WIDOW IS WELL-KNOWN IN SUMMERSIDE

Symbolic of his character the funeral on Oct. 10th, of Capt. John Allan Paton was sincere and ostentatious a column of men glad of the opportunity to pay honor in death to one they had respected in life, but being upon their grim faces beneath war-time helmets the sorrow a soldier feels for him among his beloved comrades who has given his life for his country and his flag, marched in machine-gun formation behind Troop "A" the escort of honor Captain Petty, who had an unusual opportunity to know the character of the man over whose body he conducted service emphasized the fact that although Capt. Paton had numerous opportunities to accept positions which would have made him secure from the dangers of war, he was true to himself and his country and went to the front with the men whose comradeship he valued. He told of the friendship which had grown up between the honored Captain and his men, how the comfort and well being of his men had ever been his first thought. Ceremonies were conducted at the home of Maud Y. Paton his widow, 468 Munson St. with the troops drawn up in line formation before the house where through the open windows they could view the flag-draped coffin buried in floral pieces and hear the soft distinct voice of the Chaplain. Sabres were presented by the cavalymen and the veterans stood at salute at the coffin was placed upon the caisson to be borne to the cemetery. Three rifles broke the quiet of the calm afternoon as the chaplain completed the short service for the dead at "rest" from the bugle sounded on a distant hillside. Those who had known, respected and loved Capt. Paton as man and officer paid their last respects over his mortal remains. Capt. Paton was in command of the Co. D. 102 Machine-Gun Battalion, when he was killed in action near Bois D'Ormont, Oct. 27th 1918. He was born and educated in New Haven and had served through the various ranks in Troop A before receiving a commission as second Lieutenant in France he was promoted rapidly for gallantry in action. A history of Troop A, edited by a veteran of the Co., is dedicated to him with the following tribute: "With love for him as a comrade this book is dedicated to the memory of Captain Paton." Capt. Paton was in his 33rd year and a member of Hermon Lodge, A. F. & M. Capt. Paton's widow who is 468 Munson St. with the troops drawn up in line formation before the house where through the open windows they could view the flag-draped coffin buried in floral pieces and hear the soft distinct voice of the Chaplain. BRIDAL SHOWER AT KENSINGTON.

An extensive bridal shower was given at the Bruns Hotel, Kensington, on Friday night for Miss Addie Howard, telephone operator at Kensington. Miss Howard is soon to be one of the principals in an interesting event. The presents were numerous and valuable. Music and songs were furnished by Miss Slackford, Miss Crozier, Mr. Gordon Leitch, Garnet Profit, John Thompson and T. Semple. After refreshments were served some of the guests indulged in an hour's dancing. Mrs. Lynds was the hostess "ideal."

PROGRESSIVE KENSINGTON.

The expression "Times are dull," is scarcely ever heard in Kensington, "business as usual" is the general slogan. Shipments of potatoes have been exceptionally large. Kennedy Bros., have shipped in the vicinity of 25 carloads of Maritime Province and Ontario markets. New streets have been laid out recently and new cement sidewalks have been laid. Major Bentley of the Town Council deserves much credit for the up-to-date-ness and progress of the town. New residences have been built by Messrs. Allan McNeill, Guy Duggan, Russell Champion, Wesley Champion and Mr. Arsenault (returned soldier.) McMahon Bros. have built a large extension to their pool and billiard rooms. The Farmers Co-operative Co. has built an addition to its warehouse also built a frost proof potato cellar. Hartie Bowness, contractor, has built two large bus-buses on Malpeque street, which will soon be ready for occupancy. Many prosperous farmers in the nearby vicinity of Kensington, have retired from active work and taken up residence in town. It is probable that the good old National Protective policy, inaugurated in 1878 and continued uninterruptedly, militated considerably towards their success. With the linking up of P. E. Island to the mainland by the car ferry and the standardization of our entire railway in sight in the near future, it would seem to be a natural deduction that manufacturing industries will be started in P. E. Island and a safe bet that Kensington will be one of the first sites selected for such institutions. Manufacturing industries are sorely needed in P. E. Island, our decreasing population bears witness to that. For self preservation our farmers and business men must pool their money and engage in "big business," viz industrial concerns, to create a "home market" for our produce and forever stop looking with envy and hatred on the men of the other provinces who had the courage to go ahead and start industries. Farmers who would not support a policy which makes this "golden chance" possible, would appear to be blind to their own best interests.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

There was a large attendance at the teachers' Convention here on the 9th inst. Three sessions were held during the day, the first at the High School Assembly Hall at 10.30 a. m. where the presiding officers, R. H. Rogers, Chief Superintendent of Education, Inspector or Brexler and the business men, Rev. Mr. Auld, were present. Deep regret was expressed at the unavoidable absence of Inspectors Shaw and Gallant, the latter being confined to his home with illness. After a general address was given in which Supt. Rogers took part, a game, introduced by Inspector Auld, was carried out to perfection, the object of the game being to form a stronger acquaintance among the teachers. The business of the day then began by electing officers, appointing committees etc., which took up some time. Adjournment was then made until 2 p. m. the meeting to be at the Y. M. C. A. hall. This afternoon session was opened by Mr. Harold Simpson who introduced and illustrated a series of interesting group games for the amusement of children in the school playgrounds. This was followed by an illustrated lecture delivered by Rev. Mr. Auld. From this lecture much valuable information was gained by the many who are unfamiliar with the power of London. An able address was delivered by Professor Hansauld. His subject was the manner and mode of teaching English and Literature, and this address was very interesting and much knowledge was gained therefrom. Supt. Rogers on reading the by-laws said: "This Association would hereafter be known as 'The Western Teachers' Association of P. E. Island', each by-law being read and adopted. The meeting adjourned at 6 p. m. to meet at St. Paul's Hall at 8 p. m. At this evening session the number of teachers present considerably diminished as many had left for their homes by the late train, their places, however, were taken up at the meeting by a number of citizens who enjoyed a pleasant evening. The programme was unusually good, and much knowledge was gained therefrom. The meeting was presided over by Supt. Rogers and Rev. C. DeWolfe. Mr. McLellan of St. Dunstan's University. Many of the teachers declared that it was well worth the trip to town just to hear Father McLeod, who pictured to them in language, clear and plain than they had ever understood, the duties of teachers and parents and the value of Education to Civilization and society. After the singing of God Save the King the meeting was brought to a close.

Sydney Woman Is Delighted

FROM BEING WORRIED AND MISERABLE SAYS SHE IS NOW WELL AND HAPPY

"When I began taking Tanlac I was worried and miserable woman just on the verge of a breakdown, but now I'm well and happy," said Mrs. Charles Dobbins, life long resident of Sydney, N. S., and living on Prince Street. "I had stomach trouble in a bad form and no matter what I ate I was sure to have indigestion. I got to the point where I got up in the morning tired, went to bed tired and I tired all day. Tanlac proved to be just what I needed. My appetite is splendid now, everything agrees with me. I sleep like a child all night long and I get up feeling fresh and happy. It's no wonder that so many people praise Tanlac, for it does every good thing that can be said about it."

SUDDEN DEATH AT KENSINGTON.

Mr. Henry J. Casley, an old and respected resident of Kensington, died very suddenly, from pneumonia early on Friday morning at the age of 72 years. He was affected with severe chills and Pleurisy on Sunday night, which developed into pneumonia. He leaves to mourn his death, one daughter Margaret at home, and four sons, Nelson at home, Heati living in Margate, Everett in Edmonton, Alta., and Andrew in Nelson, B. C. Deceased was one of the oldest residents of Kensington. He was a good father and neighbor and his death will leave a big void in the community. His oldest (living) son Andrew left Nelson, B. C. on Friday morning for home, it is expected to arrive here on Wednesday night, and if so the funeral will take place on Thursday. There also survive three brothers, John of Spring Valley, Alexander and Samuel of Kensington, and one sister, Mrs. Barbara Kenny of Tacoma, Wash. His wife predeceased him three years ago.

ADMIRERS SEND MESSAGES TO PREMIER

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP AQUITANIA VIA RADIO TO NEW YORK, Nov 8.—Fifteen hundred messages from his admirers to Premier Lloyd George, expressing their hope and faith in the conference on limitation of armaments, were awaiting the Prime Minister in the ship's mail room today. While the liner Aquitania sped toward New York, in the absence of Mr. Lloyd George who cancelled his voyage due to the pressing nature of the Irish situation the messages were placed in the hands of Lord Riddell who said "the plan was that we should travel with the Premier. We shall now await his arrival in Washington. He doesn't know how soon he will be able to make the journey but he hopes to be able to do so before the end of November.

Quit Meat if Your Kidneys Act Badly

Take tablespoon of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble. The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system. When your kidneys ache and you feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather; get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

A DYING WOMAN FORTELLS ACCIDENT TO FATHER KELLY

The following clipping from the Wichita Beacon, Kansas, will be of interest here as Father J. Edgar Kelly is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly, Foxe Augustus, P. E. I. He is a graduate of St. Dunstan's and Laval Universities and was ordained two years ago and then went to Wichita, Kansas.

Five minutes before Mrs. C. J. Greene, 1128 North Market, died last Friday at St. Francis Hospital, she exclaimed to her friends in the room:

"Father Kelly is having an automobile accident."

Mrs. Greene had suffered from an illness which had prevented her from speaking for three months prior to that time and those were the only words she said in all that time until her death.

At the time she spoke those words Father Kelly, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, collided in his automobile with another car near his home. Father Kelly was on his way to the hospital to administer the last sacrament to Mrs. Greene, but because of the accident failed to arrive in time.
