IN MEMORIAM

MRS. E. O. BARBOUR.

The death of Mrs. E. O. Barbour of Alberton took place on Friday, Oct. 12. She had been in delicate health for some years and this spring she tried a change of climate by a visit with friends in Alberta. The change however benefited her but a little and her death occurred a few weeks after her return. Mrs. Barbour came to Alberton about four years ago and all her many new friends soon learned to admire and love her very greatly; and a wide spread and very deep sympathy is felt for Mr. Barbour and the two children Alberta and Hilton, left behind. Mrs. Barbour was a daughter of Mr. William Guard of Mill River, East, and is survived by two brothers and one sister, Henry living on the old homestead, Eltjah in Charlottetown and Mrs. John Hardy of Fortune Cove. The funeral procession was a large one and deep solemnity pervaded it, on the way to the cemetery at Bloomfield, and while they passed the scenes so familiar to Mrs. Barbour from her childhood. The funeral service at the home was conducted by the Rev. George Miller and at the grave by the Rev. Robert Murray.

MRS. J. T. OXENHAM

The death of Mrs. J. T. Oxenham in Winnipeg, came as a great surprise to her many friends and relations on the Island, as well as elsewhere. She was enjoying her usual health up till a few minutes before her spirit passed into the presence of Him Who gave it. Although in her sixty-ninth year she was still very active, always of a cheerful disposition and greatly attached to her family, yet the anxious thoughts concerning her two sons, Walter and Isaac, both of whom are on active service, no doubt bore heavily upon her, as upon many other parents during the terrible war that is taking the lives of our young men. On Saturday the 24th of September, the funeral services were held at Mr. Benjamin Matheson's and conducted by the Rev. Daniel MacLean, and attended by a very large number of her old friends from Brookfield and Hunter River, where she was held in such high estimation. Messrs. Arch. MacPherson, Joseph MacPherson, Elias Wonnacott, Hector Buchanan, John Spence, and William Darke acted as pall-bearers, and the body of a kind neighbor and loving mother was laid to rest in the little Greenvale cemetery. Besides the two sons already mentioned, Arthur who lives in Winnipeg, accompanied the body to the Island. She leaves also to mourn their loss, Mrs. George Dixon, Royalty Junction, Mrs.

MRS. JOSEPH McEWEN

There passed away at Mount Stewart on Monday, Oct. 8th, Margaret Cameron, widow of the late Joseph McEwen, of West St. Peters. The deceased was apparently in her usual good health and was preparing to visit relatives a few miles away when, without a moment's warning, the summons of death came to her. This sudden demise was a great shock to her family, friends and the community at large. Mrs. McEwen was for many years a faithful member and strong supporter of the Presbyterian church, a

APPEAL FOR MORE SOCKS

Yesterday the following cable was received from London urging a further supply of socks for Island boys at the front.— London, England, October 23rd, 1917. Mrs. J. O. Hyndman, Charlottetown. Please send more socks soon. (Sgd.) Major McKinnon. In the past three weeks four hundred pairs have been forwarded by mail, by the P. E. I. Sock Committee, direct to the Island boys in France.
