An Obstructed Road.

SIR—I see in the Patriot of a recent date a letter referring to the obstruction of a daily traveled highway.

I passed that road this morning and find it is still obstructed. Is this a civilized country? Is there any Government worthy of the name? Or is it because this district is practically unrepresented in the Legislature that the liberties of the public can be thus invaded with impunity?

In the immediate vicinity of the present obstructed road, when one of the members of the Government wanted a road to his summer residence and another member of the Government had a piece of land which he wished to sell, a road was opened without the present hesitation.

Yours,
OBSERVER.

Miss Longfellow Adopted By Indians.

DESBARATS, Ont., August 27.—Descendants of Poet Longfellow, comprising Miss Longfellow, sister and party, witnessed a performance of Ojibway Indians of a dramatic creation of Longfellow's Hiawatha at Desbarats's Island on Saturday. Sunday the party attended religious service to the Indians, conducted entirely in Ojibway language at Longfellow's island. Afterwards Miss Longfellow made a speech to the Indians which was translated into Ojibway by Indian Missionary Frost. Wednesday, 29th inst the Indian tribe will perform the ceremony at Longfellow Island of adopting Miss Longfellow into the tribe.

A Political Old Woman.

Mrs. Ti Di of Idaho City, Idaho, is a political oddity. She is a Chinese woman, born in America, and therefore an American citizen. Under the Idaho woman-suffrage law she has a vote, and on election day she will cast a ballot for McKinley, or Bryan, or Debs, or some one of the other candidates whose names we have forgotten. Her husband Mr. Ti Di, is a native of China, and hence is not a voter. The lady is said to be intelligent, well educated and uncommonly alive to American politics.

Strange Cause of death.

The funeral of Miss Sloane, aged 21 years, of Oak Bay, N. B., occurred Thursday afternoon from the home of her father, Thomas Sloane. Deceased was an estimable young lady and is sincerely mourned by all. She died very suddenly, after eating a quantity of choke cherries and drinking new milk, although every effort was made to save her life.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

Strange Case of Kidney Disease Reported in Smith's Falls.

SMITH'S FALLS, August 27.—One of the most remarkable cures ever performed by Dodd's Kidney Pills was that of Mrs. George Barnes of this town. Mrs. Barnes was afflicted with Female Weakness and Urinary Trouble resulting from Kidney Disease. The disease had also a serious effect on her senses of sight and hearing, for at times Mrs. Barnes would be exceeding deaf and short-sighted.

Mrs. Barnes gives an account for her case for publication: "I have consulted a doctor," she writes, "who gave me medicine that seemed to make me worse at times. I was told of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I got one box. I have used part of box and am completely cured, and strange to say both my hearing and eyesight are now unaffected."
