BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS—Many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Moase, New Annan, gathered at their home on Thursday evening, Dec. 7th and extended their felicitations to their daughter Ruby, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, and also to bid "au revoir" to their daughter Ella, who having undergone a serious operation was sufficiently restored to health and was leaving to take up her duties as nurse in Falconwood Hospital. The evening was pleasantly spent in sing songs, games and contests. Mr. and Mrs. Furber's Moase furnished beautiful instrumental music. A sumptuous goose supper was served to the guests, the menu comprising of all which tended to satisfy the inner man. Ice cream was served at the close of the evening. Many expressions of thanks were conveyed to Mr. and Mrs. Moase for their kind hospitality and splendid entertainment, and after singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" the guests departed for their homes, feeling that they had as pleasant an evening as could be spent.

SEVEN MILE BAY AND BORDEN—The weekly card party of Seven Mile Bay was held Monday night, Dec. 18th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Murtari, Albany, while that of Borden at the Abegweit Hotel, Tuesday night, Dec. 19th, under the auspices of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. P. Gallant. Much good play was in evidence in both places and some high scores resulted. First prizes went to Mr. Duncan Carmichael and Mrs. Basil Sherry, Albany, while in Borden to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McAleer. Consolation prizes, Albany, to Mr. Harry Perry and Miss Hazel Green. Borden prizes to Mr. Louis Hackett and Miss Blanche Gallant. The freeso-out in both districts proved interesting. Mrs. Jno. Murtari winning a duck at Albany and Mr. Amile Gallant a duck at Borden. All are looking forward to a large gathering at the card party in Seven Mile Bay in the near future. Thursday night, Dec. 14th, saw a large crowd gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. McIsaac, Borden, for a few hours auction forty-fives. From the many tables in play, first prizes were won by Mr. Louis Hackett and Mrs. W. P. McNeill, while consolation prizes by Mr. Roy Sherry and Miss Annie Perry. A substantial sum of money for the freeze out was won by Louis Hackett. Lunch was served.

GASPEREAUX WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Gasperaux Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Percy Dixon. Meeting opened by singing "Silent Night". The roll was called and answered by nine members. Four new members joined. There being also two visitors present. Minutes of previous meeting were read approved and signed by the President. Sick committee reported as having made three visits, a new committee was appointed for the following month. It was decided to send $1.00 for the Christmas seals which the Institute received.

It was also decided to buy a birthday present for a lady in the district who will attain her 80th birthday. A presentation was made and an address read to the retiring President and Secretary. At the close of the meeting a box was packed for each orphanage. Mrs. George H. Hicken kindly invited the members to her home for the next meeting. Roll call to be answered by "a grab bag". The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by several ladies which was followed by a programme by the Institute which was as follows:—

Chorus, Christmas Bells.
Solo, "There is a New Star up in Heaven", by Miss Matilda Steele.
Reading, "When Old Women Get Together", by Mrs. George A. Hicken.
Dialogue, "Uncle Hiram's Cold", Monologue, Miss Prim's Christmas Shopping", by Miss Vera Hayer.
Recitation "Village Schoolmaster", by Miss Mary Steele.
Comic Reading by Miss Matilda Steele.
Duet, "I don't Care If I Do" by Misses Mary and Matilda Steele.
Christmas Chorus.

Ladies

IS IT THE SAME OLD PROBLEM

WHAT to give him? It isn't such a poser if you approach the subject practically. Discard the unessentials. He has. He's probably even skimped on wearables lately just to keep the old budget balanced. There's your cue. Inventory his wardrobe. Take stock of the low spots. Gifts of replenishment will please him most and serve him best. Follow the trail of hints and you'll find more reason than rime.
