During Friday and Saturday the Court disposed of twenty-five debt and garnishee cases.

MY WISH

Let me work in a shop by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by—
Those who are footsore, and lame,
And tired,
But still have the will to try.
Let me work in a shop by the side of the road,
Repairing their well-worn shoes—
The painter's, the plumber's, the millinaire's—
What does it matter how?

The pioneer seeking a land of hope,
Adventurers seeking wealth,
Those who are searching for loved ones lost,
The sick who are seeking health.

Let me work in a shop by the side of the road,
Flying my chosen trade,
For on many a shoe that is well repaired,
The climb to success is made.
