OMEN THAT FAILED

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.—The occultation by Venus of the crescent moon, which was seen here at full moon on July 2, was hailed by the Turks as a good omen in their campaign against the Greeks for the crescent moon, with a star between the horns has been used by the Ottoman Turks as their military and religious emblem since the 13th century. The crescent moon has played a conspicuous part in the history of that part of the world for over 2,000 years. It was made the badge of Byzantium in 329 B. C., when the sudden appearance of a crescent moon revealed the approach of a Macedonian army.
