A little fellow who had just felt the hard side of a slipper turned to his mother for consolation. "Mother" he asked, "did grandpa thrash father when he was a little boy?" "Yes," answered his mother impressively. "And did his father thrash him when he was a boy?" "Yes." "And did his father thrash him?" "Yes." A pause. "Well, who started this thing anyway?"

HOCKEY

A friendly game of hockey took place on the 24th between the Millionaires Sisters and the Hunter River Royals Sisters which ended in a 3-nil win for the Millionaires, the outstanding play of Miss Thankful Bain and Mrs. Wheatley was good to watch. The 14 year old Bessie MacMillan stickhandled through them just as she liked. Miss Thankful Bain and MacMillan and Mrs. Wheatley did just as they wanted to with the defence of the Royal Sisters. There is a team worth watching next season is this Millionaires Sisters, the defence of Miss Mary Brown and Miss Bain is the hard checking pair of the team. The Royals could not get through to try a hard shot on Miss P. Campbell, but the shots she got she turned away in good style. This team has to thank the coach, J. Kenosfor, for the way they have turned out. The way he coached them has pleased the fans. They hope this same team is together next season. The score tells how easy they overcame Hunter River girls. Good luck Millionaires Sisters, to it.

PHOTOGRAPHED—A recent and striking photo of Mr. Stuart Thompson of Montreal and the U. S. A. far East and Northern explorer, and his world-famous white Arctic sled-dog, appears in the Newark, N. J., News of recent date. When a managing official of the old Plant S. S. Line at Boston Mr. Thompson visited Charlottetown and is still remembered. He is now an internationally known explorer, statesman, author and sportsman, beloved by millions of young and grown-ups.

W. M. S. MEETING—The W. M. S. of Winsloe South United Church held their Easter Meeting in the Parsonage on Friday March 25th. The President Mrs. L. J. Leard in the chair. The women of the congregation were invited to meet with the members and quite a number accepted the invitation. A program of Easter Readings and music was given. Mr. Leard sang a solo which was much enjoyed by all at the close of the program tea was served. Mrs. A. B. Sellar presided at the tea cups and Mrs. E. Saunders, Mrs. H. Slackford and Miss E. Diamond served. An offering was taken for the W. M. S. funds. An enjoyable time was spent by all.

BELFAST—The spirit of Easter was very fully manifested in the services of St. John's Presbyterian Church last Sunday. The preacher at the morning service was Rev. D. L. Griffiths, who based a most illuminating and helpful discourse upon the words of St. Paul's "Remember Christ Jesus, raised from the dead." All the hymns sang throughout the day pertained to the resurrection of Christ from the dead and its bearing upon the resurrection of those "in Christ Jesus." At the evening worship the congregation was unusually large, and the proceedings, apart from the opening devotional portion, was practically in the hands of the choir of eighteen members assisted by Sunday School Scholars, the latter contributing their Easter recitations with admirable taste and effect. The choral selections, as well as the solos and the recitations were from the Easter Service of Song entitled "After Three Days." The choir deserves all the praise lavished upon it for its spirited and dignified renderings of musical messages of Easter hope and joy. This applies also to the soloists in their respective selections.

Among the passengers arriving at St. John from the West Indies aboard the liner Lady Hawkins are Mr. and Mrs. J. McKinnon, Charlottetown.

An Oil that is Priced Everywhere—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over fifty years ago. It was put up to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and prized throughout this continent. There is nothing equal

Peters Road and Vicinity

The extensive preparations for the lobster fishing industry is somewhat similar to a political campaign. It does not actually begin on the day set for "running the lines" but depends upon the amount of thought and labor expended for several months preceding. The reconnoitering must be discreet. No clashing. Yet it is wonderful how quietly the manoeuvring is carried out, and what apparent tranquility and consideration is manifest in the attitude of the several operators toward each other. They have learned to respect the rights of others, and this is a high mark of honor.

The recent epidemic of mumps in this and surrounding sections seems to be on the decline. Schools, churches and stores continue their activities as heretofore.

Mr. J. B. Finlayson, Prop. Point Pleasant Mills, reports fair business in his line despite the existing conditions of trade.

We are pleased to report continued improvement in the case of Mrs. Allan Morrison, Peters Road, who has been strictly confined to her room for some considerable time, owing to severe injury received from a fall.

Mrs. Samuel Luco Pt. Pleasant, is also slowly convalescing from her recent illness.

Rev. A. R. Gibson, Pastor Presbyterian Church at Montague kindly officiated, in both sections of Murray H. North and Peters Road on Sunday, 20th inst. The Communion of both sections was held at Peter's Road where an impressive and edifying service was conducted.

We are pleased to note the arrival to Peter's Road of Messrs. John R. Johnston and James McLean, both of whom attended the Course of Instruction at the Fish Experimental Station, Halifax.

Mrs. A. M. Johnston, Montague, is now at Peter's Road, having been in attendance at the funeral services of her brother, the late David McDonald, whose interment took place on March 18th.

We can only report a slight improvement in the case of Mrs. W. B. Hicken, Alliston and her many friends extend to her their deep sympathy in her long and serious illness.

The highly interesting letter in "The Guardian" of March 19th, "Weather Wisdom" shows that the writer, Mr. Crozier, Montague, has a vivid imagination of nature's problems, and an intimate acquaintance with the wonders of world lore and atmospheric phenomena, which must necessarily convey the idea that the writer has given this great subject much study. (I am sending this letter to a friend who I think has kindred ideas on this great subject).

At Hollywood there is an institution known as the "Seig Zoo" after its founder.

Here are kept wild beasts of all sorts for use in human scenes and a certain producer was explaining the part he wished the film actress to play. "You are to run across the set as far as you can and the lion will chase you. All I want is 500 feet of lion charging you and no more—you quite understand?"

The actress nodded. "Yes-s-s," she faltered, her teeth chattering. "Yes-s-s, I understand, but d-does the lion?"

IN MEMORIAM MR. ANGUS STEWART

There passed peacefully away at Hunter River on Sunday, March 30th, Mr. Angus Stewart at the age of 72 years. Mr. Stewart was for a great number of years, section man on the rail-road until eight years ago, he retired from active service and made his home in Hunter River, where he won a host of friends. He was a member of the United Church, also the Orange Lodge, always attended Sunday School and took a deep interest in everything pertaining to the welfare of the community. He was a man of sterling character and will be greatly missed, especially in the home, where he leaves a vacancy which can never be filled. The funeral was held the following Tuesday, Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, conducted the service assisted by Rev. Mr. Palethorpe of the Bradalbane United Church. The Orangemen paraded from their hall to his late residence. The hymns were: "He Leadeth Me" and "Abide With Me". Mrs. Boothroyd rendered very effectively "The Home Land". There are left to mourn besides his sorrowing widow, two daughters, Mrs. Daniel McDonald, North W. L. Harris, Mrs. William Buchanan, Albany, one son predeceased him ten years ago, one sister in New Brunswick, two brothers, Norman of Sask. and Malcolm in Waltham, Mass.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, consisting of a Pillow from the family, Wreath, Orange Lodge, Wreath, Section Men, Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Craig and family, Wreath, True Blue Institute, Spray, Mr. and Mrs. John F. McMillan, Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bernard, Spray, United Church Sunday school, Spray, Peter Cra' and family. The pall bearers were: Wm. Bernard, Lefuta Wood, Malcolm McInnis, Hammond Bertram, George S. McLeod and Arthur Senter. The cortege under the direction of Cutcliffe and Andrews conveyed the remains to Fredericton Cemetery where the burial was in charge of the Orangemen.

MR. THOMAS KENNY In loving memory of Thomas Kenny, who departed this life at his home on Byrne's Road, March 11 aged 80 years, 11 months. In life's worst storms, when snow piled high, If others held back afraid to try, He'd always shoulder their share of the load And still forge ahead and "break the road."

He is not dead, he's just gone before, He'll wait beside the heavenly door And we, who are left can bear better our load Knowing Dad's gone ahead to "break the road."

MR. SOLOMON C. CLARK The death occurred very suddenly in Charlottetown yesterday morning of Mr. Solomon C. Clark, a well known citizen.

Mr. Clark, who was apparently in excellent health of late had gone to his garage to get his car ready to take out, and as he did not appear for some time, people in the house on going to the garage were shocked to find that he had passed away, death, it is thought, being the result of a stroke of apoplexy.

The late Mr. Clark, who was 78 years of age, was born at Charlottetown, near Mount Stewart.

He began a general business in 1878 and later also went into lobster packing on a large scale which he conducted for 25 years, having canneries at Blooming Point, Stanhope, Elmira and French Village.

In 1910 Mr. Clark transferred his various extensive business interests to his son, Mr. Russell C. Clark, (who had been associated with him for a number of years) and came to reside in Charlottetown.

The late Mr. Clark was a man of great energy and business ability and achieved marked success in his various undertakings.

He was well and favorably known in the eastern part of Queens County, where many friends will regret to learn of his passing.

He leaves to mourn a widow and one son, Mr. Russell C. Clark, a former member of the Provincial Government.
