

REMEMBER WHEN

(By Th Canadian Press)
Christy Mathewson, immortal pitcher of the New York Giants, died at Saranac Lake, N. Y., 16 years ago today. Baseball mourned one of the greatest hurlers in history. Mathewson had been ill many months from tuberculosis.

GUARDIAN SPORTING NEWS

J.P. MacPHERSON & SON
Queen St. Ch Town
Stock Suits & Overcoats
Also Made-to-Measure that fit. Remember IT'S THE FIT THAT COUNTS.
L10-10-1-61

N. Y. YANKEES AGAIN WORLD CHAMPIONS

Take Fifth Game By 3-1 Score For 3rd Straight Victory In Fall Classic

(By Judson Bailey, Associated Press Sport Writer)
BROOKLYN, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The almost invincible New York Yankees rolled to their fifth world championship in six years today by browbeating Brooklyn Dodgers 3-1 in the fifth and most turbulent tussle of the world series.

The two teams fought the umpires and each other at every turn in one long continual wrangle and even though the Dodgers were soundly whipped by the four-hit hurling of big Ernie Bonham, it was the kind of a wild and reckless show that the Brooklyn Bums had been expected to provide earlier in the series.

It gave the 34,072 fans, biggest turnout of the three games in Ebbets Field, a chance to exercise their famed vocal chords.

Whitlow Wyatt, the lean, bald Georgian who topped the Yanks in the second game for their only loss of the series, threw a couple of high inside pitches to Joe Dimaggio that resembled "dusters" by coincidence or otherwise and the two rival heroes almost started a free-for-all on the pitchers' mound after Dimaggio's third turn at bat.

Every player on both teams rushed into the argument and the slightest spark might have set off an explosion.

The managers and coaches of both teams joined the arguments with the umpires at various stages and there were two fires in the park during the game, to add to the confusion. One of these was on the roof back of a temporary press box and the other was a piece of bunting hanging on the railing of the second deck of the leftfield stands, it blazed up like a giant torch and fell downward, barely missing spectators in the boxes below.

The fun and fighting was largely a sideshow for the more sane observers, anyway, for the mighty Yankees took the lead and held it from the second stanza on as Bonham pitched a masterful game.

They were out to get, and did get, their eighth championship in the eight world series they have reached since 1927. Over that stretch they captured 32 out of 36 games and they were just about as unbeatable as they ever were.

Wyatt was wild at the start, walking five men in the first four innings, and catcher Mickey Owen was nervous.

In the second inning Wyatt had a full count of three and two on Charley Keller and the slugger tipped a foul third strike which Owen served a wide ball which Owen let get through him and Keller not only got to first base, but made a gesture at turning toward second.

Bill Dickey followed with a ringing single to right and Keller slid into third. Then with a one and one count on Gordon, Wyatt called a wild pitch high over Owen's outstretched glove and Keller loped home while Dickey ran to second. Gordon came through, then, with a scorching single off second baseman Pete Coscarart's glove and, as the ball rolled on out into rightfield, Dickey scored.

This was all the margin that Bonham needed, but Henrich hammered a home run over the 40-foot fence in rightfield on the first pitch given him in the fifth inning. That was just for good measure and afterward the Yanks never bothered Wyatt—except with their continuous bench joking.

Wyatt himself set off the rally that brought Brooklyn its only run in the third inning. He opened with a hard double into the leftfield corner. After Dixie Walker had fled out, Lew Riggs blasted a low liner that struck Bonham on the right leg below the knee and caromed toward the third base line for a single putting Wyatt on third.

The pitcher roared home a few minutes later after Pete Reiser filed to right. Except for a tremendous triple by Reiser after two were out in the first inning, this was the only real threat the Dodgers made. Bonham fanned Dolph Camilli to end Brooklyn's rally in the third and he didn't give another hit until the eighth, when Walker waded a single into right. This time he made Riggs pop foul to first baseman Johnny Sturm and struck out Reiser, and he finished strongly by setting down the Dodgers in order in the ninth.

It was the first appearance the 230-pound righthander called "Tiny" ever had made in a world series and he matched the four-hit hurling last Saturday of his teammate, Lefty Marius Russo, for the best pitched game of the 1941 classic.

Wyatt gave six hits, the same number he allowed in winning last Thursday, and gave over his early wildness he was as good as the weather, which had many fans sitting peeled to their undershirts for the third straight day.

Nine Strikeouts

He struck out nine men, including Bonham on every one of the four times he came to bat, and Dimaggio the first two times that he came to the plate.

Sturm nipped him for a single to lead off the first inning, but after he was forced by Rolfe and Henrich walked (the fourth ball also getting away from Owen this time and rolling into the Yankee dugout) Dimaggio walked out to 3 and 2 count and then fanned. Owen caught this strike and threw to Riggs in time to get Rolfe sliding into third base for the first of three double plays the Dodgers pulled off during the contest.

After Wyatt walked Rolfe in the third he again struck out Dimaggio, loosening up the Yankee star once with a head-high pitch on the inside. It was after he had made Dimaggio drop with another similar pitch in the fifth, and Dimaggio had fled deep to centerfield, that they nearly came to blows.

Wyatt walked Gordon and Rizzuto in succession in the fourth. He had a 3 and 2 count on Gordon and it was umpire McGowan's calling the fourth ball that precipitated the day's most violent argument with the umps.

When it was over, and Wyatt had retrieved his glove and the ball, he threw three straight balls to Rizzuto and finally walked him on five pitches.

This brought Bonham to bat and when McGowan called a strike on him as he drew back from a wide pitch after getting set to bunt, it was the Yankees' turn to holler.

The Dodgers used a pinchhitter, Ausie Galan, for Coscarart in the seventh, unsuccessfully, and surprised the fans by bringing the injured Billy Herman back into the lineup to play second base for the last two frames.

He was called upon to handle two

Rookie tryout Week in camp Of Canadiens

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Oct. 6.—(CP)—Coach Dick Irvin, who doesn't take any chances at being caught with his back turned, today began a week-long tryout of more than 20 rookies in preparation for the training period of his Montreal Canadiens which starts here next week.

Although one or two of last year's N. H. L. entry may report this week, Irvin said this is strictly "rookie tryout" week in the Canadian camp and if any regulars show up they will only do physical work and skate around the rink.

About Canadiens chances this season, Irvin said: "That western report that I had predicted the Stanley Cup for Canadiens was exaggerated. I am not that foolish. What I do predict, however, is that the Canadian squad of this winter will prove a championship factor from start to finish.

Among those due to report to Irvin this week are: (Legs) Fraser, goalkeeper with Glace Bay Miners of the Maritime Hockey League last season; Connie Dion, netminder for Cornwall Flyers in the Quebec Senior Hockey League last year; Len Bicknell, hefty defenceman from Nelson, B. C.; Leo Lamoureux, Hamilton; Mal Snowdon, star defenceman with Sydney Millionaires, eastern representatives in the Allan Cup finals last season; Gordon Goselin, Ottawa; Glen Hainey, Ontario; Bobby Watson, another star with last year's Sydney Millionaires; Jack Ylviski, Barry's Bay, Ont.; Doug, Fritz, Hamilton; Kirkland Lake, Ont.; B. G.; Stan Rooke, Oshawa, Ont.; Howard Ropelle, Ottawa St. Pats; Ken Naught, forward with Oshawa Juniors last year; Tom Cooper, Moose Jaw, Sask.; Glen Harmon, defenceman with Winnipeg Juniors last year's Memorial Cup winners; Floyd Kirkland, Lake, Ont.; and Herman Gruhn, Regina.

grounders in the eighth and on the first one initiated a fast double play and on the second easily threw out Dickey.

EBBETS FIELD, Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Official boxscore of the fifth world series game:—

Table with columns: NEW YORK, AB, R, H, PO, A. Rows include Sturm, Henrich, Dimaggio, Keller, Gordon, Rizzuto, Bonham, P.

Table with columns: BROOKLYN, AB, R, H, PO, A. Rows include Walker, Riggs, Camilli, Medwick, Wascell, Owen, Coscarart, Galan, Herman, Wyatt, P.

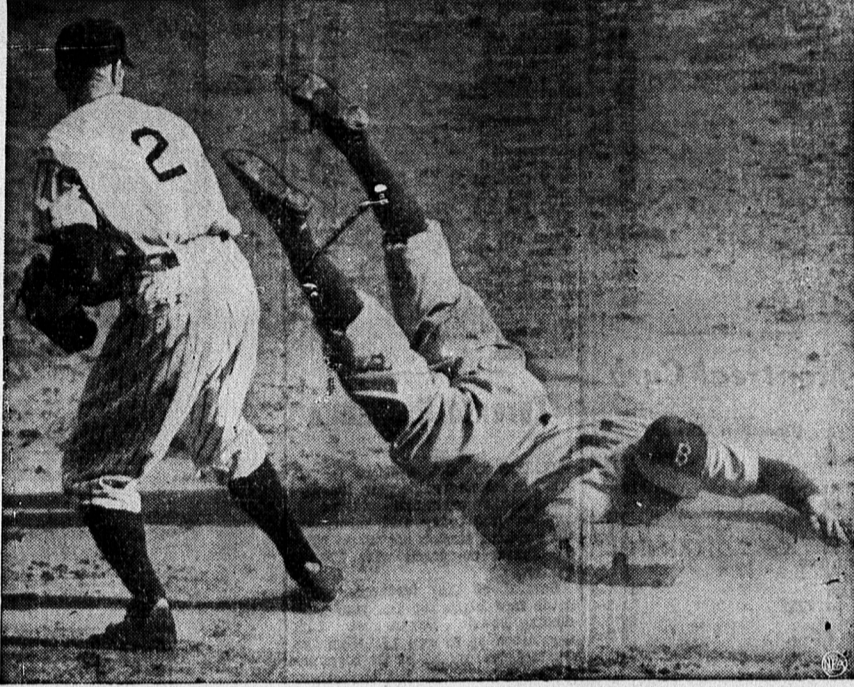

Wyatt, p. 31 1 4 27 14
Batted for Reiser in 7th.

New York.....020 010 000-3
Brooklyn.....001 000 000-1

Error—Reese, Runs batted in—Gordon, Reiser, Henrich. Two base hit—Wyatt. Three base hit—Reiser. Home run—Henrich. Double plays—Owen and Riggs; Reese, Coscarart and Camilli; Herman, Reese and Camilli. Earned runs—New York 2, Brooklyn 1. Left on bases—New York 6, Brooklyn 5. Bases on balls off—Wyatt 5 (Henrich, Keller, Rolfe, Gordon, Rizzuto); off Bonham 2 (Medwick, Walker). Struck out by—Wyatt 9 (DIMaggio 2, Bonham 4, Henrich, Keller, Rizzuto); by Bonham 2 (Camilli, Reiser). Wild pitch—Wyatt. Umpires—McGowan (AL) plate; Pinell (NL) 1b; Grieve (AL) 2b; Goets (NL) 3b. Time 2:13. Attendance 34,072.

N. B. SOLDIER DEAD

DALHOUSIE, N. B., Oct. 6.—(CP)—Mrs. Richard Lovelace has been notified of the death of her brother, Gunner Russell Kierstead, of Campbellton, N. B., member of Canadian artillery unit in England. No details were given.

Hitting the dirt face-first, Mickey Owen skids past Yankee baseman Rolfe to land safely at third in the first game of the Yankees-Dodgers series. Mickey got so much dirt in his eyes, the umpire called time out while the Dodger catcher was cleaned up. Owens thrilled the crowd with his triple, on which Reeves Reese scamper home to score the first run tallied by the Beautiful Bums. Lady Luck crossed them up, however, giving the Yankees the game by a 3-1 score.

TRYON CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL

The following is the report for the month of September.
Senior Dept.—Grade X, 9-1, Marion Leard; 2, Mildred Thomson; 3, Gertrude Inman.

Grade X, Jr.—1, Flora Mae Crossman; 2, Ralph Edwards; 3, Kathleen Carr and Jennie Mabey equal.
Grade IX—1, Marion Fay; 2, Phyllis Thomson; 3, Verne Lea.
Grade VIII—1, Elinor Bea; 2, Audrey Thomas; 3, Roma Howatt.

Perfect Attendance—Marion Leard, Gertrude Inman, Ruth Lord, Flora Mae Crossman, Kathleen Carr, Jennie Mabey, Magde Thomas, Noreen Crossman, Aithia Inman, Phyllis Thomson, Annie Belle MacDonald.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT

Grade V, Jr.—1, Clare Thomas; 2, Ralph Fay; 3, Raymond Riley.
Grade IV, Sr.—1, Daisy Carr; 2, Berne Howatt; 3, Louise Foy.
Grade IV, Jr.—1, Reigh Callbeck; 2, Phyllis Crossman; 3, Donnie Howatt.

Grade III—1, Dorothy Crossman; 2, Eva Bell; 3, Ann Howatt.
Grade II—1, Adelee Mullins; 2, Ariene Carr; 3, Delbert Carr.

Grade I, Sr.—1, Burdette Robblee; 2, Jackie Anderson; 3, Sherman Carr.
Grade I, Jr.—1, Percy Fay; 2, Morley Howatt; 3, Olga Carr.

Perfect Attendance—Harleigh Howatt, Fernie Howatt, Daisy Carr, Reigh Callbeck, Eva Bell, Delbert Carr, Keith Fay, Ariene Carr, Jackie Anderson.

Principal—Vera O. Simpson. Assistant—Florence Mabey.

BRINGING UP FATHER

YOU SAY YOU'RE AFRAID MY WIFE WILL HAVE TO GO TO THE COUNTRY FOR A REST. I MUST TELL HER SHE'S NOT REALLY SICK!

OH, NO—NOTHING SERIOUS!

YOU SEE—SHE IS IN QUITE A NERVOUS CONDITION AND I MUST GIVE UP PLAYING CARDS AND ATTENDING TEAS ON ACCOUNT OF HER AGE!

NOT ME—YOU TELL HER THAT!

Cochrane wins From Jenkins

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—In a lopsided fight welterweight champion Red Cochrane chased lightweight boss Lew Jenkins all over the ring tonight, flogged him five times and easily won a 10-round decision in their non-title tussle in Madison Square Garden. Cochrane weighed 141 1-2; Jenkins 135.

SPRING BROOK SCHOOL

Report for September:
Grade XI—1, Ruth Meek.
Grade VIII—1, Emma MacRae.
Grade VI—1, Beulah MacRae; 2, Shirley Wigmore; 3, Cecil Paynter.
Grade V—1, Walter Cole; 2, Jean Cole; 3, Loyd MacRae.

Grade IV—1, Wesley Cole; 2, Jane Fletcher; 3, Bennett MacRae.

Grade III—1, Frances Jollymore; 2, Mildred Cole; 3, Penzie Campbell.
Grade II (a)—1, Bobby Fletcher; 2, Clarence Paynter.

Grade II (b)—1, Keith Paynter; 2, Alvin MacLeod.

Grade I (a)—1, Orville Candy.
Grade I (b)—1, Billy Pidgeon.

Perfect Attendance—Beulah MacRae, Jean Cole, Jane Fletcher, Mildred Cole.
Myrtle R. Wigmore—Teacher.

ORWELL SCHOOL

Report of Orwell School for August and September.
Grade X—1, Faustina Naddy; 2, Kathleen McKenna; 3, Irene MacLeod.

Grade IX—1, Elva McKenna.
Grade VII—1, Lillian Naddy; 2, Eugene McKenna; 3, Betty Naddy.

Grade VI—1, Arthur McKenna.
Grade V—1, Noreen McKenna; 2, George MacLean; 3, George MacLeod.

Grade IV—1, Stanley MacLeod.
Grade III—1, Frances Naddy; 2, Wilbur MacLeod.

Grade II, A—1, Rose McKenna.
Grade II, B—1, Mildred MacLeod.
Grade II, C—1, Virginia MacLeod.

Grade I—No tests.
Highest average for Senior Grades Faustina Naddy 87.5%.

Highest average for Junior Grades Rose McKenna 93%.

Perfect attendance—Noreen McKenna, George MacLeod, Stanley MacLeod, Rose McKenna.

Teacher—M. Doris Rooney.

OBSERVER MISSING

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 6.—(CP)—Word was received here today that Sergeant Observer Fred W. Tisdall, Moncton, of the Royal Canadian Air Force overseas, is missing after air operations.

Tisdall was a well known athlete and played with several softball clubs here. Only a few weeks ago a son was born to his wife, formerly Marjorie Wilson.

Triumphant Yanks Whoop It Up After Big Victory

By Charles Dunkley
Associated Press Sport Writer
EBBETS FIELD, Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Joseph Vincent McCarthy, 54-year-old leader of the victorious New York Yankees, was the happiest man in the baseball world tonight.

Leo (the Lip) Durocher, foreman of the vanquished Dodgers was the most disappointed one.

McCarthy admitted he was happy over the achievement of his mighty Yanks in beating the Dodgers three straight in their own backyard and presenting him with his sixth world championship in the 11 years that he has managed the club.

The triumphant Yankees burst out in a wild demonstration the instant they hit their dressing room.

While the joyous Yanks were singing, McCarthy entered the room to embrace pitcher Ernie (Tiny) Bonham, who held the Dodgers to four hits. Then McCarthy jumped on the 230-pound pitcher's back and rode around the room for a few seconds.

Bonham's suit was drenched with perspiration and he was tired but happy over winning his first world series game.

Durocher, minus his pants, came in from his own dressing room, which adjoins that of the Yanks, to offer his congratulations. Then in came Edward Barrow, president of the Yanks, making his first dressing room appearance of the season.

"I couldn't have lost to a better guy," said Leo the Lip.

McCarthy's Irish brown eyes twinkled with happiness.

"I am very glad to be the manager of a great ball club," he said. "The Yanks are a game club and I think we beat a good game team."

Cochran's Combs, Charley Keller, Tom Henrich, pitcher Johnny Murphy and Red Rolfe joined Fletcher and they broke out into "The Beer-Barrel Polka," their victory song of two years ago, when they beat Cincinnati Reds.

After the singing, McCarthy set down on a bench and was joined by Fletcher.

"I'm glad it's over, and I'm glad we won," he said. "I never went into any series that I didn't expect to win in four straight—nuts to those fifth and sixth games."

Johnny Sturm, the Yankees' sparkling first baseman, revealed that he was doubly happy. He is going to get married to his school-days sweetheart Florence Knobbe, in St. Louis, Oct. 18.

Joe Dimaggio, the Yankees' hitting star, said he had meant no offense in his attempt to needle Whitlow Wyatt, the Dodger pitcher, after Dimag had fled out to center field in the fifth. As he passed Wyatt on his return to the bench, Joe said he remarked facetiously: "Well, boy, this series isn't over yet."

To which Wyatt took deep exception, and what he said to Dimaggio in return cannot be printed in a family newspaper.

Asked if he thought Wyatt was attempting to dust him off with his pitches, Dimaggio replied: "Well, what do you think it looked like?"

Over in the Dodger dressing room, the Dodgers didn't know whether to be broken-hearted at losing or glad of the chance to go home after one of the toughest pennant campaigns and battle-to-the-last-ditch world series.

Wyatt had a different version of his fifth-inning row with Dimaggio. He said that as Dimaggio walked across the infield back to the Yankee dugout he mumbled "something I couldn't hear."

"I figured he was putting up a beef about a duster ball which sent him back from the plate," Wyatt went on. "So I guess I got hot-headed and yelled to him. 'If you can't take it why the hell don't you get out of the game,' that's all there was to it. It was all settled as soon as it broke up. There's no hard feeling on my part."

Wyatt explained his wild pitch in the second inning by admitting he "crossed Mickey Owen up."

"He called for a curve," Wyatt pointed out, but I was so intent on throwing a fast ball I missed the signal. You get that way sometime when you're bearing down."

PRESBYTERIAN Y. P. U. CONFERENCE

The second annual conference of the Presbyterian Young People's Societies of the Maritimes will be held in the Bethel Presbyterian Church, Gortown, Nova Scotia. The meetings have been scheduled for Friday evening, October 10 to Sunday evening, October 12.

Rev. Lloyd McLellan, Synodical leader of the Young People's Activities has announced the following list of speakers: Friday evening, Rev. H. H. Macdonald, Moderator of the General Assembly, will address a public meeting. The speakers at the Saturday sessions will be, Dr. L. L. Young, for thirty years missionary in Japan, now at Oxford, Nova Scotia who will address the conference on the theme, "Thanksgiving for the Gospel and the Great Commission." The afternoon speaker will be Rev. F. A. Lawrence of Truro. The Saturday evening banquet will be presided over by Rev. B. U. Maclean of St. Stephen, N. B. Closing addresses will be given, Sunday, by the Conference Leader, Rev. F. E. MacDonald of Merigot. The theme chosen for the conference is "Thanksgiving," based upon the verse, "Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift."

Mr. Ralph W. Kane, president of the Conference reports that pre-conference registrations point to a large attendance.

By George McManus

Thimble Theatre—Starring POPEYE

PLEASE GIVE WIMPY THIS MESSAGE!

LET'S SEE IF I HAVE IT STRAIGHT! YES, THAT'S IT!

AHOY, WIMPY, MISS ANCHOVY HAS GOT A MESSAGE TO DELIVER TO YA!

THE MESSAGE IS FROM OLIVE!

GIVE IT TO 'M!

YES!

SHE SAID TO TELL YOU THIS!

SMACK!

THANK YOU, KINDLY, MY DEAR!

TIPPIE AND "CAP" STUBBS

BUT MOM SAID I COULDN'T PLAY OUT-DOORS, COUNTING MY SORE THROAT—

THEN YOU'LL HAVE TO PLAY QUIETLY, MERCY!

MERCY!

TH' WAY COUSIN MILLIE DISRUPTS A MAN'S HOME-LIFE!

By Edwina

IT'S HERE! Winchester Blended CIGARETTE TOBACCO. A delightful blend of Turkish, Virginia and Burley tobaccos for rolling your own. 10¢

Comic strip panels showing characters in various situations, including one with a sore throat and another with a cousin disrupting a home life.