The party getting in the coal to be notified by the party who is putting it in, when he has to go in the cellar to shovel it back. The party hiring the help to be liable for payment of same.

It was with feeling of deep regret that the many friends of Edwin White of this City heard of his death which took place at three o'clock yesterday afternoon after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. White was for many years in the Customs Department of this City and has many friends throughout this Province. Mr. White was the son of the late William White, of Montague, and leaves to mourn a wife, three sons, and two daughters, viz:—Aubrey of this City, Cleveland of the Anglo-American-Telegraph Co., City, and Frank, at home and Edna, nursing in Mount Sinai Hospital, New York; and Helen at home; also five brothers, William White of the Registry office, and Albert and William, City; John of Cornwall and Edgar on the homestead at Montague. The sisters are Mrs. (Rev.) Lodge, Calgary, Mrs. Alex McDonald, and Miss Janie White, Montague.

The death of Mrs. Jas St. C. Moore of Eldon, on the 21st ult, has cast a deep gloom over the whole community. Mrs. Moore was an estimable lady, whose amiable disposition and true piety had endeared her to all who knew her. She left a sorrowing husband and two daughters, who have the sincere sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. Mrs. Moore will be greatly missed in the home, in society and in the church, of which she was an active and consistent member. Her death has left a blank in the W.F.M.S. which cannot easily be filled. She has for many years been an efficient office bearer in the Eldon Auxiliary and was ever foremost in promoting missionary activities among its members. Her kindness will ever be remembered by the many who have enjoyed the hospitality of her home and her deeds of benevolence will not be forgotten by the poor and needy to whom she was ever ready to lend a helping hand. Her work on earth was finished and God has called her to her eternal reward.

"The Two Macs" MacDonald & MacKinnon DRUGGISTS.

Moore & McLeod The Millinery People. SAMPLE FURS SELLING at a Substantial Saving. IN THESE DAYS when fur prices are high and going higher a real price saving in furs is matter of note. This lot of which we are speaking, represents the whole line of samples small furs used by one of the largest houses in the country. Being made as samples, they are thoroughly first rate in workmanship, being bought practically at our own price, they are selling now at saving of quarter to one third. The lot includes ruffs, stoles, muffs, throws, and all sorts of small furs. There is a particularly strong showing of marmot and fitch furs, in rich, beautifully marked browns, presenting an appearance very similar to mink, at about one sixth the price. Some of the prices of this line are attached—but for every one mentioned we have scores of others.

PERSONAL SUPERVISION. Furniture repaired. Furniture re-upholstered. Furniture of all kinds made to order. Great bargains continued in furniture till the large stock is cleared out. At the old stand opposite Post Office (upstairs), John Newson.
