THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all. Alexander Martin, Val field, was in the city yesterday.

S. J. Moore left this city yesterday for Sydney. Mrs J. R. Campbell of this Province was in St. John Wednesday.

L. McDonald, East Point, was at the Revere yesterday. A number of P. E. Island vessels are unloading produce in Newcastle, N. B.

S. G. and Mrs Thorne leave today on return to their home in North Sydney. Hon. B. Gallant, Bloomfield, was in the city yesterday, registering at the Queen.

Miss Mammie Gillan of this city left recently for Boston accompanied by her brother, Vernon. The Brant returned to the City Wednesday from East Point and other places where she landed, lighthouse supplies.

At the Police Court yesterday a man was fined $5 or 20 days for placing rubbish on the street. Three other defendants were dismissed.

Commencing Monday next the Northumberland will leave this port for Pictou at 8.20 a. m. and leave Pictou on return about 4.20 p. m. The ad. appears elsewhere in this issue.

The residence of Duncan McGillivray of Bonshaw narrowly escaped destruction by fire Wednesday. It started from a stove pipe and did considerable damage before it was extinguished.

The last issue of Busy Man's, published by the Madigan Pub. Co. 152, Montreal, contains pictures of the homes of the Lieutenant-Governors of Canada including a fine one of Government House in this City and also of Lieut. Gov. McKinnon.

Ivanhoe Chocolates (sold in bulk) which were only received by Johnson & Johnson last Monday morning, have already made a name for themselves in the City, and have been selling well that Johnson & Johnson duplicated their order yesterday, fearing that they would be sold out before a new consignment could arrive. This speaks well for the quality of Ivanhoe Chocolates, and is evidence that the firm's confidence in the public to appreciate a good chocolate has not been misplaced.

The following registered at the North American Hotel in this City, during the past few days: William O. Mayfield, T. D. Ling, Wheatley, Dr. Frank Traher, Bedford, Thomas Craswell, Rustieville, Dr. J. M. McElchison, Bonshaw, Minnie McGrath, Cove Head Road; William Roberts, Middleton, George Murray, John B. Hooper, North Milton, Ebenezer Brown, York, Fidele Gallant, Charlottetown, Royalt, J. L. At Moncton, N. B., April 15, there passed away Miss Jennie E. McQueen, aged thirty-eight years, daughter of the late Archie McQueen, Clyde Station. The deceased was a Captain in the Salvation Army and died trusting in Jesus and believing that she was ready to go to that heavenly home that is promised to those that love Him and where there is no more pain or sorrow. She leaves to mourn a good mother, four sisters and one brother. Her remains were brought to P. E. I. and laid to rest in the Hartville Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. John Gillis of Strathallan congregation.

J. J. McDonald, Pinnette, has received a gasoline engine which was shipped him from Baltimore by Hector C. McRae. The engine which is 2 1/2 H. P. is one of the class called "The Eagle Machine" and is a novelty here in this line of engine. Mr. McDonald will use the engine in connection with lobster fishing. Mr. McRae refers to engine as a son of Capt. Donald McRae of Pinnette (Ponds) and is the manufacturer of the "Champion" accumulator in Baltimore, Maryland, and though still quite a young man does a very large business in that line, and has met with universal success of which his many friends in this Province will be pleased to learn.

Some large rafts of lumber have come down the West River this week from Bonshaw to Charlottetown. William Melnie sent a large quantity of square hemlock and John McNeil and Daniel McNeil a 200 foot raft.

The news that Fred L. Cameron, of Amherst, is to run in Toronto and compete against James Corkery and Bob Fowler, the two crack distance men, will be learned with interest by the friends of the little champion in this province. The distance will be ten miles and the date will be some day early in July.

The interesting Red and Blue contest in the Sunday School of the Central Christian Church has been closed, and this evening in Carter Hall, the Blues, the losing side, will give the Reds a suitable free entertainment. All the members of the school and friends are invited to be present at 8 o'clock.

The Sunday School Conference and meeting held in Vernon River, Scotia, Methodist Church Monday were very successful. The visit and the address of Rev. E. E. Styles Pownall, Mr. McKenzie, Wood Islands; J. A. Moore Pownall; D. P. Irving, M. L. A., Mrs. Jones, Pownall; and Mrs. Jenkins, Orwell, were greatly appreciated.

The death occurred at Bradsall on Sabbath morning, April 25th, of John McDonald. Deceased was born in the Isle of Saye, Scotland, twenty years ago and emigrated to this Province about forty nine years ago. He was twice married and leaves a large family. He was a pious man and a member of the Presbyterian church at Rose Valley. He was of an unassuming nature and much liked in the community.

A correspondent from City Point, Portage, writes: George W. Murphy has returned home after a pleasant visit here the guest of John Stewart. Mr. Murphy succeeded in bagging a few geese. A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. Murphy recently by the host, Miss L. Durant, Miss Ruby H. Stewart, Mr. Mathews and Mr. Kaman, were among the entertainers. L. B. Strong, Chatham, N. B., was among the guests. Percy Birge's new gasoline launch is now at work. McDougall and Cook's launch will be ready for quishing fishing.
