The many friends of Mrs. J. R. Stewart nee Miss Carrie Stumbles, of Charlottetown, will regret to learn of her death in Lisbon, North Dakota, after an illness of one year with lung trouble. Although she spent the winter in Arizona and the summer in Colorado Springs trying to regain her health it was of no avail, and she gradually failed until her death came on Sept. 18th last, and relieved her of her sufferings. She leaves to mourn a husband and one daughter, Helen aged eight years, also four sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Albert Crosby, and Mrs. Hammond Kelly, Charlottetown, Miss S. Stumbles and Miss S. Stumbles, and brother Stephen of Malden, Mass., and William of Ottawa.

The pictures at Wonderland last night were of great interest—that one which illustrated life in a Burmah, where elephants are employed in the work of hauling and piling teak logs being of surpassing merit. This picture elicited unbounded admiration. It was well put on and very cleverly presented. The other pictures contributed to the mirth of the evening in generous measure. The excellent program will be repeated tonight.

SAMPLE FURS SELLING

at a Substantial Saving

IN THESE DAYS when fur prices are high and going higher a real price saving in furs is matter of note.

This lot of which we are speaking, represents the whole line of samples small furs used by one of the largest houses in the country.

Being made as samples, they are thoroughly first rate in workmanship, being bought practically at our own price, they are selling now at saving of quarter to one third.

The lot includes ruffs, stoles, muffs, throws, and all sorts of small furs. There is a particularly strong showing of marmot and fish furs, in rich, beautifully marked browns, presenting an appearance very similar to mink, at about one sixth the price. Some of the prices of this line are attached—but for every one mentioned we have scores of others.

A very nice fur is a Marmot Stole, in a medium shade has four tails, satin lined. Price $1 35

A Jap Mink stole, one of our best imitations of mink, has ten tails, satin lined. Price 89c.

Another one is a Marmot Cravat, sixty three inches long, medium shade, satin lined. Price $4.75

A Marmot Collar, of a very dark shade with long stole ends finished with six large tails, and two heads, exceptionally good value at— $12.00

Something altogether new is a Marmot Cravat with a trim of ermine, trimmed with heads and tails of self, sixty-three inches long. Price $9.00

A very large Marmot Cravat, fitting closely to the neck. This fur is beautifully striped resembling mink very much and has ten large tails. Price $14.95

Beautiful high class furs in probably the largest range in Charlottetown. Minks, Persian Lambs, Fox, Squirrel, Stone Marten—and scores of other popular furs in every modern style.
