He Writes About His Condition—Wife and Children Helped.

WALLACEBURG, ONT.—The following letter will prove of interest to working men and others who may be in a condition similar to that of the writer:

"For three years I was subject to poor health. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I have been working at the barber trade for about 20 years and for the last four years I have been very closely confined and have had my meals very irregularly. I was taken with a

Very Severe Cough

and the doctors said it was caused by my stomach troubles. I lost flesh and became so weak I was hardly able to stand up to the chair to work. One day I happened to be looking over some testimonial letters and I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before I had taken two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt finely and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I have taken nearly five bottles and now I feel like a man again. I am than I have ever been in my life. My wife and children have also taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a blood medicine and realized much benefit from it. As for myself I cannot say too much for it. I firmly believe that if it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla I would not have been able to work at my trade any longer." JOHN W. COUGHLIN.

MR. W. S. MCKIE of this city wants fifteen good working horses. See ad in another column for full particulars.

A VERY pleasant At Home was given by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. in their parlors on Monday from four to six. An interesting programme had been prepared and was highly appreciated by those present. After the opening, hymn and prayer, a solo was rendered very sweetly by Mr. Ritchie, then followed Mrs. Lord's paper on the training of children, containing much good advice to young mothers. Miss Lefurgey's reading "The High Tide" given with inimitable pathos, carried all hearts with her. The president, Mrs. Johnson, then made a strong appeal to all ladies, not members, to come and help and be helped and strengthened by the instructive and entertaining papers read from time to time. Tea was then served to about fifty ladies and a social hour spent. The Union wishes to say they are "At Home" every Monday from half past three to five to all who wish to help this elevating and useful work.

MR. J. E. MATTHEWS, late City Editor of the GUARDIAN has accepted a position on the staff of the Patriot, and severed his connection with this journal. During his five years service in charge of the city news department Mr. Matthews has given excellent satisfaction both to the management and the numerous patrons of the paper with whom he has been brought in contact. He has been always attentive to his duties and has shown distinct capacity for newspaper work. Our best wishes go with him to his new position in which his further success is assured. To fill the position thus made vacant the GUARDIAN has been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. J. B. C. Baker, of Summerside, who enters upon his duties to-day. Mr. Baker has the advantage of being already favorably known to a number of our city patrons from having filled the position of city editor for some weeks two years ago, and also from having conducted our Summerside correspondence for nearly a year. He made many friends during his service here, and enjoys a deserved popularity wherever he is known. Readers of the GUARDIAN may therefore count confidently upon all the departments of their favorite journal being maintained at their best and that our local columns will show no falling off in interest.

Y. M. L. A.—St. James' Hall.—"Atlantic Telegraphy." How it was originated. The failures, successes and final carrying out of the marvel of the nineteenth century. The Great Eastern's part in rendering the achievement possible; incidents of the voyage. Hear Mr. A. E. Morrison in St. James' Hall, Tuesday night, Nov. 15th, and see the series of views illustrating the passage across the ocean.

THE Missionary Meeting held in St. Paul's school room was largely attended. It was conducted by the children of the junior auxiliary to missions. The rector made a short address on the subject noting the fact of how he first took an interest in the subject and saying that no one can apologize for missions without apologizing for Christianity. The program consisted of readings, recitations and songs on missionary work. Those taking part were dressed in the costumes of the countries referred to in the recitations. Two clergymen of the Nestorian church in Armenia who were present took part in the program, one by reading the other by singing a song in his native language. The collection was taken in behalf of missions.

Success comes to those who persevere. If you take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and persistently, you will surely be benefited.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.—The first lecture in the course under the auspices of the Junior C. E. Society of the First Methodist Church, was delivered last evening to a fine and enthusiastic audience. The subject was the Battle of Hastings and the lecturer Mr. Edward Rendall. The juniors and their parents and friends were all delighted, and the evening was one of instruction and pleasure. Mr. Rendall showed a thorough acquaintance with the subject, clearly related the events and causes leading up to the battle, fully described the condition and strength of the opposing forces, and graphically pictured the great battle, and at the close drew practical lessons, which in a few clear sentences he impressed upon his hearers. At the close Master Harry Smith moved and Master John Cameron seconded a note of thanks to Mr. Rendall for his excellent lecture. Mr. W. E. Bentley ably discharged the duties of chairman. In congratulating the juniors on their worthy effort, we express our pleasure that we have in the city young men who will take the time to prepare a lecture like the one given last evening, and rejoice that the evidence is before us that the young men of our city have the ability and purpose to qualify themselves for the high position to which society shall call them in the future. Mr. J. R. Davison sang at the close of the lecture with fine effect, the patriotic song, "I am an Englishman."

A SAD and sudden death occurred in Charlottetown Sunday afternoon, when the spirit of Mr. Harry Wright, for about two years a brakeman on the P. E. Island railway, passed into the great beyond. The deceased had been in ailing health and under medical treatment for about three weeks. He was not considered dangerously ill, however, and was able to be about the city Sunday. During the afternoon he went into another room to get a glass of water and after drinking it expired very suddenly. The deceased was a quiet, unassuming man, and was highly respected by a large circle of friends. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn their sudden loss. Mrs. Wright is a daughter of Mr. Sydney Smith, of this city. Messrs. W. W. Wright and Louis are brothers of the deceased, who was 34 years of age.—Patriot.

REMEMBER Mr. A. E. Morrison's lecture in St. James' Hall, to-night, on the "Laying of the Atlantic Cable." See views of the Great Eastern and her naval escort crossing the ocean. The views have been specially prepared for the lecture.
