HARPER'S WEEKLY CHANGES OWNERS

NEW YORK, May 19.—The sale of Harper's Weekly to Norman Hapgood and associates, not named, was announced last night by Colonel George Harvey, president of Harper & Brothers, publishers. Colonel Harvey stated that the sale of the weekly so long identified with the Harpers publishing house and so famous in its days of George William Curtis, its longtime editor, was made because it had been losing money. The weekly brought in barely one-tenth of the revenue of the Harpers' publications, Colonel Harvey stated.

A DARING CRIME BY PARIS BANDIT

(Canadian Press.) PARIS, May 20.—A crime, the daring of which recalls some of the exploits of the motor bandits who were recently gullotined, was committed this morning when an automobile dealer named Dardene was shot by an apparently well-to-do customer who asked the dealer to conduct a trial spin in an automobile to Senlis, about thirty-two miles from Paris, where he said his relatives would purchase the car.

THE JUBILEE OF GRADUATE CLASS

SACKVILLE, May 19.—Preparations for the closing exercises in connection with the Mount Allison institutions are going steadily on and everything points to the most successful closing in the history of Mount Allison. The success which has attended the Mount Allison campaign for an additional endowment of $200,000; the fact that this year is the jubilee of the first class graduating in arts from the university; the presence of the most famous Bostonian sextet which will give two concerts during the closing week; the fact that for the first time in the history of Mount Allison, a play, Goldsmith's, "She Stoops to Conquer," will be put on by the students as part of the closing exercises—all these things will combine to make the closing exercises this year of exceptional interest and merit.

SMILING WHEN ELECTROCUTED

OSSINING, N. Y., May 19.—John Mulraney, who was to have been hanged to death as a murderer on March 17th, but won a sixty days' reprieve by declaring in a personal appeal to the Governor that he was going to his death as the martyr of a criminal "code of honor" was electrocuted at Sing Sing prison early today.
