russian's second were the national weapons in Canada. The Russian's enthusiasm for the duel abated considerably when he was told of this, and the duel did not come to pass.

Another story concerns his youthful days in Acton. The boy who was to become a power in the railroad world was told by his teacher: "Donald, you're the biggest boy in the class. And you'll be the biggest failure unless you mind your ways." The scholar was as often at the foot of his class as any of his fellows.

appearance on a charge of murder. In another section of the jail was a wrester accused of a minor crime. Local police had no idea he was Frank Marton, "the Virginia Bad-Man," wanted for murder in New York state. Only after he had engineered the escape of Hariton, himself and three others was his identity established.

A provincial probe followed. Court officers were discharged and the "cage" was burdened with more bolts. Since that time only jail guards have released prisoners kept behind his doors.

The steel cage is also a "death cell" of the Midwestern prison, but the man charged with the daylight kidnaping on a public highway August 14 will face only the maximum of 20 years in Kingston penitentiary if he should be convicted. Many believe this will not happen. They point out that Labatt himself claimed his abductor was a big man, athletic, strong, thin, nervous, partially blind.

But more details of Labatt's story are still being guarded by the attorney-general, Arthur Robbuck, who angered by the "lack of co-operation" between various police bodies and forces, took the case into his own hands and ordered sentence. The Labatt family came out of hiding the day that Melsner gave himself up to the Detroit police and notice had been posted that he was wanted. The prisoner claimed he had a perfect alibi and probably will produce witnesses who saw him in Cincinnati the day the "snatch" was negotiated.

Mrs. Labatt, the abducted man and her three small children, dropped from sight for some time. It was found they had sailed for England. There they probably will remain until after the trial.

Meanwhile the brewer himself is being guarded day and night by plainclothesmen of the Pinkerton agency. After Melsner was taken into custody in Detroit, burglar alarms were installed in the Labatt home, indicating the wealthy brewer fears reprisals from the gang which held him captive for three days and then released him without ransom.

Melsner's case will not be tried until Dec. 2 when the winter sessions of the supreme court opens.

WORK AT BASILICA—Workers are engaged at present constructing a stairway in the bell tower of St. Dunstan's Basilica. It is understood that in the spring an expert is to come here to examine the chimneys, when it will be decided whether or not changes are to be made in the keyboard.

ISLANDER DEAD—Mrs. Fred Waller, 46 Orlebar St., yesterday received a telegram from Mr. Waller stating his brother, William M. Higgins, had died in London, Mass. On receipt of his brother's illness some days ago, Mr. Waller left at once for Quincy, remaining with him until the end.

POLICE COURT—At the Police Court yesterday a drunk was fined $3 and costs or five days in jail. A prohibition case was dismissed. A breach of the sanitary by-law case was adjourned until Friday. The defendant was ordered to clean the premises in the meantime.

POLL MEETING AT NORTH WILTSHIRE—At a meeting of Conservative electors at North Wiltshire on Monday evening, Mr. Gordon Newson of Kingston was unanimously elected convenor for the poll. URGE EMBARGO AGAINST BRIT. WOOLLENS

Grand Falls Tuber Growers Duplicate Local Motion.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) GRAND FALLS, N. B., Nov. 13.—Potato growers of this district, at a meeting here, urged a Canadian embargo against Canadian potatoes. The resolution adopted read:

"Whereas potato-growing is a basic industry in the Maritime Provinces of the Dominion and the potato growers are suffering dire distress, and the industry is in grave danger of being killed because of adverse fiscal tariffs in the United States of America and Cuba and an unfair discriminatory embargo by Great Britain.

"And whereas if the British markets were open to us without restrictions as to most European nations we could sell our potatoes within the Empire at a reasonable profit over cost of production.

"And whereas the British embargo placed because of an alleged fear of the Colorado potato beetle, or what we know as the potato bug, and it would be just as reasonable for the Dominion government to place an embargo against British woolen goods because of the prevalence of beddings in certain parts of the British Isles.

"And whereas there appears to be no prospect of the British potato embargo being removed until the matter is made an Empire issue, no possibility of selling the present potato crop unless this embargo is lifted.

"Be it therefore resolved that the Canadian government be urged to immediately place an embargo against British woolen goods entering Canada and to retain same in effect until such time as the British government removes the existing embargo against Canadian potatoes."

ALBERTON, P. E. I.—A Company of Canadian Girl Guides was organized in the Women's Institute hall on Thursday the 8th November. The President and Secretary, Treasurer and six other members of the Institute were present, also the Captain, Miss N. Oulton, and two lieutenants, Mrs. W. J. Phillips and Miss O'Brien. There were fifty-six girls present, forty-four of Guide age and twelve of Brownie age. The aims of Guiding, explanation of the "Tenderfoot" test, singing, games and one or two songs filled the time and a half hour of the meeting. Meetings will be held once each week for five meetings, after which the recruits who have passed the "Tenderfoot" test will be enrolled as Canadian Girl Guides.

A meeting for the formation of a local association in Alberton was held at the recruits last. It was suggested by the Secretary, Treasurer of the Institute that the Institute should sponsor Guiding in Alberton. This suggestion was favourable to those present, and it will be the duty of the Executive of the Women's Institute in Alberton.

Since November 1st, two new companies in Murray River and Alberton have been organized and it is hoped that other districts will have a Company organized before the visit of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, Chief Scout and Chief Guide.

Belgium Will Remain On Gold Standard

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) BRUSSELS, Nov. 13.—Belgian official circles appeared to be united tonight in support of a "sound money" policy for the new Government made necessary by the resignation of the late day of the cabinet of Charles de Broqueville. The Catholic bloc of Parliament, meeting after the Cabinet's resignation, invited the New Government to oppose devaluation of the franc. This action was in line with that taken earlier by the Liberal bloc, and thus both coalition groups were united against devaluation.

Their stand appeared to ally fears that Belgium might not remain on the gold standard.

Meanwhile, speculation was rife as to what the make-up of the new government would be. Political circles pointed out that since the cabinet's resignation was based merely on the withdrawal of two ministers who were not members of Parliament, Van Zeeland and Ingeblert, the door had been left open for King Leopold to re-appoint Count de Broqueville as the new premier.

Shrimp Boat Missing

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 13.—A coast guard cutter continued to search the foggy sea off Daytona Beach tonight for the Agnes, a shrimp boat with three men aboard, lost for two days.

Divisional coast guard headquarters here reported no word had been received from the boat since it sent out a distress call late Monday. The boat gave its position as six miles off the coast.

ion that may be deemed wise and effectual to safeguard the peace of nations.

Paraguay argued that League precedents proved her contention that the first step toward ending a war was to end hostilities.

The note was regarded as a last minute move to halt the fighting with Bolivia and as inferentially attacking the Bolivian thesis that settlement of territorial claims must be simultaneous with the discontinuance of hostilities.

Paraguay's last previous communication to the League, however, dated Nov. 12, was interpreted in League circles as being a proposal for the settlement of the dispute by the League to Paraguay and Bolivia to accept cessation of hostilities under international guarantees.

This appeal, sent Nov. 9, proposed that Paraguay and Bolivia should agree to cessation of hostilities in return for international guarantees involving an undertaking based on the idea of the interdependence of conditions previously put forward by the two parties.

Paraguay replied that she interpreted this proposal as meaning that execution of such an accord would depend upon a solution of the fundamental difference, namely, solution of the substance of the dispute. Under these conditions Paraguay said, she must reiterate her disclaimer.

Today's communication from Asuncion arrived while delegates of Argentina, Chile and Mexico were drawing up a set of facts regarding the conflict for a report to a special assembly of the League.

It declared that "when hostilities are ended, excessive outbursts of patriotic enthusiasm will subside, and follow calmer reasoning."

Denies Company Agreed Upon Newsprint Price

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.—A recently published report that Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Company, limited, had announced for 1935 newsprint prices similar to those recently quoted by the International Paper Company was denied tonight by F. W. Clarke, vice-president of Anglo-Canadian.

Mr. Clarke said his company had made no such announcement and was not in a position to announce any prices at the present time, since its prices to its customers were determined by the average prices charged by certain Canadian and United States mills.

Brit. Premier Will Pursue Peace Policy

(C. P. Cable)

(By Guardian's Special Wire) SOUTHAMPTON, England, Nov. 13.—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald reiterated his conviction that the only way to solve the disarmament problem is to develop an international licensing system for manufacture of arms in a speech at Southampton tonight.

In emphatic terms he expressed his adherence to the cause of peace and pointing out the difficulties confronting the government in dealing with the armaments question. The government was zealously pursuing a peace policy, he said. The Foreign Secretary (Sir John Simon) had to sit around tables not with peace-loving peoples but with representatives who "do not share our views and have grievances."

"You can pipe but if they don't want to dance you cannot compel them," he said.

"We have got to accept armaments which I work day and night to diminish," he said, adding he would accept no defeat in his efforts to advance peace. As he stood at the microphone in London on Armistice Day he vowed Britain would be an instrument in making war a thing of the past, the Prime Minister declared.

CHAIN STORES

The evidence was taken, said Mr. Gibson, during 1934.

Averages

Salesladies' wages for each of the provinces averaged as follows: Prince Edward Island, 87 cents; $7.53 a week. In Nova Scotia, 100 were paid $8.33; in New Brunswick 33 received $8.17; in Quebec an average of $8.81 was paid to 305 sales ladies; in Ontario 634 received $11.55; in Manitoba 87 ladies were paid $11.05; in Saskatchewan 76 received $13.46; in Alberta, 59 got $12.18 and in British Columbia a total of 97 were paid on an average of $12.86.

Operating expenses of the Woolworth Company for the last five years averaged 46.67 of the cost of goods purchased, witness said. There were 327 stores in Canada belonging to 15 variety chains, of which Woolworth's was one chain. The net sales of the 327 stores had a value of $39,383,379 in 1930, and of this amount the Woolworth Stores earned $20,188,172. Total payrolls of the 327 stores were $4,193,188 while Woolworth's paid $2,472,379.

Make Increases

Substantial wage increases were put into effect by the F. W. Woolworth Company, limited, as a direct result of the mass buying commission, it was learned today. G. H. Gibson, commission auditor, presented a report today which disclosed the wage increases.

"This voluntary action of the company, giving a substantial increase in wages to a large body of employees has been brought about through the enquiries of this parliamentary committee on price spreads and mass buying," he said.

The wage increases or adjustments, went into effect last May.

MacDonaid, President of the Army and Navy Club, Major J. R. Paton, Mr. Fred Page Higgins, chartered accountant of Toronto. The matter of rebates and allowances was dwelt upon.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Coast guard headquarters here early tonight received report that the overdue freighter, Poplar Bay, was believed safe in a storm that lashed the Great Lakes.

The report said a craft was sighted anchored in the lee of Mackinac Island.

War, war—echoes of war.
 Years, not years, but spectres
 Who grin and wait and wait and grin
 For hell's grim carnage to begin.

Aye, hell it is! Look, the bottomless abyss
 Of torrid hell, we're on the precipice!
 Hell after death? A plague upon such stuff!
 War's dividends are Hell—twere hell enough.

This is our hell, man's self-annihilation;
 Does God's own image wait this consummation?
 Is it our destiny—sore and beggared,
 Condemned to wield our father's broken sword?

The scream of shells, the cannon's
 The agony of instant war
 Our fathers knew, Would God no more
 Might these grim phantoms pass!
