Mt. Stewart

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jardine spent Easter in the City visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Jean Affleck of the Royal Bank staff, Charlottetown, was a recent visitor to her home in Mt. Stewart.

Mr. Wm. Mercer who has been spending a holiday with his parents, Rev. W. T. and Mrs. Mercer, has returned to Mount Allison where he will resume his studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Sorrey of Montague, were in Mt. Stewart on Monday visiting Mrs. Sorrey's father, Mr. Alfred Mitchell.

Mr. Johnny McKinnon, employee of Clark Bros., St. Peter's Bay, spent the week-end at his home in Pisquid.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leard of Lorne Valley, have returned home having spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Affleck.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Joseph Douglas, who has been a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital, has been discharged and is convalescing at her home in Savage Harbour.—Mt. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Affleck and family and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dunn were recent visitors to Mt. Stewart.

Among the teachers attending the Teachers' Convention in Charlottetown, were Misses Katherine Campbell, Bernice Rogerson, Teresa McIntyre, Geraldine Rogerson, Lois Smith, Mrs. Helen Cumminskey and Warren McGuirk.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. George Drake (nee Vivian Birt) on the death of her husband. Funeral was held on Monday afternoon from Bristol United Church with burial in West St. Peter's cemetery. Service at the church and grave were conducted by the Rev. W. T. Mercer of Mt. Stewart United Church.

Due to the sleet storm which swept the island on Saturday night and early Sunday many motorists were forced to leave their cars on the highway or stay in Charlottetown until Sunday evening. The Saturday night bus which is due at 10 P.M. did not arrive at Mt. Stewart until 1:30 Sunday morning.

Mr. Malcolm Beaton, staff of Bergmann Construction Co., has returned from his two weeks vacation to take up his duties. His father is at present in Truro, N.S. visiting his son Ernest.

Mrs. Frank Murdoch, Murray River, was a recent visitor to Montague where her infant child is a patient in the King's County Memorial Hospital.

Misses Rena Reynolds and Selma Llewellyn, and Messrs Spencer Llewellyn, Reginald Reid and Douglas Irwin were Sunday visitors to the City.

Miss Ruth Clements, staff of Maritime Electric, Charlottetown, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Clements, Montague.

Mrs. D. P. Ross has returned to her home in Lower Montague after spending a week in Charlottetown, guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gillis.

Misses Rena Reynolds, Rose Llewellyn and Charlotte Fraser, N.S. staff of the King's County Memorial Hospital, left Monday morning for British Columbia where they have accepted employment in hospitals in that locality.

On Monday, April 5th, the final skate was held in the Montague rink. Although there is still about ten inches of ice, the lateness of the season has warranted closing the rink. The thanks of the community Welfare League and the citizens of the community are tendered to Mr. Lorne Wigginton and David Vanderrine for doing such an excellent job of managing the rink. It has been a very successful year not only for the skaters, but also for the hockey fans who have witnessed more hockey this year than in any year previous. The Junior school schedule provided a great deal of entertainment both for boys and girls who played Murray Harbour, Georgetown, and West Kent. The older boys had their own playoff schedule with Murray Harbour, Murray River and Georgetown. It was unfortunate that this schedule could not be finished, but a good start has been made in this age class, and it is expected that next year this schedule will get under way early. The senior girls teams provided the fans with a great deal of enjoyment, and have done much in renewing the old-time girls hockey team. The senior team provided the best entertainment playing many games in the Southern King's League, and staging many exhibition games. The rink was the scene of the playoffs for the Southern Kings' Taylor Jeweller's Trophy which was won by Georgetown over Murray Harbour. The beautiful trophy has been offered for annual play, and it is expected that next year

Plans were made in a general way regarding the building of the Library in the school.

A member conveyed Mrs. Nelson's thanks to members for the fruit and baby gift she received. The correspondence consisted of a letter from the Cancer Society and from Miss Beer.

It was decided to hold the annual Institute Auction Sale and the drawing for the mat in the school and plans concerning same were made.

Next meeting will be held in the school, at which the roll call will be answered by donating two squares each for the quilt. Collection for the evening amounted to $1.68.

The meeting adjourned with the National Anthem after which a bounteous lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Russel Irving and Mrs. George Irving. (Patriot Please Copy)
