Ira J. Purdy, City, left Saturday morning for Truro where he has accepted a position in the marble works of S. J. Walker.

There were about twenty-five passengers crossing on the Northumberland from this port to Pictou Saturday morning.

While Nelson Winchester, City, was crossing Queen Square on his wheel Saturday, the handle-bars twisted and he was thrown with considerable force to the ground, striking on his head. He was severely cut and bruised and his face required a good deal of bandaging.

"Ours" has probably met with a greater demand for tickets than any comedy ever presented here. The plans were opened on Friday morning, and on Saturday night the reserved seat tickets were practically all taken. These, of course, do not include the whole Opera House, for there are a great many 35 and 25 cent seats, and these will be on sale at the Opera House on Monday night.

The Harland left this port about five o'clock Saturday morning for West River, returning at nine a. m. with about thirty-five passengers and a fair general cargo. She left on her return to West River about three p. m., returning here again in the evening. She carried a number of passengers and a fair cargo on all her trips.

On the 18th of April, at the residence of her nephew, Henry Young, Barnscliffe, Miss Mary Young passed to her eternal rest at the ripe age of sixty-six years. The deceased was one of the most estimable ladies that ever lived, and her kindness of heart, her gentleness of speech and manner will be long remembered by all of her neighbors and friends. The funeral on Wednesday afternoon was largely attended—Rev Mr Orman conducting the services at the house and cemetery. The pallbearers were: Francis Mutch, A. D. McPhee, John Hayden, John Doyle, Augustine McInnis and George Praught.

The following letter of condolence, signed by Sadie C. McDougall and H. C. McKenzie, the committee, was read to John Macdonald and Amelia J. Macdonald, Rose Valley. "We the members of Sentinel L. T. B. A. wish to express our sincere sympathy to Sister Amelia J. and Brother John Macdonald in the loss you have sustained in the death of your loving brother, Daniel Norman. Although the loss borne by you is almost unbearable, yet we must think that your loss on earth may be a gain in Heaven, for we are all taught to believe that God's ways are not our ways and that He is too wise to err. As we are bound together in one brotherhood your grief is also borne by us, but we pray that the Great Redeemer of the world may give you strength to overcome your grief and that you may say, 'Thy will be done. Now we direct you to the One who gives comfort to all who really ask it of Him in prayer. Signed on behalf of Sentinel Lodge, Rose Valley.'"

On Saturday night in Burke's Bowling Alley in this city two teams of bowlers—selected from the commercial travellers at present in this city, composed of Messrs O'Brien, Fleming, Petrie, Trow and Douglas, and a team of citizens—O. McEachern, Earl McKenzie, P. R. Newsome, W. K. Rogers and James Kimball, played a match game. The contest throughout was witnessed by a large crowd of interested spectators who lined the alley. The result was a signal victory for the city team who won out by 199 points. Owing to the hour only two and a half innings were played. The first innings resulted in a victory for the citizens by 102 points, in the second innings they won by 33 points, and in the last innings they won by 64. The travellers engaged one of the alleys for a return match this evening to begin at seven o'clock. Much interest was shown in the first game and that the undaunted commercials may yet retrieve their defeat is a matter of much conjecture.

Such a variety of excellent home made candy at "Ours."

The Knights of Columbus State Council meets in Moncton on the 9th of May, where the officers for the coming year will be elected. The local Council will have an exemplification of the different degrees and it is expected a large number from this Province will attend. Special fares are being arranged.

The residence of Rev Donald Crawford, beautifully situated at Clyde Mills, is for sale. This would make a most desirable summer residence and if not sold by 18th of May will be sold by public auction at 2 o'clock p. m. on that date together with the household furniture. The ad appears in this issue.

The Telephone Company's ad. is an appropriate appeal to farmers. This Province is very much behind many other Provinces of the Dominion as regards the number of 'phones in use on farms. The farmers are just as enterprising as the farmers in other parts, but they are only beginning to realize the advantages of the 'phone. Once in use no farmer would for a minute consider parting with it at any price—it would become an indispensable part of farm equipment. The Telephone Company are willing to supply any information on the question, and will offer every assistance to people interested in the 'phone on the farm. See their ad in this issue.

An examination was held at Henrie's Road school on Friday, April 15th. A large number of Ratepayers and visitors were present, which attested to the interest taken in school matters by this school district. The pupils were examined in the several branches by the teacher, Miss Loreta White, and the readiness and accuracy of the answers given by them was sufficient evidence of the pains-taking and conscientious methods of Miss White as a teacher. Miss White has been teaching in this school for almost four years, and during that time has been ever patient and faithful in discharge of duties. At the close of the examination a most pleasing feature in the way of a program was rendered. Delightful recitations were given by three small girls Annie Andrews, Dinah Beaton, and Hazel MacGregor, James Beaton favored the school with some excellent graphophone selections. In all the parts were highly creditable and general appreciation was expressed by the visitors. Exercises closed by the singing of "God be with you till we meet again."—Com.

A correspondent from Hazelbrook writes:—Miss Laura Wood, Southport, has returned to her home after visiting a week with Seymour and Mrs. Myers. Albert Inman, one of Hazelbrook's most up-to-date farmers, has just installed a new De Laval separator. Miss Laura Jones is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Wood, Pownal. Miss Viola Parquharson, Bunbury, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Wood, has returned home. Avery Wood, one of Waterside's crack shots, spent Wednesday in Hazelbrook in search of game. On the evening of April 23rd a number of invited guests assembled at the home of James Myers to celebrate with him the sixty-eighth anniversary of his birthday. When all the guests had assembled Pope Noye, on behalf of those present, came forward and presented Mr. Myers with a beautiful oak rocker and address. Mr. Myers, although completely taken by surprise, very kindly thanked the friends in a few words. As the hour of eight drew near all were invited to the dining room, where an excellent dinner was served in Mrs. Myers' usual up-to-date manner. The remainder of the evening was spent in social chat and games.
