SUCCESSFUL BRIDGE—A most successful bridge party was held Wednesday evening in the parlours of the Canadian Legion, in honour of the visiting delegates from the Good Roads Association. The guests were received by Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse, Mrs. Ira Yeo, and Mrs. H. H. Shaw, in rooms tastefully decorated for the occasion. About twenty tables indulged in the good old game of bridge and the gentlemen joined their lady friends for lunch. In gaining prizes the provinces were well represented. The great prizes were won by Mrs. Douchette, Quebec, Mrs. Squires, Ontario, Mrs. Hill, New Brunswick. The prize winners for the town were Mrs. Mark McGuigan, Mrs. J. D. Stewart, and Mrs. Rogerson. There were also two prizes awarded to the men present. The winners were Mr. Winnegar and Mr. McLatchey. The prizes were awarded by Justice Arsenault with happy and appropriate speeches for each presentation. After the awarding of prizes dainty refreshments were served. Altogether this closing function for the Good Roads Association was one of the most enjoyable held during the convention.

WEDDING BELLS—The following which is clipped from a Calgary, Alta., exchange, will be of interest to the many Island friends of the bride, Miss Mayda S. Farrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Farrow, formerly of Summerside, and now of Calgary: "A pretty wedding took place on Saturday morning, August 31st, at seven o'clock, in St. Stephen's Anglican Church, when Mayda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Farrow, became the bride of Max Glen Kelly. Rev. Frederick H. Wilkinson performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of suntan georgette crepe with hat to match in French felt embroidered in pastel shades. She carried a bouquet of opheelia roses and orchid sweet peas. Miss Eileen Lillian Cope, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of eggshell crepe with hat to match. Her flowers were American beauty roses. The mother of the bride wore a gown of figured orchid crepe with seagull grey hat and corsage bouquet of orchid sweet peas. The bridegroom was attended by Arthur Vernon Farrow, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left on a motor trip to Jasper Park. On their return they will reside at "Okotoks." The bride's many friends on the Island join in best wishes for the happiness and prosperity of this popular young couple.

WEDDING BELLS—St. Joachim's church, Vernon River, was the scene of a most interesting event on Wednesday morning, Sept. 11th, when Leo R. MacDonald led to the altar Helen Jean, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dougald C. MacDonald, Orwell. When their pastor, the Rev. P. D. MacGuigan united them in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride, who was charmingly gowned in white satin and lace with conventional veil and carried a shower bouquet of Orphelia roses and maiden hair fern, was attended by her sister Augusta who was gowned in peach satin with black hat and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Charles MacDonald. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents where breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of both parties and among them was the Rev. P. D. MacGuigan. After the breakfast the young couple left by S. S. Hochslags on a short honeymoon, the bride wearing a black velvet ensemble with hat and shoes to match. On their return a reception was held at the home of the groom, many useful and costly gifts were received including a substantial cheque from the groom's father. The groom's gift to the bride
