Close Matches In Tennis Tournery Several Semi-Final Matches Played As Competition Grows Keener.

On Saturday the tennis tournament was renewed, and the matches became even closer and much more keenly contested. The proportion of matches going the three sets was much larger than on former days. Several matches were played in the semi-finals. In the men's singles Stuart Dickson won from Alex Matheson in three sizzling sets 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. In the men's doubles Kenny and J. McQuaid eliminated G. Hutcherson and A. Farquharson 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 9-7. As the scores indicate the matches were strenuously played. An interesting match in the mixed doubles was that in which Stewart and Miss Linkletter won from MacKinnon and Miss Johnson.

SCHOOLBOYS SHATTER FIVE RECORDS

Lunenburg Athletes Prominent At Mar. Inter-scholastic Track Meet. (C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, July 29—Five records were shattered by interscholastic athletes in the Maritime inter-scholastic track and field events on Dalhousie University Campus at Lunenburg High School walkway with both individual and team score honors. Although held in poor weather conditions and on a slow track, the meet on Saturday was productive of keen competition and the battle for team honors was carried into the final event, Saint John Vocational School came second with 34 points against Lunenburg with 43. One of the outstanding performances of the day was the winning 100-yard dash by the Lunenburg 16-year-old high jumper, L. Toppsee, who cleared the bar at five feet nine inches, with apparent ease. Harry Fox of Lunenburg was the high scorer of the meet with 14-1-2 points, leading Toppsee and H. MacRitchie of Sydney. H. Skinner of Saint John came fourth with 10-1-2 points and J. Porter, also of Saint John, was next with 10-1-4 points.

Eight Hurlers Yield 37 Hits As Tigers Win Opening Game From Cubs

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, July 29—Lynwood (School Boy) Rowe hit a ninth inning homer with one on and coupled the stunt with some fine relief pitching to give the Detroit Tigers a 16-15 victory in a weird first game with the White Sox at Chicago today, but young Les Tietje forced the league leaders to settle for an even split by beating Fred Marberry 6-4 in the nightcap of their doubleheader before 12,000 spectators. The Tigers, however, increased their league lead to a full game as the second place Yankees were defeated at Philadelphia. In the opener, which saw the lead change six times during the last five innings as a result of a torrential outpour of 37 hits totaling 67 bases and brought four pitchers a side to the mound, Rowe turned in his 14th victory of the season and his second in two days. Rowe also tried to save the second game for the Tigers by pinch hitting for Joyner White with one on and two out in the ninth, but Tietje shot a called third strike past him. Touting out five runs in a big third inning, the Athletics at home removed New York Yankees farther away from the league lead again by coming through with a 6-3 win. The third inning attack was featured by Rabb McNeil's home run smash. Alton Benton went the route for the A's and held the opposition to six scattered hits. Bob Coleman also touched Ruffing for a four-bagger, connecting in the second. Cleveland's Indians used home runs and close fielding to win both sides of a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns 1-3 and 6-3, concluding a four-game series with only one loss in six games. Home run honors for the hit festival went to Hale and Averill who got round trip blows in both contests. In the first game Trosky and Hemsley each got a homer. It was Hemsley's first of the season.

CAN. OARSMEN CAPTURE U. S. FEATURE RACE

Toronto Schoolboy Wins Three Titles—Only Third Time In 52 Years Feat Has Been Accomplished. (C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 29—Buffalo's husky band of oarsmen, competing under the Westsides banner, tonight ruled over the Royal Canadian Henley Regatta. Westsides led the other scullers with 43 points, garnered on the basis of three for a win, two for second and one for third. To Canada, however, went the singles crown and the Hanlon Memorial Trophy for victory in the senior eights event for the North American championship. Leaders fought off the challenge of the Buffalo and Wyandotte crews in the feature race. Leaders gained a half length lead at the half mile mark over the Buffalo oarsmen and stubbornly clung to the advantage to the finish of the mile. Buffalo rowed valiantly to keep Wyandottes from snatching second position. A full length separated Buffalo from the Wyandottes at the finish of the sculling grind. Westsides had to fight off the determined bids of Toronto Argos to leave town with the majority of points. Argos threatened to upset Westsides, almost perennial victors Westsides, however, took firm grasp on top place by winning seven firsts and three seconds in the 12 events. The best Argos could do Saturday was to collect two firsts, two seconds and two thirds in the nine events they entered. Detroit Wyandottes failed to follow the smart work displayed in the first two days and had to be content with three second positions. Canadians during the three-day programme scored 11 firsts, 12 seconds and 14 thirds for 71 points compared with 69 points obtained by the United States clubs. The U. S. stars had 14 firsts, 12 seconds and three thirds. Charles "Chuck" Campbell, 20-year-old Toronto schoolboy, gave the veterans of the oars something to ponder over when he swept his scull to three titles—the junior, intermediate and senior singles. Campbell who attends Bloor St. Collegiate Institute in Toronto, needed only one season to rise from the ranks of the novices. Campbell's junior victory came Friday afternoon when he also captured the associated singles and intermediate crown. It was only on July 1 at Brockville that Campbell celebrated his 20th birthday by winning his first singles race. He rowed his way over the course yesterday with ease to carry off the senior crown. His three-title victory has been accomplished only twice before in 52 years of rowing in the Dominion. Johnny Cosgrave of Argonauts, the Club represented by Campbell, did the same thing in 1908 and in 1912 Bob Dibble of Toronto Dons repeated the performance. The Toronto youngster swept from behind to win the senior crown Saturday. At the half mark he was half a length behind his club mate Rus MacMillan. Campbell swept up to MacMillan and then passed him after which he seemed to lose his direction, rowing all over the course until he saw the flag and straightened out. Although MacMillan had been rowing steadily straight ahead, the youthful oarsman drew away from him. He was rapidly lengthening his lead when the finish was reached. MacMillan rowed into second place with Johnny Durman of Toronto Dons in third position a length and a half behind MacMillan.

Rainville Downs Invader In Straight Sets.

Diminutive Montrealeir Brings Singles Title Back To Can. With Convincing Display Of Power. By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Staff Writer. (By Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, July 29—A new king, a little sun-tanned figure that ruled Eastern courts with an iron hand for three weeks run, veteran Marcel Rainville of Montreal, moved into Canada's tennis throne-room today with a bodyguard that was not quite all-Canadian. Nevertheless Rainville established "home rule." The valiant little French-Canadian, first of his race to reach such heights in tennis, won the Canadian singles championship here Saturday by crushing a United States invader, Hal Surface of Waco, Texas, 6-3, 7-5, 6-0. He was the first Canadian winner in three years, Jack Wright of Vancouver being champion in 1931. In the wake of Rainville's rush to power came a Canadian sortie for titles. Only one major crown left the country, Surface teaming with Philip Castle, of University of California to lift the men's doubles championship. Two titles went to the far west in the hands of a Vancouver pair, Caroline Deacon and Eleanor Young, and the other was claimed by Ottawa. Surface and Castle triumphed over Don Leahong and Harry Dayes, Jamaican stars, in their final, 9-11, 6-4, 6-2. Miss Deacon won the women's singles title in a bang-up final with Miss Young by scores of 7-5, 6-3. The Vancouver girls teamed to lift the doubles championship, beating Mrs. H. L. Beer, of Ottawa and Mrs. Ken Salmon, of Toronto, in the final, 6-1, 4-6, 6-4. Ottawa's mixed doubles team of Mrs. Beer and Hard-hitting George Leclair, who won the Ontario title a week ago, smashed down the last bit of resistance to national supremacy, defeating Yvette Sawyer of Montreal and the Jamaican, Dayes, 6-3, 6-3. Dayes was tired, having just finished a four-set doubles final. Rainville's masterful victory over Surface climaxed a three-week tournament run by the 30-year-old Montrealeir whose stock was quoted fairly low a month ago when he lost to Henri-Paul Emard of Montreal in the quarter-finals of the Quebec championships. That was the last time Marcel tasted defeat. He swept into the Eastern Canadian tournament at St. Catharines and beat the final Leahong in the final. He came to Toronto and captured the Ontario title in an official warm-up for his greatest bid for the Canadian. They couldn't stop the tiny Frenchman last week. His hardest match was a five-set affair against Castien in the quarter-final. Gilbert Nunn of Toronto succumbed in the semi-finals. Surface, who topped Laird Watt and Bobby Murray of Montreal on successive days to reach the final, was outclassed by a Rainville playing at the peak of his game. The bludge, 20-year-old Texan threatened to shatter Rainville's defences in the second set when he led 5-3 in games but Marcel went into a streak of brilliance and won five straight games, three without losing a point. The invader's collapse in the face of this devastating onslaught was complete. He was so completely unsettled Rainville scored at will with hard forehand shots that either went for placements or forced errors. Surface did not win another game, losing the third set at love. "I was over my head in the second set," the Texan explained in paying tribute to Rainville. "I don't think I ever played as well as when I was leading 5-2. I had hopes of getting a set. But Marcel was too good. He never let down on the pressure and when the reaction set in on my own game I was through."

Lead Remains Unchanged As Giants And Cubs Split With Phillies And Reds

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, July 29—Carl Hubbell saged a brilliant comeback after suffering three successive defeats on the hill and pitched the Giants to an even split with the Phillies in a doubleheader watched by 32,000 fans here today. Hubbell shut out the Phils with four hits to win the second clash 2-0 after the visitors had taken the opener 4-2. Hubbell's victory was his 14th of the season and it kept the Giants' lead in the pennant race unchanged as the second-place Cubs also broke even. Joe Moore, Grant centre fielder, hurt his right ankle sliding back to first in the fifth inning of the second game and had to leave the game. Chief Euel Moore, the Phillies Chickasaw Indian hurler, got the better of Roy Pamelee in the opener to secure his fourth victory in five starts although he had to get some help from Curt Davis, who shut out the Giants in the last two innings. Dolph Camille scored the winning tally for the Phils in the sixth when he clouted his 13th home run in his ninth since he joined the Phils. Large Crowd Greets New Manager The largest crowd since opening day—17,100 paid admissions—started Chuck Dressen off today as manager of the Reds, as the Cincinnati team divided a doubleheader with Chicago Cubs, losing the first 7-5 and taking the nightcap 4-2. Pat Malone made the ball behave better than St. Johnson and Benny Frey in the first. Chick Haley's home run over the left field wall with Bottomley on second, in the sixth of the nightcap, proved the deciding factor of that game. Rhem Hurlis No-hit Ball For Eight Innings Boston Braves won a doubleheader from Brooklyn Dodgers at Boston 3-2 and 1-0 behind the seven-hit pitching of Ed Brandt and the one-hit hurling of Flint Rhem. The only hit made off Rhem came in the first inning when Joe Stripp beat out a bunt to Whitney. Pinky Whitzey, Braves third-sacker, wielded his bat effectively driving in three of Boston's runs in the first game and batting in the single tally in the nightcap. In the opener he smashed a home run into the left field bleachers, scoring Wally Berger ahead of him in the seventh. Cardinals Whip Pirates 9-5 Responding to the cheers of some home folks from Manty Gio, Pa., Jimmy Collins kned a home run in to the right field stands in the eighth inning to break a tie and help St. Louis take the last game of the series from the Pirates 9-5 at Pittsburgh. The trophy made a trip to Cincinnati as a result of the victory of J. Leslie Bell. The next trip found the famous trophy travelling across the ocean, as the winner was Major G. N. C. Martin, of the Poughuash Golf Club, Northern Ireland. Last year, after seven previous years of effort, Jack Starky, of Edmonton, was successful in winning the event and the trophy was placed on view in the Macdonald Hotel. The competition this year, which will be held during the week of August 26th, promises to be featured by another hot challenge from the Pacific Coast. Last year Seattle made a determined attempt to obtain the trophy for the first time. Thomas Green Jr., of the Seattle Golf and Country Club, was defeated in the finals by Starky. The Washington players are out this year to give the silver "Totem" pole a new home this time and, with ten golfers entered at this early date, will make their presence felt.

Perry Not To Compete In Doubles

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) WIMBLEDON, England, July 29—As was generally expected following England's two singles victories opening the Davis Cup, Perry's first set victory over Sidney H. Wood and Henry W. (Bunny) Austin's straight set conquest of Frank Shields, H. Roper-Barrett, British team captain decided to rest his ace, Perry, for the final singles Tuesday. In the last two matches Perry meets Shields and Wood plays Austin.

RUNYAN SUCCEEDS SARAZEN

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) PARK CLUB, Buffalo, July 29—Paul Runyan slender white Plains, N. Y., shotmaker won the U. S. Professional Golfers championship, defeating Craig Wood of Hollywood N. J. one up in 36 holes. Runyan won the title on the second extra hole when Wood missed seven foot putt by inches. Runyan succeeds Gene Sarazen, the veteran New York campaigner, who relinquished the title in the second round when he was eliminated by Al Watrous of Detroit, who in turn was put out by Wood. The title carried with it $10,000 and 1600 for Wood as runner up.

Reunion Of War Veterans In Toronto

(Special To The Guardian) MONTREAL, Que., July 29—A Dominion-wide movement of veterans of the Great War will invade Toronto for the purpose of a grand reunion of the Canadian Corps during the period of August 4 to 6 and in connection with this event it is anticipated that upwards of a thousand veterans and their friends will be going to Toronto from this territory. In this connection a round trip bargain fare coach excursion is being operated by the Canadian National Railways from the Maritime Provinces to Quebec City, Montreal and Ottawa on Friday, August 3rd next, returning limit August 7th. A round trip bargain fare coach excursion is also being operated over the Canadian National Railways from the Maritime Provinces to Quebec City, Montreal and Ottawa on Friday, August 3rd next, returning limit August 7th.

FORMER HOCKEY STAR PASSES

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., July 29—Dieder Pitre, noted figure in the hockey world more than a decade ago, died here today following an attack of acute indigestion. He was 50 years of age and had been a member of several professional hockey teams. He was one of the few remaining figures of the hectic pre-hockey days of 1904, 1905 and 1906 and was considered one of the great stars of the sport. He entered pro hockey when it was launched by Pittsburgh, Calumet, Houghton and Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Pitre did not end his professional career until 1923 when he completed his services as a member of Montreal Canadiens with which he had been associated since 1910. Before joining Canadiens he played with Renfrew Millionaires. When his hockey days were ended Pitre returned home where he had lived prior to joining Canadiens. He had been a member of Professional Ice Hockey League for several seasons during the league's early days. He was born in Valleyfield, Que., and played amateur hockey in Montreal before coming to the Sault. Published reports that the Prince himself was writing the book and that it would be edited from a diary he kept while on safari were denied by a high official of his staff. This official said Chalmers would write the book from material contained in official diaries kept during the Prince's journey through the East. He added the book would be written throughout in the third person as far as his Royal Highness was concerned and that actual extracts from his diaries would not be published. Totem Trophy Has Travelled 26,084 Miles

JASPER PARK LODGE, Alta., July 29—Although it has only been in active competition for eight years, the famous silver Totem Pole golf trophy, emblematic of the championship of Jasper Park Lodge Golf Week, is a much travelled trophy. It did it has 26,084 miles to its credit and has set a new record for a trophy. The beautiful trophy is patterned after one of the most famous Indian totem poles of the Pacific Coast and is a magnificent example of the silver smith's art. The first trip of the trophy was won by Vancouver golfer. It was the fourth and fifth years of competition saw the trophy taken to New York, when that great golfer, Gardner White, was successful. Then the trophy made a trip to Calgary as a result of the victory of J. Leslie Bell. The next trip found the famous trophy travelling across the ocean, as the winner was Major G. N. C. Martin, of the Poughuash Golf Club, Northern Ireland. Last year, after seven previous years of effort, Jack Starky, of Edmonton, was successful in winning the event and the trophy was placed on view in the Macdonald Hotel. Champion Is Winner

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ZURICH, Switzerland, July 29 — Dr. Alexander Alekhine of Paris, world champion, Saturday finished first in the international chess tournament at the Casino by defeating W. Henneberger, one of the Swiss players, in the 15th and final round after 52 moves. His total score was 13-2, comprising 12 wins, two draws and a loss. Yesterday he defeated the Sicilian defender, outplaying Henneberger in the middle game. The latter lost a piece and this paved the way for his defeat. Second and third places were shared by Dr. Max Euwe of Amsterdam and Salo Flohr of Praha with totals of 13-3 each. Dr. Euwe won from H. Janner of Switzerland, but Flohr drew with A. Nimzowitsch of Denmark. Flohr alone went through the tournament without losing a game. The Ocean Limited also carried a considerable number. This was the largest excursion of any of the popular bargain fare excursions operated from Upper Canadian centers to the Gaspe Peninsula and the Maritimes. The greater proportion of the seven hundred excursionists were destined to the Gaspe Peninsula and points in New Brunswick. The balance were for Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island points.

Adventures Of Prince of Wales As Game Hunter

LONDON, July 29—The exciting adventures of the Prince of Wales on his 1928 African big-game hunt will be told, many for the first time, in a book to be published next November by Patrick Chalmers, British sporting author.
