"Tarzan, the Ape Man," Breath-Taking Jungle Drama, Thrills - - - - Filmgoers

All of the breath-taking adventures contained in the famous Edgar Rice Burroughs story have been brought faithfully to the screen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in their thrilling jungle picture, "Tarzan, the Ape Man," which opened at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday.

The plot of the Burroughs story is more or less familiar to the millions of readers who have followed the adventures of the famous fictional character. The English Lord who has been raised by apes as one of their kind meets a young English girl on an ivory seeking safari with her father. After amazing adventures together in the jungle, a love springs up between them and Tarzan risks his life to save the safari members from horrible death at the hands of a sav-

O'Leary and Vicinity

An interesting game of baseball was played on the O'Leary grounds on June 27 between O'Leary and Alberton resulting in a score of 2-9 in favor of O'Leary. "One Man Law" Is High-Powered Film

Buck Jones is a man of action in his newest thriller "One Man Law," the Columbia film that opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday. The picture is a crack western that will stir your blood and set your heart thumping—it's a wad of an adventure film. Guaranteed to hit just the right spot with lovers of thrill-tangled, romance-packed outdoor dramas.

Sheriff Brand Thompson finds himself in a tight spot when he has to turn out of their homes his dearest friends and decide in favor of newcomers, who hold titles to the property. It looked like Streeter, the promoter, who had sold them the property, but had withheld the titles, was a pretty slick article. Brand's close association with Streeter, who had professed to be his friend, now worked against him, and the feeling of distrust against Streeter includes Brand. The old settlers become openly hostile, and are ready to fight for their rights. How Brand straightens out this mixed-up state of affairs and rights himself in the eyes of the older settlers and his sweetheart, who believed the worst of him along with the others, makes up fast action drama.

Buck Jones makes Brand Thompson a dashing character. Shirley Grey is a pretty heroine and Robert Ellis, Murdock McQuarrie and Harry Todd contribute capable performances. A swell western!

MINERS' UNION SPLIT AS NEW BODY IS FORMED

GLACE BAY, N. S., July 14—(By The Canadian Press)—Arising out of recent unrest in the coal fields of Nova Scotia, the Amalgamated Mine Workers, a new organization with the same name and almost the same constitution as its predecessor of 1917, is gaining strength in Cape Breton, and has challenged the United Mine Workers to debate the question of which body should be the official representative of the colliery trade in this province.

The U. M. W. of Nova Scotia, affiliated with the U. M. W. of America, for many years has had on its membership rolls nearly all the 12,000 miners in the employ of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation.

Following is the challenge the provisional officers of the A. M. W. sent to D. W. Morrison, president of the U. M. W.

"We, the provisional officers of the Amalgamated Mine Workers of Nova Scotia, are prepared to debate with the district officers of the United Mine Workers of America, on the principal of organization, as to whether the Amalgamated Mine Workers of Nova Scotia or the United Mine Workers of America should be the organization to represent the mine workers of Nova Scotia.

"We would like to have the three district officers of the U. M. W. meet us on the platform of the largest hall in town or in the open air and debate the above question and leave the decision in the hands of the miners in the audience.

"We have nothing to hide; we are out in the open and prepared to tell the public what our policy is and why we are recommending it to the miners in preference to the policy of the U. M. W. of America. We will solicit no outside speakers to assist us, as we feel we are capable of debating this question ourselves with the present district officers of the U. M. W. of America.

"We have many good sound reasons for asking for this debate and we feel it would go a long way toward clearing the atmosphere. Now is your chance. If you want to come out like real leaders of the mine workers and present your brief; and, furthermore, we assure you that we will debate on organization without fear of successful contradiction, if you are prepared to meet us."

Pherson occupied the chair. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Mr. Ernest Bradley, Mr. Elwood McPherson and Mrs. D. A. McPherson. Their prompt answers testified as to the excellent training they had received during the year. Two pupils, Miss Ruth Easter and Master Arthur McWilliams received the coveted Public School Certificates. The other grades also received certificates for proficiency presented by the teacher.

The following is the Roll of Honor:

Grade V—1 Helen Boulter, 1 George Gleason.

Grade IV—1 Mary Bulger, 2 Velda Easter.

Grade III—1 Jennie McPherson, 2 Chesley McIsaac.

Grade II—1 Doris McPherson, 2 Lorna McIsaac.

Grade I—1 Cloran Bulger, 1 Donald McIsaac.

The teacher also presented each pupil with a parting gift, after which an address to the teacher was read by Mrs. D. A. McPherson, secretary of the Women's Institute, in behalf of his friends and pupils, who presented him with a valuable fountain pen as a remembrance from them. The examination closed by singing "God Save the King."

Following is the address: To Mr. Ernest Bradley, Dunblane School.

Dear Teacher:—The friends and pupils of this school district have asked me to present to you, in their name this little gift to show to some small extent their appreciation of you as their teacher for the past three years. Please accept it with the same kindly spirit in which it was given. In presenting this testimonial I assure you in behalf of the parents that as a patient teacher, a wise counsellor and a most excellent instructor you will ever be remembered with feelings of the highest regard and esteem. We look back over the period during which you have been in our school with sincere pleasure. We recollect your efforts in our behalf with grateful remembrance and we learn of your resignation with sincere regret. We hope that this gift shall many times remind you of those who presented it. In that remembrance of us please do not recollect the dullness and disobedience of us who have been your pupils, nor the thoughtless neglect of co-operation of us who are parents. Please remember that we, the parents have benefited from your services here, and that we, your pupils shall endeavor to profit by the instruction you have given and when we are far separated from each other, may it please you to know that we consider we are better as well as wiser, from the instruction which this district has received from you.

N. S. Apples Dehydrated By New Process

SAINT JOHN, July 14—(By The Canadian Press)—Representatives of the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture, the United Fruit Company of Nova Scotia and the Dominion Departments of Agriculture and Trade and Commerce last night endorsed the commercial possibilities of a new process of apple dehydration perfected by the firm of T. S. Simms, and Company, Limited, Saint John, following five and a half years of research carried on quietly at the Saint John plant of the company and in the laboratories of the national research Institute of Canada and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Both federal and provincial government representatives expressed the opinion that the product turned out by the new process, which they sampled at a luncheon given today was superior in grade, color and flavour to the California product which up until now had commanded three times the price brought by the Canadian product in world markets.

Production of Dehydrated apples for export in the United States last year was valued at $8,000,000, S. V. Allen, of the department of trade and commerce stated while Canada's total production was valued at around $2,000,000 most of the United States dehydrated apples have gone to the British Isles, Germany and the Netherlands. Mr. Allen felt that Canada could capture a large part of this trade providing a quality product was turned out.

Mr. Leith Jelly, Unisnovale, was a recent visitor to Knutsford, the guest of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harris.

There was a large and enthusiastic attendance of people at the Liberal-Conservative Convention, held in O'Leary Hall on June 27, many of whom later on motored to the opening of Riverside Inn at Mill River, which was a huge success.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER—One of the nicest showers of the season was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. MacKintley, North River, on Thursday evening July 7th, in honor of their daughter, Helen, previous to her marriage. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Fulton Moreside, Miss Evelyn Mayne escorted the bride to the parlour. A prettily trimmed carriage laden with gifts was then wheeled in by little Miss Marjorie Mutch as a winsome little bride and Master Leroy MacKintley as a gallant little groom. The parcels were opened by Miss Helen Warren, and Mrs. Harry Scott read the accompanying good wishes. Many beautiful presents were received. After Helen had thanked her friends, all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Luncheon was served and the remainder of the evening spent in music, games and social intercourse.

Quite a serious auto accident occurred in O'Leary on the evening of June 25, when a car in which were a number of people skidded into a ditch on meeting another car. One young lady was badly out about the face from the broken windshield, but fortunately no one was fatally injured.

The marriage of Miss Jennie McPherson, youngest daughter of Mr. John A. McPherson, Dunblane, to Mr. Lloyd Barwise of Springfield West on June 27, by the Rev. John Sterling. The young couple were unattended. The bride looked charming in a beautiful creation of white crepe-de-chene, with hat and accessories of white, and wore a blue travelling coat. Her bouquet was of white roses and maiden hair. Supper was served at the home of the bride to the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. A large party of young friends gathered during the evening and gave a rousing "chivari" to the young couple who are general favorites in their respective communities. The bridal couple left later for the home of the groom in Springfield West, pursued by the best wishes of their many friends. The bride will be mislaid by a large circle of friends who will be consoled by knowing that she is not far away.
