THE name of Rev. W. B. Hinson is heard in connection with the vacancy in the First Baptist church pulpit. Mr. Hinson is at present located at San Diego, Los Angeles, California, where he has been stationed the past four or five years. Whether he would consider a call from the Moncton church, it is difficult to say but some of his admirers in the Moncton church are inclined to think he would.

Mr. Hinson was pastor of the Moncton First Baptist church for about nine years altogether and was one of the most popular pastors the church ever had. It is not improbable that his name may be before the meeting of the congregation, when the time comes to extend a call to a pastor to succeed Rev. D. Hutchinson—Moncton Times.

THE death took place early Saturday morning at Montague of Eugene Macdonald, son of Norman Macdonald, aged 35. He was associated with his father in the proprietorship of the Montague Rolling Mills, and also had charge of the electric light plant, power for which was furnished at the mills. The late Mr. Macdonald took ill three weeks ago, but before that time had enjoyed good health, so that his death comes as a severe shock to the community where he was highly respected. He was a young man of good business ability, and popular with his many patrons. He leaves to mourn a widow and one daughter, father and mother, two brothers,—Maynard F., who conducts business at Montague; James, who follows the sea, and is now abroad, and one sister, Ola, at home. To the bereaved the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends will be extended.
