

"Kill the Flies"

Now's the time to "get after" that scourge of modern days—the common house fly. Nearly all diseases and ailments prevalent in summer time are caused by these filthy and disease-laden insects, and every home should be supplied with poisons and fly-catchers.

- We have
- Fly Paper
- Fly Poison
- Spiral Catchers and
- Persian Insect Powders

For Constipation

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless it Cures.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c, and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, MacKinnon Drug Co.

It pays to buy in this Province.

R. J. Carmichael, Peake's Station, was among the visitors to the City yesterday.

There was a fair market in this city yesterday and no change in prices, as will be seen by the itemized statement given in this issue.

Mrs Joseph Kennedy, Chatham, N. B., is visiting in this City the guest of her parents, W. N. and Mrs Higgs. She is accompanied by her two children.

Those interested in Fox Ranches should call at Hyndman & Co's Insurance Offices while visiting the Exhibition, as that firm have something to offer that will interest them.

Those registered at the Queen Hotel in this City yesterday were: J. C. Archibald, Lawrenceville; T. L. Madden, Boston; J. J. McKenna, City; S. Martin, Valleyfield; J. B. Gaudet, Miscouche.

J. A. McIsaac, of the International Harvester Co., Woodstock, N. B., was in the City yesterday and went to Hermitage on the afternoon train. He will visit there for some time the guest of Mrs McIsaac's relatives.

Last Sabbath being Rally Day for the Methodist Sabbath Schools, the Kensington Hall School had a large attendance of children and friends. An interesting service was conducted by Rev E. Bell, Superintendent of the school, assisted by the officers and teachers. Six infants were baptised by the Rev J. Heaney, pastor of the First Methodist Church. The future outlook of the school is encouraging.

The following were registered at the Hotel Victoria in this City yesterday: G. F. Hale, Mrs Wm Hale, Boston; J. Ramsay, St John; Thomas Kichham, Souris; R. G. Brooke, Jr., Murray Harbor; W. H. B. Verney, Toronto; H. B. McDougall and wife, Harvey Sta., N. B.; Mrs E. Crosby and daughter, Cape Traverse; J. G. Mulrhead, N. Bedque; P. M. Bridd, Regina; Harvey Mitchell, Fredericton; L. Smith, Montreal.

Fred Proctor, the Boston Journal's representative for this district, has returned from a vacation trip to Canada, where he had an opportunity to watch the reciprocity fight. Mr. Proctor took several pictures during his absence, showing Wm. J. Bryan and C. J. Reilly, formerly general secretary of the Chelsea Y. M. C. A. Mr. Reilly now holds a similar position in Charlottetown, P. E. I., where Mr. Bryan lectured. Mr. Proctor, who was introduced to the two men, took a picture of the both of them. (Chelsea Evening Record) Sept. 21st.

The bells of St Paul's church rang out merrily at 7.45 yesterday morning for the marriage of Miss Hilda Margaret Haszard daughter of Mr Justice Haszard to John Leonard Claxton of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, late of Sydney, but now of this city, who was formerly connected with the Union and Royal Banks. The rector, Rev T. W. Murphy, performed the ceremony, the choir in full strength, rendering the vocal portion of the service very effectively. The bride wore a tailor-made suit of reseda green cloth and a green velvet hat with plumes and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Fitzgerald, was attired in Saxe blue velvet dress and black hat with plumes and carried a bouquet of pale pink roses. The groomsmen were Ivan Reddin. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch bracelet and to the bridesmaid a pair of turquoise and pearl earrings. The best man received a pocket watch. The happy couple left by the Northumberland on a trip to Boston, New York, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The funeral of James M. Sutherland, former chief counsel of the Washington National Bank, who died at 2.30 a. m. yesterday will be conducted under the auspices of George Washington Lodge No. 9 of Masons. The arrangements will be completed when word is received from his daughter, Miss Ella Sutherland of Charlottetown, Canada. Burial will be in St. Peter's cemetery. He died in the home of A. R. Florida, 4324 McPherson Avenue. Death was due to kidney trouble. Mr. Sutherland had been ill only ten days. Prior to his illness he was engaged in settling the affairs of the Washington institution, which recently consolidated with the American Trust Company. Mr. Sutherland was associated in the law practice with George Eigel, a member of the House of Delegates. About seventeen years ago Mr. Sutherland came to St. Louis from Chicago. His former home was in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada. Mr. Sutherland was formerly a member of the Caledonian Society, the City Club, and the Missouri Athletic Club. Mr. Sutherland has no relatives in the United States, except a brother-in-law in Chicago. He was 58 years old.—St. Louis Mo. Globe—Democrat, September. 21st.

No one should forget that The People's Theatre will be open early and late during exhibition to give all the chance of seeing a good show.

James C. Irving, Cherry Valley, brought to this City this week twelve choice beef cattle which he sold to Saunders, Newsum & Co for the snug sum of seven hundred and ten dollars.

In Joseph Noonan's letter on reciprocity, printed in The Guardian of the 19th instant, the figures in the line "has returned to me worth $1.63" should have read $1.36 instead of $1.63.

A Victoria correspondent writes that: W. M. Snow is spending a few days at his home in Victoria.—James Howatt, Victoria, has lately returned from the West.—Victoria High School is rapidly improving under the skillful management of Braden Jolly as principal and Miss Gertrude Matheson as assistant.—Mrs J. W. Richards has been spending a few days at her old home in Victoria. She returned to Charlottetown by the S. S. Harland on Thursday evening.—Mrs Archibald Lord is spending a few days among her friends in Victoria.—Richard Lea, Jr., is spending his vacation at his home in Victoria.

A correspondent from Stanchel writes:—Miss MacDonald of this place is visiting relatives in Boston. Miss Annie Dixon is now at her old home in Stanchel where she intends to spend the winter among her friends and relatives. Mrs. Will Anderson intends leaving for Boston shortly accompanied by her sister Miss Florrie Todd. George Dixon spent Sunday in Rose Valley the guest of Malcolm MacKenzie. Samuel Todd of Bradalbane spent the week end in Stanchel. Miss Margaret Dixon of this place is at present visiting friends in Charlottetown and before returning home intends spending a few days with her parents in Mermaid. While returning from Bradalbane last Saturday evening D. Kennedy's horse took fright at a falling tree and ran away.

ITALIAN FLEET AT PALERMO.

PARIS, Sept. 26—A despatch from Palermo says that the Italian Fleet which was to move against Tripoli is still remaining in the Harbor of Palermo.

The fleet had left Syracuse for Tripoli but the detention at Palermo appears to be the result of a decision to await Turkey's final determination concerning the lease of Tripoli.
