HAMPTON UNITED CHURCH — Services for Sunday, Nov. 19th, are as follows: Bonshaw, 11 a. m.; DeSable, 3 p. m.; Victoria, 7 p. m. The Victoria branch of the W. M. S. will hold their annual thank-offering service at the night meeting; for which the male choir will furnish the music. Rev. Jas. P. Kaye, Minister.

PETERS ROAD — On Sunday next, Nov 18th, the Presbyterian Church at Peter's Road which has been undergoing quite extensive repairs will be re-opened. There will be service at 2.30 p. m. and also at 7 p. m. A morning service will be held in Murray Harbor North at 10.30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

SPECIAL SERVICES —Thanksgiving and Armistice Day was duly observed in the Presbyterian churches at Marshfield, Harrington and Mt. Stewart. Dr. Genge's addresses were of high order and handled in a masterly way. The two minutes silence was observed at Marshfield morning service. The musical programme at all churches was good. The special numbers were given by Mrs. Lann of Charlottetown and Mr. Wendel Phillips in duets appropriate to the occasion, both were in good form and left a deep impression upon the people and added power and pathos to the splendidly delivered addresses of the day. The thanks of the congregation are given to the singers and a hearty welcome and invitation given for similar renditions which we hope to be favored with in the future.

ZION CHURCH SERVICES

A splendid audience was present Sunday morning to greet the minister and hear an inspiring message from John XII:39: "Some said it thundered; others said an angel spake to Him." This was a Thanksgiving sermon.

In the evening "Peace with Empire" was the topic.

Mr. Fulton has been on holiday for two weeks and visited many friends in his former charge in Toronto and Pittsburg.

Envelopes for the special Thank Offering for the budget of the Chuch were distributed.

Appropriate music for Armistice Day was rendered by the choir. The anthem "Soldiers of Christ Arise" by Miller, was given. Mr. Malcolm McKinnon sang Stevenson's "Requiem" and at the conclusion of the hymn, Kipling's "Recessional" Mr. Winston Smith sounded the "Last Post." The morning service concluded with the National Anthem and "Benediction."

In the evening the choir rendered the anthem, Kipling's "Recessional" by DeKoven, Mrs. Leigh Warren taking the solo part. Zion male quartette gave the selection "Quit You Like Men" by Wilson, unaccompained. Prof. Thompson, at the organ rendered the Grieg and Chopin Funeral Marches and other appropriate music.

Monthly Review Protestant Orphanage

In the work of the Orphanage the Fall seems to set all workers in a fever; a feeling of uneasiness creeps up. The year is drawing to a close and if success is again to be recorded the few remaining weeks must be the busiest of all for us.

While all this is transpiring, the little Kiddies in the Home, enjoying good health and without a care, smile as they see again the prospect of snow and a Merry Christmas.

There are many forms of pleasure but few can equal that of helping others especially little children and many of our workers are surely denying themselves and sacrificing much that their labors may be a lasting benefit to these.

DO GOOD TODAY AND TOMORROW WILL HAVE NO REGRETS

The whole history of the Institution is a story of public generosity and we need not be ashamed who reads it. Hundreds of children have been cared for and in times of uncertainty tears have been shed but through it all an unseen hand has guided the ship and her colors still fly high.

As stated we are again at this uncertain period and may all who seek the pleasure of doing good perform their part well in assisting this worthy Institution.

We endeavor to work with the thought of the child in view, aiming always to do what seems in their best interest and the result is pleasing to all who know or read.

We continue our policy of adopting out wherever satisfied that the child will be properly cared for, and we receive in wherever the child has no means of having a chance in life even of life itself. We receive also all contributions with grateful thanks and are now endeavoring by personal canvass to obtain an additional amount sufficient to pay our bills for the current year.

Please remember that all who thus solicit are doing it for the good of the cause and without any monetary reward and so when asked to assist be kind to the collectors and fair to yourself.

The collection in the City is now almost complete and the result is very gratifying; Some few sections of the country have been heard from but we feel sure the work is well underway.

A further addition to our Endowment Fund has been received through Mr. J. F. Henderson, Executor of the Estate of the late Miss Charlotte Edith Blatch, $200.00. We have also received, $10.00 in Memory of the late Neil McCannell of Lorne Valley.

Just here may we thank all those who have been particularly active in the work in the recent past. Some children have undergone needed surgical treatment thanks to Drs. Tidmarsh, Seaman, Houston and Archibald; considerable Dental work has been done thanks to Dr. Ayers and several ladies have kindly used their cars in these connections. A number of members of the Charlottetown Ladies Auxiliary took over Ice-Cream and Cake and gave a very generous China Shower which was much appreciated.

The new barn is now completed and the Fire-Escapes are well under construction; In the Home the usual routine is being followed and visitors are invariably well pleased with the splendid manner in which the Institution is being conducted.

The time is gone in Canada when unfortunate children are left to themselves to live or die; If the State does not recognize their value individuals do and in no province is this awakening more evident than in our own fair Prince Edward Island, where our Institution is being maintained almost entirely by contributions from those who see their duty and DO it.

The difficulty is that there are many who have not yet recognized their duty towards these unfortunates and to that extent the work of these in charge is rendered the more strenuous.

Every child in the Home positively needed help and care.

We assumed the responsibility trusting in the fairmindedness of our public and up to the present that trust has not been misplaced.

Now the past is beyond recall—Is reflection pleasant?

The present is here with its opportunity—Are you seizing it?

For many there will be no tomorrow—Make your way straight today and these little ones will, unknowing, have their due.

Postal services of Great Britain will have a surplus of $41,500,000 for 1927-1928 according to latest estimates.

A memorial to Sir Walter N. Cosgrave, a British hero in Malta, was recently unveiled near Maidra on the island.

Risks Life to Save Brother

Doctor Bovyer, Coroner, of Crapaud, was called to Borden on Saturday afternoon to hold an inquest into the death of Lao Ceretti, who was accidentally killed there on Friday, as formerly reported. After consulting with the eye witnesses, one of whom was a brother of the deceased and examining the derrick and the scene of the accident he deemed an inquest unnecessary. Absolutely no blame can be attached to anyone for this most regrettabl eaccident. Although the same derrick and gear were used a few hours previous, for lifting concrete blocks weighing three and four tons—it stood the strain, showing no signs of insecurity. Most unfortunately a hook or clevis parted at the time of the accident, under a strain of fifteen or sixteen hundred pounds, while drawng a pile from the face of the pier. Deceased was standing near the pile, on the breastwork. When struck he fell fifteen feet into the water, which at this point is thirty feet deep. His brother George Ceretti, who though a diver by occupation cannot swim a stroke, immediately jumped in at the same location fully clad and wearing a heavy overcoat. He managed in some mysterious manner, to keep himself afloat, caught hold of his injured brother with one hand, and with the other grasped a life line, thrown to him by Roy Brown, who together with George Anderson and Albert Lagore, were working at the wharf. The accident happened at the extreme outer end of the pier. They were drawn into the dock towards the landing apron and pulled on board the Scotia, which at the time was docked at Borden. Though it was done to save the life of his brother, surely such an act of unselfish heroism as was performed by George Ceretti, shall not be allowed to pass without due recognition and reward. A young man of such courage and self-abandon, who can face almost certain death, by jumping into the icy waters, from the outer end of Borden pier—he being unable to swim, is worthy of reward Let the proper authorities please keep this act in memory.

How much does curiosity cost a glass?" asked his wife.

Canada's Nationhood Born of Leadership

UNDER the wise leadership of her Premiers, Canada has arisen to take her proud place among the great nations of the world. One great step in Canada's rise to greatness was the breaking of the shackles of sectionalism and forging the bonds of commerce under the premiership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

To-day, Premier leadership—the leadership of the Premier Duplex Vacuum Cleaner—is breaking the bondage of the beater and broom in thousands of Canadian homes and forging the bonds of happiness and freedom from toil. The famous Premier Action—a motor driven brush plus supersuction—makes housecleaning easier and speedier. Both motor and brush are mounted in ball bearings—they never need oiling.

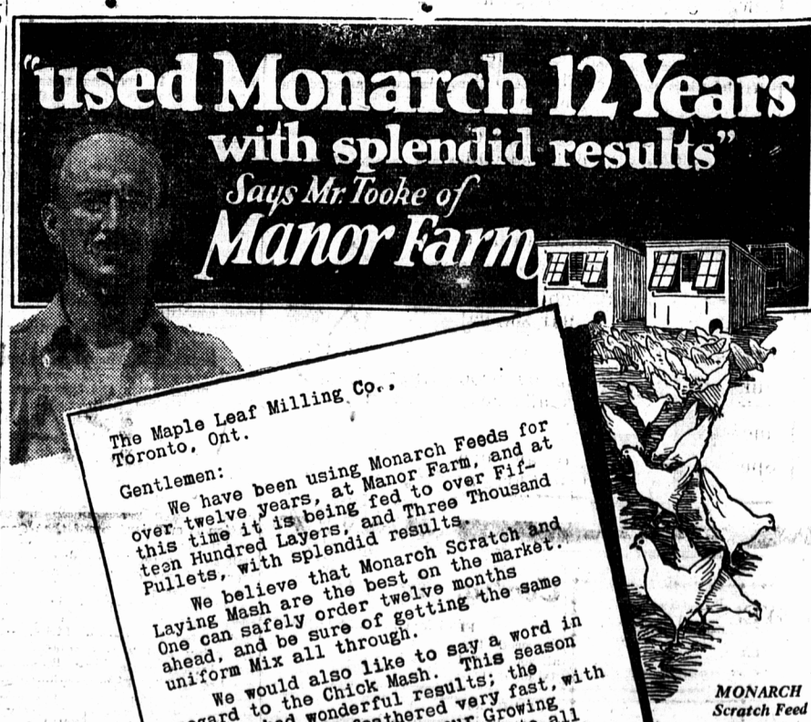
"used Monarch 12 Years with splendid results" Says Mr. Tooke of Manor Farm



The Maple Leaf Milling Co.,
Toronto, Ont.

Gentlemen:

We have been using Monarch Feeds for over twelve years, at Manor Farm, and at this time it is being fed to over Fifteen Hundred Layers, and Three Thousand Pullets, with splendid results.

We believe that Monarch Scratch and Laying Mash are the best on the market. One can safely order twelve months ahead, and be sure of getting the same uniform Mix all through.

We would also like to say a word in regard to the Chick Mash. This season we have had wonderful results; the Chicks grew and feathered very fast, with very few losses. Also your Growing Mash: in 1927 we fed this Mash to all our growing stock, and the same this season, which speaks for itself.

As a rule we do not like to recommend Poultry Feeds to anyone on account of the variation of so many of them, but it is always a pleasure to say a good word for the Monarch Brands.

Yours truly,
(Signed) E. H. TOOKE
