BROADWAY HIT NOW ON SCREEN

"Something For The Boys" the sensational, long-run Broadway musical that critics acclaimed as the show "that made Broadway a better place to laugh in" is now playing at the Capitol Theatre in 20th Century-Fox's brilliant Technicolor filmization, starring Carmen Miranda, Michael O'Shea and Vivian Blaine with an outstanding supporting cast.

The dance-dazzling, tune-torrid film, packed with laughs and an unusual romance, boasts six new songs by famed tunesmiths Jimmy McHugh and Harold Adamson that are already slated for hit parade popularity. All three stars as well as Perry Como, singing sensation of radio, night clubs and recordings, who makes his screen debut in the film, do the vocalizing of the tunes. Vivian Blaine ("The Cherry Blonde") is heard in the Cole Porter title song, "Something For The Boys."

"IRISH EYES ARE SMILING" JOYFUL HIT CRAMMED WITH SONG, ROMANCE, FUN

Sure and from the sight of the fun-filled shenanigans on the screen of the Ye's Theatre last night, it's a broth of a time local movie-goers will be having with Damon Runyon's "Irish Eyes Are Smiling." The new Technicolor musical starring Monty Woolley, June Haver and Dick Haymes is true four-leaf entertainment from start to finish.

By this time, it's common knowledge that when 20th Century-Fox dips into the sweet nostalgia of the past, its ladies out giant scoops of richly seasoned fun peppered with excitement, blended with wonderful music, and all lavishly served up in gorgeous settings. "Irish Eyes Are Smiling" is no exception. It stands out as the most entrancing screen fare of the season.
