Tennis Titles Decided At Halifax Tournament

By Pierre Dubois

HALIFAX, Aug. 7 —(CP) — Montreal's little Henri Rochon played up to his ranking as Canada's No. 1 net star today, displaying superb court generalship in capturing the open singles crown of the Canadian lawn tennis championships.

The 25-year-old Montrealer was in command throughout his final match against Vancouver's brilliant Lorne Main, winning in four sets, 6-3, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2. It was the first Canadian win since that by Don McDiarmid of Ottawa in 1940.

The women's singles crown returned to the United States with Mrs. Baba Lewis of Jamaica Plain, Mass., stroking her way to a 6-0, 6-1 triumph over defending champion Patricia Macken of Montreal. Mrs. Lewis, who won the event in 1946 and is ranked 21st player in the U.S., was breezing all the way.

Montreal's veteran twosome of bespectacled Edgar Lanthier and Gordon H. MacNeil came through with a repeat victory in the men's doubles event, winning their final match from Main and Walter Stohlberg of Vancouver in four sets. Scores were 6-1, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Mrs. Lewis later paired with Edith Sullivan, pretty 17-year-old junior from Belmont, Mass., to win the ladies doubles event, triumphing in straight sets over Miss Macken and Elaine Fildes of Montreal, 6-2, 6-2.

Rochon was at his crafty best in adding the national crown to his 1949 provincial titles of Ontario and Quebec while also continuing his mastery over the West Coast ace. He defeated Main in the Quebec final.

But it was Main who paved the way for the all-Canadian final between two members of Canada's 1949 Davis Cup team by ousting W. J. (Bill) Tully of Bronxville, N. J., defending champion, in a gruelling five-set semi-final yesterday. Tully who defeated Rochon in straight sets to win the title last year, was run ragged by Main who outlasted the American 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 10-8.

Little Henri is the second French-speaking Canadian to win the title. The late Marcel Rainville, also of Montreal, won it in 1934. Out of 51 competitions since the National event started non-Canadians won it 36 times.

Mrs. Lewis got in on a third title—a feat she accomplished in 1946—when she and E. Blair Hawley of Cambridge, Mass., captured the mixed doubles event in an all-American final. They defeated Tully and Rhoda Joan Hopkins, Woodhaven, N.Y., 6-1, 6-0.

Earlier Tully and Miss Hopkins had eliminated Stohlberg and Mrs. Pauline Robinson of Montreal, 6-2, 6-2, while the Hawley-Lewis combination elimated Lanthier and Miss Fildes 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

H. L. Roper of Halifax won the veterans' singles, defeating Erme Edwards, Glace Bay, N.S., 8-6, 6-8, 6-2.

Rochon played with the confidence of a player who previously has beaten the same opponent but he also showed more fight than usual, almost making it a three-set victory by pulling up 4-4 in games in the third set after trailing 4-0. He retrieved shots that looked good for sure placements, and scored beautiful passing shots at the net. That was where he won the title.

The match was played before a capacity crowd on the sun-baked clay courts of Halifax's South-End Tennis Club. Once the gallery was reprimanded by the referee for commenting during the play. This came after a long rally when Main moved to the net and some one shouted: "Put it away."

In yesterday's Tully-Main match, the 19-year-old Vancouver star wore down the slender American by alternating his ground strokes from corner to corner of the back court. Tully, 23-year-old captain of Notre Dame's tennis team in 1947, stopped frequently in the late stages of the marathon to have cramps massaged out of his legs.

Rochon reached the final in a less spectacular four-set match, disposing of James Macken of Montreal, 1-6, 8-6, 6-4, 6-3. Macken, playing a steady game and scoring frequently on smashes from the net, had Rochon worried in the first two sets but the match was over long before Tully and Main left the court.

MacNeil and Lanthier were carried to the five-set limit by Halifax's popular Bauld brothers, Don and Gordon, in the semi finals. The Montrealers finished strongly to oust Nova Scotia's doubles champions 6-2, 3-6, 7-9, 6-4, 6-4.

In the bottom bracket, Main and Stohlberg moved into the final in the third five-set match of the day. They ousted Tully and Hawley 7-5, 6-1, 0-6, 1-6, 7-5.

Miss Fildes and Miss Macken entered the final of women's doubles with a 6-3, 6-4 triumph over Mrs. A.R. Porter of Montreal and Miss Hopkins. Mrs. Lewis and Miss Sullivan eliminated Toronto's Dorothy Hurst and Mrs. Louis Brown, 6-3,2-6,6-3.

Charles Risks Title Wednesday

NEW YORK, Aug. 7—(CP)—The heavyweight title tangle may be unravelled a little Wednesday night when Ezzard Charles risks his recently-won National Boxing Association crown against Gus Lesnevich.

With New York State and Britain not recognizing Charles' N. B. A. title, this week's battle may eliminate one contender from a long list who have laid claim to the crown held by Joe Louis for almost 12 years.

It's only 49 days after Charles won his "world" crown by defeating Jersey Joe Walcott at Chicago, that he lays that title on the line against Lesnevich. But even with the heavyweight situation hot in the attention of sports fans, the boys who make the odds don't think this is much of a contest. They list the 28-year-old Cincinnati Negro as a lopsided favorite over his 34-year-old foe.

Whether the New York State Athletic Commission will recognize the winner of this fight as new world champion, chairman Eddie Eagan hasn't disclosed. And in Britain, the British Board of Boxing Control is all set to recognize its own "world" champion.

The B.B.B.C. has indicated it will look on the winner of the Lee Savold-Bruce Woodcock bout as title claimant. That fight is set for some time in September, depending on how soon Woodcock recovers from an automobile accident he was in last week.

Chances are the winners of Wednesday night's fight and the Savold-Woodcock battle will meet in New York next summer—and that may finally settle the storms of controversy in heavy ranks.

Knights To Play Yank Sailors Tonight

The Junior League leaders, the strong Knights of Columbus team, will play an exhibition encounter with a picked team from the four American ships now in port. This is the second year in a row that teams from United States ships have played City Junior Clubs. Last year a crew from the U. S. Fresno played the Island champs, the Recce team.

Reports from the camp of the sailors state that they are a top notch squad and it will take all the savvy that the local juniors have to eke out a win over the tars. Meanwhile the K.C. team, fresh from their one-sided win over the Kinsmen yesterday afternoon, are well aware of what the visitors will be like and local fans can be assured that they will witness a really good game of ball.

Knights of Columbus coach, Charlie Ryan, stated last night that he intends to start his fire ball righthander Phil Murphy in an effort to gain a win over the visiting tars. Fans will remember that Murphy started the game last year for the Recce when they played the Fresno crew.

Game time is set at 5.45 and the game will be played on the Memorial Field diamond. Local fans who intend to witness the game can rest assured that they will see a top notch piece of entertainment.

Remember When

By The Canadian Press

Joe Burke stepped down voluntarily nine years ago today from the pedestal he occupied as world amateur sculling champion for nearly three years. Burke said he wanted to give the "other fellows" a chance at the Diamond Sculls, American and Canadian single sculls and the Gold Challenge Cup titles he then held.

C. & B. Win Twin Bill, Beat Abbies, R.C.A.F.

The Curran & Briggs baseball team won a doubleheader playing at home yesterday, edging the Charlottetown Abegweits 3 to 2 in a 12-inning thriller, and beating the R.C.A.F. All-Stars 10 to 7 in the nightcap which was called at 6 o'clock in accordance with previous agreement.

The construction crew fought an uphill battle all the way in the first encounter with Gordie MacKay, Henry Gallant and Hank Landry cast in the hero roles. Gallant drove two runs across in the ninth to tie the score, Landry made a circus catch of Ryan's drive to right field in the tenth and MacKay tripled in the twelfth to score the winning run.

Powell's steady pitching helped a lot, too, but he was pitted against a foeman worthy of his prowess in Charlie Ryan, who pitched a masterful game and deserved a better fate. The C. & B. players didn't look like the same outfit who stumbled their way to defeat in Kensington two nights before. They fielded brilliantly behind Powell all afternoon and the three miscues charged against them were on difficult tries.

The visiting Charlottetown team out-generaled the home boys in the early innings of the contest. They scored their first run by outsmarting the C. & B. defence and tricked a runner at third to try to score by their catcher throwing to Whitlock at short and getting the C. & B. runner cold on the relay to the plate.

In the first inning Ryan hit to right field and advanced to third when Whitlock's bunt got away from Mulholland in front of the plate. Matheson reached first on a fielder's choice and started for second with Ryan holding third. The C. & B. boys elected to get Matheson on a run-down play but while the ball was shuttled back and forth Ryan crossed the plate before Matheson was run down so the tally counted.

In the third frame Whitlock lined a double just inside the first sack. Matheson's triple sent him across the plate for the visitors' second run. The score remained 2 to 0 until the last half of the ninth. With one out Gaudet singled to left centre and Stewart replaced him at first, Coach Hogan deciding that speed on the bases was the important thing just then. Oatway singled to centre and Gallant wrote the first chapter of the Frank Merriwell finish by driving them both home with a single to left.

The score remained knotted until the last half of the twelfth. Landry got a base hit on a drive to centre field. Mulholland struck out and Powell grounded out to first but Gordie MacKay came through with another story book play, smashing out a triple to win the ball game.

Second Game

In the second game Curran & Briggs scored 8 runs in the third inning on six hits and three free tickets. The Airmen came back with three runs in the fifth and four counters in the sixth, but the construction crew salted the game away in the seventh scoring two more runs. Murphy, losing pitcher, toted the most destructive bludgeon, getting four hits in four trips to the plate. Cox's smart running catches in centre field was a feature of the contest.

Minor League Games Tonight

Two playoff games in the Minor Leagues are scheduled for tonight at the Minor League parks. At the old diamond at Victoria Park the North-end Yankees and the West-end Maddissons are scheduled to start their best two games out of three finals. At the Spring Park Field the Red Sox and the White Sox will tangle in the second game of the series in their semi-finals. The Red Sox won the first game of the series by a 12-5 count but the pale hose will be out tonight with victory in their eyes. Young Johnny Squarebriggs will likely be the White Sox's choice for mound duty and it will be up to him to keep his team in the running for the City title.

Both games are scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and players of each squad are requested to be on hand in time.

K. of C. Juniors Score 16-4 Win Over Kinsmen

In a regular junior league encounter played yesterday afternoon in the first game of the scheduled double bill at Memorial Field, the League leading Knights of Columbus Juniors walloped out a decisive 16-4 win over the cellar-dwelling Kinsmen team. The game was the poorest of Junior League games played this season as both squads displayed a careless fielding effort.

The Kinsmen took a lead in the opening frame as they scored three runs in their half of the first inning after the Knights had scored a brace of tallies in their half of the same inning. But from then on the party was strickly a K. C. one as the Ryan-coached crew came on to score in every inning to rack up their commanding victory.

Jackie Cairns and Merlin MacKenzie for the K. C. were the starting pitchers but both lacked control as they walked and hit batters when they were not throwing the ball past the catcher. Cairns was relieved in the fourth frame by Earl Perry.

Leading hitting honours went to the winners' right fielder Elmer MacNeil as he socked out a double and a triple in four times at the plate. Hennessey, Howatt, Murphy, MacDonald of the winners and Rossiter of the Kinsmen each had two hits to show for the afternoon.

Lorne Hennessey classy second sacker of the K.C. team made the fielding gem of the afternoon as he raced over to the second and speared a sensational shoe-string catch off the bat of Purcell in the last frame.

Don't take a 1-in-5 chance with your new home!

IT would be unusual for a new home-owner to be without fire insurance—yet the chance of his house burning within the next 20 years is only 1 in 200. The chance that he will not be living in 20 years, however, is only 1 in 5—just 40 times as risky (at age 45).

For your family's security, remove that 1-in-5 chance of losing their home by providing Imperial Life Assurance to look after the mortgage and the needed running expenses. See your Imperial Life man.

LOOK AT THESE BENEFITS!

UP TO 75% LONGER LIFE! Because they're 'rivetless' CHRYCO Cyclebond brakes provide thousands of extra miles of brake lining life.

MORE BRAKING POWER WITH LESS EFFORT! Its unbroken surface means greater braking area . . . more actual braking surface to contact the drum.

GREATER ECONOMY! Since dirt and grit rarely collect on its smooth surface, drum scoring is practically eliminated.
