NORMAL SERVICE NOW ESTABLISHED

Following the Recent Trolley Strike. Many of the Men Are Dissatisfied.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6—(Special)—The Normal street car service was established following the calling off of the trolley strike. The company promises to increase wages if the audit shows sufficient profits. Many men are dissatisfied.

ELECTION TRIAL NOW ADJOURNED

In the election trial of Louis P. Tanton, petitioner and Lemuel E. Prowse, respondent, the session opened Saturday morning at ten o'clock. John J. Campbell was the first witness and being examined by Mr. McLean stated that he was engaged in a Railway survey last fall. On Saturday night previous to the election he procured a horse and wagon and drove out to Brackley Point Road from Charlottetown. He paid for the horse himself. The witness swore he was not in Prowse Bros. store. He went to Souris on the special train on election day but at his own expense. He saw no liquor in the train. George Hickox being called said he had voted on election day. He did some bridge work on Mill River. Lot 22, Messrs Prowse and Warburton came out to his place about the first of September, but no conversation regarding the election took place. He received twenty dollars for the work, but whether he received the money before or after the election he could not tell. The witness did not know who paid him. He was in Prowse Bros. store before the election and Mr. Prowse took him over to Mr. Cumiskey's office, and introduced him to that gentleman. He had a conversation about the bridge he wanted to fix, and he got the work.

Augustus Heramus said that he voted at the last election. He was not speaking to Le. E. Prowse in October, excepting the Saturday night before the election, when he complained to Mr. Prowse that they were not going to hold the poll at his shop, which on account of the post office being put up in front of his building he naturally thought they would. Mr. Prowse said it could not be helped but that he would give him the local pole.

Norman Sheidow was the next witness. He had voted in the election and had attended no meetings, and took no active part. He might possibly have canvassed some people. The witness's answers were for the most part extremely vague, but under pressure he admitted that he had given liquor to William Acorn on election day, though he claimed this had not kept Mr. Acorn from voting.

William Ross stated, he had no drink on election day and saw no liquor. He also said he had seen no liquor on Saturday or Sunday prior to the election.

After John Martin had been examined, Chief Justice Sullivan stated that owing to the summer terms of the different counties coming on, the case would be adjourned till Thursday Sept. 14th at eleven o'clock.

LEADING LADIES DECLINE INVITATION.

OTTAWA, June 5—Miss Keegan, one of the British suffragettes who went to jail in London last year, is in Ottawa, and has stirred up local women suffragettes into holding open air demonstrations. Arrangements are now being made for a meeting next week. Lady Laurier and Mrs. Borden have been asked to assist, but have declined. Mrs. Borden sent regrets that her house and ground would not be at the disposal of the society for the demonstration.

TRAVELLING PASSGR. AGENT WILL ACCOMPANY PARTY

The officers of the hustling Eastern S. S. Co., are not anything if not enterprising and up-to-date. There is no stronger evidence of this than the fact that they will have their gentlemanly and popular travelling passenger agent, LeBaron R. Thompson, St. John, specially proceed to Boston and return with the Guardian's jolly eight ladies and their escorts. This is done to ensure the party all possible care on the Eastern S. S. Co., ship from Boston to Portland, Eastport and St. John. Mr. Thompson is no novice in this line, and all can rest assured that the greatest possible

ST. JOHN, June 6—(Special)—Charles Curie 8 years old, was drowned on Saturday while swimming with three small companions in a small pond in a disused quarry. The body was recovered after 20 minutes, but life was extinct.

NO NECESSITY FOR SUCCESSOR

OTTAWA, June 5.—It is not often that an official in the government service performs his duties so well that when he passes from the scene of his labors it is not necessary to name a successor. This in short happened in the case of Fred L. Jones a newspaper man who in 1897 was appointed special preventive officer of the customs service. Mr. Jones' special duty was to stamp out the whiskey smuggling business which flourished down the St. Lawrence Gulf, the smugglers making the St. Pierre Miquelon Islands the basis for their occupation. So effectively did Mr. Jones stamp out this illicit traffic that it is practically non-existent today and the department will probably leave any work which remains to be done in the hands of subordinate officials, who, during Mr. Jones' term of office acted under his directions.

LIVE LOBSTERS FOR BOSTON.

YARMOUTH, June 5—The str. Prince Arthur, sailing for Boston yesterday, had the largest cargo of live lobsters ever shipped from Yarmouth, totalling 1630 crates. Besides there were 150 blis fresh mackerel, salmon and other fresh fish, representing a very large amount of money.

REPORT OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HAMILTON, Ont., June 5—The Presbyterian General Assembly last night rejected a resolution calling for the separation of Queen's University from the Church. It was decided to endeavor to raise one million dollars this year for missions.

THIRD CLASS PASSENGERS HAVE BEEN SAVED.

MONTREAL, June 5—A case of smallpox was discovered on the Algonquin liner, Virginia, while en route up river. The steamer is now under detention at Cross Isle Quarantine station, 587 steerage passengers are to be examined and their quarters disinfected, after which the steamer will be allowed to proceed with first and second class passengers. The third class will be detained for eighteen days at Grosse Isle.

MUCH ANXIETY IS FELT.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 5—The already great anxiety felt by ship-owners and relatives of the three hundred men composing the crews of the schooners on their way to St. John's from Bonavista Bay because of continued presence of ice in menacing proportions, has been added to the fear of disaster through a combination of ice floes and storm. During Wednesday night and Thursday morning a heavy storm centred over the region between here and Bonavista Bay, a distance of fifty miles. When darkness fell last night without a word from the fleet apprehension became heavy, and with a succession of disasters of the present season, due to ice, timid persons are possessed by grave fears.

DEATH OF A VETERAN SON OF TEMPERANCE

The life and death of H. B. Howell of New Jersey should be an inspiration to all Sons of Temperance. On many occasions representatives from P. E. Island met this worthy Brother at the Annual meetings of National Division. The following is copied from the N. D. Record. The announcement of the passing of one whose life for more than three score years has been identified with the history of the Sons of Temperance of New Jersey, conveys a sad fact, and yet the sadness is tempered by the thought that for so many years his beautiful life was lived among us, that we had the cheer of his presence at our meetings and the wise counsel of his rich experience in our deliberations. Brother Howell was born in the city of Trenton on the 13th of September, 1817, and at the time of his death was 91 years and 8 months old. When the Order of the Sons of Temperance sprang into being in 1842 there was something about it that appealed to the young man and he at the first opportunity identified himself with it, being initiated in Mercer Division, No. 5, in the city of Trenton, in March, 1844, eighteen months after the institution of the first Division of the Order, in New York, September 19th, 1842. Subsequently he united with 27 other citizens of Trenton, among whom were the late Rev. Dr. Cuyler, of New York, in the organization of Excelsior Division, No. 4, which was instituted on the 14th of March, 1852, and which has maintained a continuous existence ever since and of which Brother Howell has been continuously in office, having been the Treasurer for more than forty years. He was initiated in the Grand Division of New Jersey at Newark, October 13th, 1845, and at the succeeding annual session, in October, 1846, he was elected Grand Scribe. He continued in the office of Grand Scribe until January, 1855, when he was elected Grand Worthy Associate. At the end of his term as G. W. A., he was again elected Grand Scribe, in January, 1855, and continued in office until January session of 1893, when he declined a re-election. Having been in continuous service as an officer of the Grand Division for forty seven years. In January 1902 he was elected Grand Treasurer, and continued in office to the time of his death. He became a member of the National Division of North America in the City of Charleston, South Carolina, on the 6th of June, 1855, and up to a few years ago, when failing health intervened he was usually an attendance at the annual sessions of that body. More cold facts however give but little idea of the real worth of the man to the temperance organization. A perfect gentleman, an out and out gentleman, ever generous, and true to his convictions may well be said of him. Paltry words cannot do this noble character justice, time and time alone will prove what the country at large has lost.

All that was mortal of Henry Baker Howell was laid to rest in beautiful Riverview in the city of Trenton, on Monday, May 17th, there to await the coming of his Lord, whom he followed in his life unpretentiously, but those who were close to him knew that his trust was in the everlasting arms that fail not neither do they forsake. Bro. Howell had accumulated an estate at from $80,000 to $100,000, and in his will he remembered a number of benevolent and charitable institutions, including $500 to the Grand Division of New Jersey, and 200 to Excelsior Division, No. 4, of which he was a charter member, and the residue of his estate being apportioned among surviving relatives.

HOLBEIN PICTURE STAYS IN ENGLAND

LONDON, June 5.—By an anonymous contribution of $220,000, the sum needed in addition to the government's contribution of $50,000 and the public's gift of $90,000 to save Holbein's Christina of Denmark for the nation, has been made up. The Colnaghis, who bought the picture from the Duke of Norfolk for $305,000, and who are said to have promised it to a millionaire American for a much larger sum in case the British nation should fail to give them $360,000 for it, will now not let it go. The officials of the National Art Collection fund do not confirm the story of the picture being purchased for the National gallery. They admit, however, that the negotiations are still on and say there is some hope that the picture will be secured.

SHAMROCK IS NOW NO MORE

Sold to J. J. Mahoney, Who Will Break Her Up For Lead.

NEW YORK, June 6—(Special)—Sir Thomas Lipton, yesterday sold his yacht Shamrock the third, raced for Americas cup, J. J. Mahoney, who is breaking her up for her lead and nickel steel. Members of New York Club declared that Sir Thomas would never send over another challenging yacht.

BRIGHT TIMES AT KEITH'S THEATRE

BOSTON, June 6—Next week will unquestionably be the biggest of the year at Keith's Theatre, for it will mark the first appearance here in a number of years of Vestal Tilley, the undisputed queen of the London music halls and the highest priced vaudeville artist ever brought to this country. Mr. Keith has been paying her $3,150 for every week she has been on his circuit and that it has been a profitable venture, even at this enormous figure, is shown by the fact that he would keep her longer were she not compelled to return to London to fulfil her contracts there. Miss Tilley has for a long time held an unique place as a lone impersonator. Since she first made her appearance there have been hundreds of imitators, some of them good, some of them indifferent—but all have had their day and been forgotten. Miss Tilley on the contrary, by her consummate art has increased her popularity and has always been able to give something new. Besides her striking costumes, she has been making a hit with her long list of songs, every one of which has been in itself a feature and created an endless amount of comment. One of her best is called "That's a Time a Fellow Wants His Ma." Following in Father's Footsteps" is another. "Sydney's Holidays" has proved a decided hit and a sort of a Tommy Atkins

PROTECT THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

Sir:—During the past winter public opinion in the Province has been awakened in the matter of the spread of tuberculosis and the remedies to prevent a further increase of the death-rate from that dread disease. The movement led by the Doctors and other public-spirited men is a worthy one and it to be hoped that lessons in sanitary reform gathered from the public discussions and the press reports will take deep root among our people. I would like now to call attention of the public to a kindred subject. The warm weather is setting in and tourist travel will soon commence. Visitors cannot fail in passing through some of our villages and suburbs to see the decayed manure and rubbish piled near the roadside, but I would particularly call attention to the state of some of the slaughter houses. Some outbreaks, probably more keen in the making of ready money and securing of trade than in the holding of that duty to their customers, the surrounding neighborhood and passing travellers, to keep their premises scrupulously clean, or as near as possible to that.
