DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Had a very interesting letter from Hedley T. Fulton, Upper Stewiack N. S. in which he stated that he is feeling better than he has for years. That is good news to his many friends all through the Maritimes who will hope that it continues and that Hedley will be touring the race tracks next summer in the days of old. His three-year-old trotter Gallant Heart, won eight races and was second in two and never out of the money the past season. He took his record of 2:06 at Gosben, N. Y. in a winning race and took a record of 2:00 over a half-mile track in Pennsylvania. Harry Short liked this son of Volomite very much and will no doubt stake him pretty generously next season.

S. Thane Belyea writing from Gasstown, N. B. sends us the information that Johnny Conroy has five horses in his stable at Truro, N. S. Since Harvester 2:04 1-4 is big, strong and fat and looks like a real champion. San Ten 2:08 that Johnny took over for new owners shortly after Old Home Week, has taken on considerable weight and is full of pep. Johnny believes that he should be pretty fair racing next year. Hillside 2:10 is a 3-4 holder of the Maritime record for trotters of that age bred in the Maritimes, is sound and strong and looks like the makings of a good aged trotter. Harlee T., by Lee Harvester 2:12 1-2, 2:09, is a likely-looking little miss. She is owned by Dr. McLean of New Richmond, Que. who is also the owner of Laurel Harver 1:59 1-2, leased by Frank McKay, Charlottetown. Royalty Johnny likes Harlee T. very much and says she is learning to trot. A weanling full brother to Hillside Scott completes his string. This crop was raised by hand and has not yet received a name.

Mr. Belyea was down to Hatfield's Point, N. B. a week ago and saw the former star pacer Harry Putnam 2:04 1-2. The old horse looks great and the owner says he feels like a colt. He was 20 years old last Spring.

Percy P. Bridges, former owner of Hanover Courier 2:09, holder of the Summerside track pacing record of 2:11 1-4, the champion race horse of the Maritime Provinces, was sold by Archie Alchorn, Millbrook, N. B. to Tommy Murphy, the price—$25,000 in American funds, equal to over $26,000 in Canadian money—the largest sum ever paid for a Canadian trotter or pacer. Bill Sharen was foaled on a farm near Fredericton, N. B. in the Spring of 1915. His sire was Captain Aubrey 2:07 1-4, then premier sire at the Nova Scotia Experimental Farm, Truro. His dam was Norwaxby W. by Lookaway. He was named for the driver of Norway when W. Bill Sharen who looked after the colt and gave him his training until the Spring of his five-year-old form when he was placed in the hands of Peter Carroll, Halifax.

In 1919 as a four-year-old he won all his starts including a race at the Provincial Exhibition, Charlottetown, and took a record of 2:16 1-4. But it was in 1920 as a five-year-old that he really showed his tremendous capacity as a trotter and race horse. He won all along the line and in mid-season defeated Brage and The Exposer in a sensational free-for-all trot at Fredericton which can well be described as a battle royal between the five-year-old Maritime bred stallion Bill Sharen, the handsome imported stallion The Exposer 2:08 3-4, and Brage 2:14 1-4. Brage won the race in 2:11 1-2, a reduction of the former's record of 2:14 1-4. This new record stood but a few minutes as Bill Sharen came right back with a new one of 2:13 1-4. He repeated the same performance in the third heat and his fourth mile was in 2:12 1-4. The Exposer, driven in the first two heats by Harry Jewett and in the last two by Fred Cameron, was the challenger. Brage was driven by Frank Boutlier.

Bill Sharen was then campaigned through the Maine—New Brunswick circuit, winning all his races easily and returned to Charlottetown to take part in the Provincial Exhibition races September 28th to October 2nd. In the first day's racing he won the 2:16 trot from Colorado L. Brage, Victoria and Gay Moko, best time 2:14 3-4. He started back on the third day in the free-for-all trot and won in 2:12 1-4. Brage was 2-2-2. The Exposer 3-4-3 and Colorado L. 4-3-4. Time, 2:13 1-4, 2:13 3-4, 2:11 1-4, which remained the track trotting record until 1931 when it was lowered to 2:10 1-4 by Abbe Worthy 2:05, driven by Billy Hood.

At Woodstock, N. B., October 8th, he won a sensational free-for-all trot and pace, purse $1,000 which was really the deciding factor in his sale to Tommy Murphy. In that race he was pitted against Lady Grattan 2:08 1-2, Fern Hal 2:04 1-4, Zom O. 2:04 1-2 and Ben All 2:04 1-4, all pacers of class, particularly the first three. It was a particularly tremendous betting affair with the trotter owners ganging up on the trotter Bill Sharen. But there was nothing to it. Bill Sharen took the word in third position and stepped around Zom O. and Fern Hal in the quarter in 30 seconds, winning easily in 2:11 1-4 on a cold, raw af-

Conn Gains Decision Over Lee Savold In 12 Bruising Rounds

NEW YORK, Nov. 29—(AP)—Billy Conn of Pittsburgh punched out a 12-round decision over Lee Savold of Des Moines, Iowa, before a crowd of about 12,000 fans in Madison Square Garden tonight. Conn weighed 167 1-4; Savold 166 3-4. The fight was a slow affair through the first eight rounds, but wound up in the stretch as a rough, bruising battle of left hooks. Conn's right eye was cut in the 11th round by one of Savold's left hooks and each fighter wound up with a bloody nose. There were no knock-downs.

The decision was unanimous on the part of referee Arthur Donovan and the two judges.

Rangers may Lose Shibicky For two weeks

NEW YORK, Nov. 29—(CP)—New York Rangers were faced tonight with the prospect of losing Alex Shibicky, star left winger, for at least two weeks following an X-ray taken that showed he had suffered a double separation of his right shoulder.

It was decided at Polyclinic hospital in New York to place the shoulder in a light bandage—practically a cast—for 10 days, after which further X-ray pictures will be made to ascertain whether or not an operation will be necessary. Shibicky was injured in a National Hockey League game against the Americans Thursday.

In the meantime, Herb Foster, forward of Philadelphia Ramblers, will join the Rangers as a utility man, and Lynn Patrick will take over Shibicky's place on the Neil Colville-Mac Colville line.

Captain Art Coulter, veteran defenceman of the Rangers, still is in hospital with a fracture shoulder, suffered in the first American game Nov. 19. That game also sent Pete Slobodian, Americans defenceman, to hospital with a triple fracture of the cheekbone.

Midland Ont., Nov. 29—(CP)—Professional hockey players, reinstated to amateur ranks, will be regarded as branch imports for the first season they play, regardless of their legal place of residence, George S. Dudley, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced today.

He said the effect of the ruling would be to prevent teams competing in the Allan Cup or Memorial Cup playdowns from having more than four players who have been transferred from another branch or who are reinstated professionals.

Mr. Dudley will go to Toronto this week-end to discuss plans for C.H.A. games in aid of the Red Cross. He expected them to be played during the week of Jan. 6.

Red Wings Defeat Hawks 3-1 to Take Grip on Second Place

DETROIT, Nov. 29—(AP)—Detroit Red Wings tonight defeated Chicago Black Hawks 3-1 in a close, bruising National Hockey League battle. The victory gave Detroit a four-point lead over the Hawks in the struggle for second place.

The Wings snapped in a goal in each period, acquiring a 3-0 lead before Chicago could score. Rookie Joe Carveth, Sid Abel and Eddie Goodfellow scored for Detroit. Goodfellow counted after a nifty play with Syd Howe and Gus Giesebrecht while Chicago was short-handed.

Eddie Wares of the Wings suffered a possible wrist fracture. The victory marked the seventh straight game Detroit has gone without defeat. The Wings have not been beaten since they lost their second start of the season to Toronto Maple Leafs.

Summary:—
First Period:—
1. Detroit, Carveth (Goodfellow, Wilder) 18:06.
Penalties:—Orlando, Cooper (minor, misconduct).
Second Period:—
2. Detroit, Abel (Herschenratter, Orlando) 11:36.

Third Period:—
3. Detroit, Goodfellow (Howe, Giesebrecht) 7:52.
4. Chicago, Dahlstrom (Cooper, Clark) 11:40.
Penalties:—Allen, Herschenratter, Stewart, Siebert.

At least one participant in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day probably will be decided beyond doubt in the west coast meeting between unbeaten, untied Stanford and the California Bears. Stanford is strongly favored to complete a perfect season and become an automatic choice for Pasadena.

EXPECT STATEMENT MONDAY
OTTAWA, Nov. 29—(CP)—A statement by Prime Minister Mackenzie King on the progress of the war, will probably be made to the House of Commons Monday. It was learned today. It had been expected that statement might be forthcoming this afternoon.

While most of the 1,571 refugee Jews aboard the steamship Patria which exploded in Haifa harbor, Palestine, managed to swim ashore after the ship capsized, authorities feared the loss of life would be heavy. The refugees were mostly from Austria, Slovakia, Belgium, Hungary and Rumania. The harbor, which was being searched for bodies is shown here.
