DAUGHTER RESTORED MOTHER OVERJOYED. "I AM SO THANKFUL, I JUST WANT TO TELL EVERYBODY ABOUT TANLAC", SAYS FAIRVIEW WOMAN.

"I am so thankful to see my daughter strong and well again that I just want to tell everybody about Tanlac," declared Mrs. Frank Mark, of Fairview, N. S., recently.

All last year Marjorie was in failing health. She was studying hard and the strain just seemed to affect her whole system. Her appetite left her and she ate so little you couldn't miss it from the table.

Yet, our first year must be regarded from most angles as being satisfactory. The turnover has exceeded $296,000, which will indicate the general trend of business towards Co-operative Channels.

Besides our regular merchandise business, we have succeeded in starting a shipping business, which at present includes potatoes and live stock.

We have handled the following goods through our Shipping Department: Potatoes 18 Cars, Live Stock 27 Cars.

We conducted the Chick Hatchery on a much larger scale than ever before. Although prices were high, and general conditions were not too favorable, our operations in this department showed a profit for the season.
