

CHURCHES TOMORROW

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL Anglican Rectory, 1000 St. John's Street... Sunday Services 8:00 Holy Communion 10:30 Matins 11:00 Choral Eucharist and Sermon...

ST. PAUL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH

THE PARISH CHURCH Established 1769 by Royal Foundation... Rev. J. T. Hubert, R.D., Rector... 8:30 a.m. Holy Communion... 11:00 a.m. Morning Prayer and Sermon...

PRESBYTERIAN

THE KIRK OF ST. JAMES The Rev. T. H. Bussell Somers, M.A., S.T.M., Minister... 11 a.m. Morning Worship and Sermon... 7 p.m. Evening Worship and Sermon...

ZION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Prince and Grafton Streets Rev. G. Carlisle Webster, Minister... 11:00 a.m. Theme: "The Demands of God"... 7:00 p.m. Theme: "The Secret of Success..."

Church of Scotland SERVICE

Orange Lodge Rooms LORD'S DAY 3:00 P. M. (Note change of hour) LAID AND GRACE - Are our Good Works sufficient to save us?...

The British and Foreign Bible Society

IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND AUXILIARY... CANADIAN MISSIONARIES COMMENT BIBLE SOCIETY AND ITS WORK... Beautiful rest for the weary. Well deserved rest for the true. When our life's journey is ended We shall gain by it with you.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH Rev. William E. Dudley, D.D., L.L.D., Guest Minister... 11:00 a.m. Beginners' Department... 11 a.m. Divine Worship: Sermon: "You Can Be Carefree and Glad"...

BAPTIST

THE BAPTIST CHURCH Corner Prince and Fitzroy Sts. Rev. James D. Davidson, B.A., B.D., Minister... 10:00 a.m. Church School and Family Hour... 11:00 a.m. Morning Worship and Sermon...

SALVATION ARMY

GREAT GEORGE STREET Major and Mrs. E. Hutchison... 11 A. M. Holiness Meeting... 7:00: Evangelistic Service...

United PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

37 Elm Avenue Rev. Quincy Stairs, Pastor... All Day, Sunday, Feb. 13th, will be the regular monthly meetings with meals provided for those coming from a distance...

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Henry MacKenzie who passed away February 12th, 1946. Her thoughts were so full of us. She never could forget. And so we think that where she is She must be watching yet.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my mother, MRS. WILLIAM E. STRETCH, Long Creek who departed this life February 12th, 1941. Beautiful rest for the weary. Well deserved rest for the true. When our life's journey is ended We shall gain by it with you.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of George Maxwell Davey, who departed this life February 12th, 1945. They say time heals all sorrow. And helps one to forget. But time so far, has only proved How much we miss him yet. Always Remembered by His Wife Annie, and Daughter Janet.

The Central Guardian

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a new nature may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

GRASWELL for Photographs

CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE. MARCH 15, CLOSING DATE for entries in Music Festival.

NEW WILLIS PIANO

on display, Toombs Music Store. BUMMAGE SALE, Market Building, Saturday, February 12th. 7 P. M. Trinity Junior W. A.

ELECTRIC STEAM HEATERS

Heating Pads, Toasters, Irons, Razors. Toombs Music Store. WORK PANTS. - Humphrey's Pure Wool Heavyweight, $5.95. Best value in the City. Jack Cameron's.

FLIGHTS to St. Pierre

For information call Maritime Central Airways Limited at 2061. RESERVE TUESDAY evening March 1st. for the Charlottetown Baptist Men's Variety Concert.

HAMPTON Pastoral Charge

T. G. Head, B. A., B. D., Minister. Services February 13th, Hampton 11 A. M. Apply Road 3 P. M. Victoria 7:30. Rev. T. G. Head.

PARKDALE WOMEN'S Institute

are holding a community social at Parkdale Hall, Monday, Feb. 14th, 8 p.m. All residents of that district are cordially invited.

REV. D. S. CALKIN of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Truro, will be the Speaker on the Baptist Broadcast, "The Church's One Foundation", Sunday at 1:15, Radio Station C. F. C. Y.

CROSS ROADS Church service

Sunday, Feb. 13, 7:30 p.m. Special music will include violin solo by Miss Carol Marie Coles accompanied by Miss Ann Worthy of Charlottetown. Lic. Byron Howlett.

GOSPEL SERVICES continued

at the S. O. E. Hall, Richmond St. the following evenings, Sunday evening at 7:30 Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock. Everybody welcome. - Evangelists George and Mrs. Walker.

ENTERTAINED RECENTLY

Miss Shirley Furness, entertained at her home recently in honor of her girl friend Elaine Murray who is leaving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray for their new home in West Royalty. Many jolly little parties have been held for Elaine wishing her luck in her new home and school.

LEFT FOR REGINA

Dr. Daniel John Matheson has joined the R. C. M. P. and left for Regina to take up his training. He was met at Montreal by his sister Helen, where they spent the day together before proceeding on his journey. His many friends wish him the best of luck. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Matheson, Rose Valley, P. E. I.

THE P. E. I. FISHERIES Federation

wishes to announce that ballots referring to the opening hour of lobster season must be in Secretary's hands on or before Wednesday, February 16th, when the Board of Directors meet to prepare delegates attending the annual meeting of the Fisheries Council of Canada in Ottawa, where definite action will be requested.

MILTON RUSTICO PARISH

Services for Sunday, February 13th are as follows: St. Mark's, Rustico, 11:00 A. M. Holy Communion and Sermon. St. John's, Milton, 3:30 Evensong and Sermon. To the 3 P. M. service we welcome as guest organist Mr. Roy Muford of St. Paul's, Charlottetown to assist with the singing we welcome St. Paul's Laymen's Choir. A special invitation is extended to members of the parish and to friends who live within travelling distance of the church. Observe Sunday by going to church. The Rector, Rev. A. E. Piercy welcomes you.

THE MASTER LIGHT

The Bible is like that old brass lamp with its cups of oil and its wicks, from which those who believe in the Book receive the light to show them the path of life. We envisage the day when all men will come to this Lamp as to the Master-Light of all their seeing, and find there the Light that will guide them home to God. To send the Bible far and wide into all the world needs the help and support of all people. Give your help and support to the P. E. I. Auxiliary or Branch of the Bible Society, Auxiliary Treasurer, A. G. Putnam, Esq., 275 Richmond Street, Charlottetown.

Other Contributions

"Time does not permit me to tell you of the various funds to which we have contributed, such as Canadian Red Cross, Drive, Care, Y.M.C.A., Cancer Drive, U.E.F.B. and Save the Children Fund. The members will remember the 319 donations of children's garments sent in for the Save the Children Fund at last annual meeting.

"In times of peace our work goes on no less enthusiastically for the Q.M.H. and the P.E.I. Protestant Orphanage. Material for orphanage clothing is bought, cut out and distributed to the members to be returned to 12 West Street.

"The birthday box to H. M. Queen Mary is usually assembled through the generous gifts of babies knitted jackets, etc., and one of the pleasant duties of the society is to read the many heartfelt letters of thanks from Her Majesty - thanks evidenced by PARCELS were also sent to the Rev. Mr. Weaver of the Flying Angel Mission for seamen who had been evacuated from a similar mission in Halifax which attended not to the physical but to the spiritual necessities of the men.

"Individual parcels were sent for men of their units in the three branches of the service were joyfully received and eagerly attended to.

In all 119 parcels of war knitting were sent to various destinations containing a total of 3800 articles.

29 large parcels of excellent second hand clothing were sent to the devastated city of Plymouth and distributed through the kindness of a former member Mrs. Alienny working with the famous W.V.S.

"An Official Visit", dialogue by school.

Intermission with sale of candy and apples. The tickets were drawn for the flashlight and box of Wintol Junior Red Cross. Eunice Cudmore won the flashlight; Floyd Houston the chocolates.

Band Drill, eight boys. Song, Robert and George Younker and Merrill Shaw.

Dialogue, Detective Snoop and Dr. Doop. Song, Doris Younker. Indian Drill, school group. Recitation, Stirling Parsons. Carols of Old, school group. Closing Chorus, school group. Santa then made his visit, distributing the many gifts. The National Anthem closed the program.

GORLESTON, Suffolk, England (CP) - Pipesmoker Mrs. Sarah Knight, 79, was given two new briars by admirers.

Review Of Queen Mary Needlework Guild Activities

The history of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild is reviewed in the following report of the secretary, Mrs. A. B. Cosh, submitted at the Guild's recent annual meeting:

"In the early days of the first war an appeal was sent out to the Women's Institutes for socks for the soldiers. So generous was the response that thousands of pairs poured in overwhelming the postal staff, who called on several ladies of the city to come to their aid, and Mrs. R. FitzGerald and staff of workers, sized, packed and dispatched them from the old skating rink.

"Following on this Dr. Murray McLaren of St. John, afterwards Governor of New Brunswick, appealed for 100 abdominal belts to be made in three days. These resembled small corsets and were very difficult to make. The ladies instrumental in dispatching the socks with the assistance of three dressmakers bringing with them three sewing machines accomplished this monumental task in three days at 'The Hill' 175 Fitzroy St.

"At this time a visitor from Quebec, Mrs. Lorenzo Evans, whose name is so well known to the members approached this group and serves as a dual purpose. The patients are sent a box of babies' garments for Her Majesty's maternity hospital, Hampstead, London. This hospital is for the wives of sailors, soldiers and airmen and serves a dual purpose. The patients are sent a box of babies' garments for Her Majesty's maternity hospital, Hampstead, London. This hospital is for the wives of sailors, soldiers and airmen and serves a dual purpose.

"Each year ever since 1918 the Guild has sent a birthday gift to Her Majesty, a box of babies' garments for Her Majesty's maternity hospital, Hampstead, London. This hospital is for the wives of sailors, soldiers and airmen and serves a dual purpose. The patients are sent a box of babies' garments for Her Majesty's maternity hospital, Hampstead, London. This hospital is for the wives of sailors, soldiers and airmen and serves a dual purpose.

"Our membership has been depleted during the year by the loss of 3 devoted workers, Mrs. Arthur Weeks, one of our charter members, who during all the years never lost her keen interest in the best interests of our various boxes. Her generosity and sympathy in all our undertakings, especially lately in our Christmas gifts to the ladies of the Salvation Army Sunset Lodge will not soon be forgotten. We will miss her.

"Mrs. Chester Acorn, who filled the gap left by the death of her sister, Miss Fairclough, never forgot to send us comforts for babies in her own handwriting. And Mrs. Florence Frank whose sudden death shocked us greatly, made hundreds of socks and handed in to the Red Cross in the name of the Guild. We always regret the loss of those loyal members and now in closing to recapitulate war work 1939-46: Knitting for the forces 3800 socks, etc. Relief boxes to Plymouth and to the destinations 400 Orphanage work to date 3600 articles of babies' garments. Queens birthday box 2000 articles of babies' wear.

All of which is respectfully submitted. - Mary F. Cosh, Sec'y.

NORTH WINSLOE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The evening of Dec. 23rd saw a large crowd in Winsloe Hall to attend the concert of North Winsloe School under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Jean Rayner. The following program was enjoyed by all, with Merrill Shaw acting as chairman:

O Canada, by chairman. Recitation, Roger Ford. Here Comes The Bride: Scene I. "Sister's Best Feller", a recitation by Merrill Shaw. Recitation and Song, Doris Younker. Merry Christmas Everybody, Roger and David Ford, and Inez and Harold MacQuarrie. Song, David Younker. "An Official Visit", dialogue by school.

Intermission with sale of candy and apples. The tickets were drawn for the flashlight and box of Wintol Junior Red Cross. Eunice Cudmore won the flashlight; Floyd Houston the chocolates.

Band Drill, eight boys. Song, Robert and George Younker and Merrill Shaw. Dialogue, Detective Snoop and Dr. Doop. Song, Doris Younker. Indian Drill, school group. Recitation, Stirling Parsons. Carols of Old, school group. Closing Chorus, school group. Santa then made his visit, distributing the many gifts. The National Anthem closed the program.

GORLESTON, Suffolk, England (CP) - Pipesmoker Mrs. Sarah Knight, 79, was given two new briars by admirers.

Planning a Garden?

TRY OUR SEEDS Catalogue Free on Request ARTHUR VESEY YORK, P.E.I.

The receipt each year of her beautiful Christmas card, addressed to the Secretary, but really the property of the Guild.

"You may say from what source do our funds come, as this is a society where no fees are asked or expected. In years gone by we have had rummage sales and most of you will remember our one great party - a movie, on which we have been living for some years. From these sources and from the great generosity of many of our members who send in donations of money and materials our bank balance has been miraculously kept at a good working average - thanks to the wizardry of our treasurer.

"Among non members interested in our work we must make special mention of Mr. Douglas Gordon who came to our rescue several times with large donations of material from the textile division of the Dominion Rubber Co. From these we have made aprons, dresses, sleeping bags for overseas and even 5 dressing gowns for the Ukrainians at the San, also many other useful garments.

"The Guild again expresses sincere thanks to Mr. Gordon and sends to him and his family our best wishes in his new home in Edinburgh, Scotland, also our congratulations on promotions and successes he has so richly deserved.

"In the summer of 1948 we heard of Mrs. Margaret of the passing of Mrs. Margaret Evans who was responsible for the founding of the Charlottetown Branch through present Hon. President.

Her patriotism was unbounded and she gave of her wealth to many causes during 2 years. She sent us many valuable contributions both for the Queen's Orphanage. She will be greatly missed, not only in her native city, Quebec, but by the Charlottetown Branch and its members.

"Our membership has been depleted during the year by the loss of 3 devoted workers, Mrs. Arthur Weeks, one of our charter members, who during all the years never lost her keen interest in the best interests of our various boxes. Her generosity and sympathy in all our undertakings, especially lately in our Christmas gifts to the ladies of the Salvation Army Sunset Lodge will not soon be forgotten. We will miss her.

"Mrs. Chester Acorn, who filled the gap left by the death of her sister, Miss Fairclough, never forgot to send us comforts for babies in her own handwriting. And Mrs. Florence Frank whose sudden death shocked us greatly, made hundreds of socks and handed in to the Red Cross in the name of the Guild. We always regret the loss of those loyal members and now in closing to recapitulate war work 1939-46: Knitting for the forces 3800 socks, etc. Relief boxes to Plymouth and to the destinations 400 Orphanage work to date 3600 articles of babies' garments. Queens birthday box 2000 articles of babies' wear.

All of which is respectfully submitted. - Mary F. Cosh, Sec'y.

Spring Fashions In SKIRTS

Here is what you have been waiting for in new SKIRTS. Our Spring shipments are now beginning to arrive. Combining all the latest styles and shades we can now offer you a selection in plaids, plain colors, displaying the new features such as pockets and buttons. Ideal for the career girl, college girl or bowler.

The Fashion Shoppe

"The Store That Fashion Built" PHONE 55 141 GT. GEO. ST.

Longevity Candidates

By Uncle Joe THE YOUNKER BROTHERS

The Younker brothers, the first twins we have encountered in our longevity column, were born at Winsloe, Feb. 10, 1856, which makes them ninety-three years of age, a remarkable record, to say the least.

So far as this writer has been able to pronounce on syllable, which was "No." In the conduct of life it is often imperative to say that one syllable.

There is a situation in Skatespeare's "Richard Second" where we see the significance of a single word. Bolingbroke and Mowbray are challenging each other about their loyalty to the king. They arranged to fight it out by physical force, but he stopped and sentenced - the first, to ten years, but the latter, to life. They are to go into exile. Bolingbroke and Mowbray cut from his sentence and then he says:

"How long a time lies in one little word, Four lagging winters and four wanton springs, End in a word."

So it is in most of our lives - one little word hastily spoken may destroy a bridge of friendship and folk may drift apart. Decisions are made by one fateful word and is said that means much and the result. Here again the Bible comes to our aid, for this is seen in the lives of Joseph, Moses and Daniel, as well as in the life of Jesus himself.

Joseph was tempted sorely. He felt that God's eye was on him and so said "I cannot do this wickedness and sin against Him." It was a determined "No." Moses turned his back on all the glitter of Egypt and identified himself with his slave work. He was "No" again when he refused to bow down to the idol of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for boys is his life. He would not take the wine which the king suggested and ordered; later he would not bow down to an image set up to be worshipped, but looked across the Nile and saw the land of promise. Then this is illustrated by the conduct of Daniel. What a story for