MAUD MULLER'S

Wish that she hardly dared to own For something better than she had known, is the wish of many an overworked housekeeper who is compelled to cook 2 meals a day on an old-fashioned poorly equipped stove. If the had existed in Maud's day, "it might have been" different and Whittier could have called her a "house hold drudge."

The MONARCH lightens labours, saves time and fuel, is a good baker and gives an ample supply of hot water for the daily tasks.

Our new catalogue is out, showing the different ways the MONARCH is supplied. Ask your stove dealer to let you see it, and also examine the range for yourself!

MARCONI HAD RESTLESS NIGHT

SPERZIA, Italy, Sept. 26.--William Marconi passed a restless night as a result of injuries suffered by him in an automobile accident yesterday.

near Borghetto. He complained of pains from a slight wound in the head, while injury to his right eye and many other bruises caused considerable irritation. Mrs. Marconi, who was not hurt in the collision sat up nursing her husband through the night.

Mr. Marconi was driving at the time, and the automobile with which his car collided was practically wrecked by the force of the impact. It belonged to a lawyer named Beltrame, who was severely bruised about the chest, while his son's teeth were all broken.

Mr. Marconi's secretary was rather badly hurt, his arm being dislocated.

It is surprising the large number of people in Charlottetown who, when they want to inquire about their Morning Daily Guardian or subscription, ask Central for the News phone No. 133, or for the Advertising phone No. 132-3, instead of 132; or when they want to inquire about advertising ask Central for the Subscription phone No. 132-3, or for the News phone No. 133, instead of 132-3; or when they want the News or Editorial Department ask Central for the Subscription phone No. 132-3, or the Advertising phone No. 132-3, instead of 133, although all those departments and their respective phone numbers are plainly given in the telephone book. Some people, instead of looking at the book, even phone one of the above departments to find out what number to ask for to get another department. All this is a great waste of time on the part of the person phoning, the operator at the Central, and the clerk in the department wrongly phoned. The news staff, on an upper floor, cannot give the necessary information about either advertising or subscriptions, nor the advertising staff about subscriptions or news, nor the subscription staff about advertising or news. In other words the clerks know and can do but their own work in their own departments, and if it were otherwise they would be continually running from one department to another, upstairs and down, mixing work, wearing themselves out and causing the greatest possible confusion. On and after 6.30 p. m. daily it is useless to ask for any phone number except 132. Patrons who consult their phone books will greatly lessen the work of the patient Central telephone and Guardian clerks and thus help make their lives much brighter and happier.

LAZY HORSE MAKES GLACE BAY LAUGH. GLACE BAY, Sept. 25.--Traffic was considerably interfered with at Senator's Corner during noon hour today, when a horse, driven by a couple of junk dealers who were rounding the corner, stumbled and fell. The animal was unhitched from the carriage and things made free and easy for him, but he, apparently, was struggling under the intimacy of age and showed no inclination of resuming his usual steady bearing and placing himself once more on all fours. Numerous efforts were made to bring the animal to his feet, but, notwithstanding the frequent application of "rawhide," the desired result could not be obtained. By this time, as is the case with similar incidents
