BRITISH PRESS CONCERNED OVER TROUBLE IN SUDAN

Disturbance Said To Be Started For Purpose Of Doing Away With British Control— Four Killed In Recent Clash

King of Egypt

(Canadian Press.) LONDON, Aug. 13.—The London newspapers this morning make a big display of the disturbances in the Sudan, which they attribute to a conspiracy of Egyptian persons in Egypt aiming to oust the British from the Sudan and establish Egyptian rule over it. Agitation to this effect has been in progress for some months, the main organizers being it is said, the White Flag Society of Cairo. It is recalled that the Egyptian premier, Zagloul Pasha, told the Chamber in June that Egypt would insist upon complete evacuation of the Sudan by Great Britain and afterward the British ministers announced in parliament that the British on no account would renounce their responsibilities to the Sudan and the Sudanese.

PROSPECT OF FRANCO-GERMAN SETTLEMENT NOW BRIGHTER

Friday Now Fixed Up on As The Concluding Day Of The Conference — Belgium Tired Of Supporting Ruhr Troops.

Premier Theunis

(Canadian Press.) LONDON, Aug. 13.—The decision of the German, French and Belgian delegates on the Ruhr evacuation problem will be communicated to the Reparation Conference tomorrow, it is announced. The decision of this committee, which the Big Fourteen discussed vainly at this afternoon's meeting. The French are endeavoring to get assurances as to the terms of the new commercial treaty to be negotiated with Germany at an early date and there is a battle royal between the delegates and experts of the two countries. Predictions that the conference will be concluded Thursday have given way to forecasts that Friday is the earliest possible time of settlement, and many of the delegates believe that settlement cannot come this week. There is a general feeling, however, that the points of difference between the French and the Germans now have been brought within negotiable limits. Both countries want a settlement so badly that no delegate believes the conference will break up without action.

Will Make Trip As Prince

(Canadian Press.) LONDON, Aug. 13.—"Of course the Prince is visiting Washington as the Prince of Wales and not as Baron Renfrew," an official of York House stated today. "There has never been any question of His Royal Highness crossing the Atlantic as anything else than the Prince of Wales on a holiday. "Naturally, too, he sought the advice of the British Embassy at Washington as to how he could best pay his respects to the President of the Republic while in the U. S. He feared that the President might be away campaigning. We are pleased to learn that the Prince will be the President's guest at luncheon."

Jumps Five Stories To Death

(Canadian Press.) WAR CLOUDS NOW HANGING LOW OVER BALKAN STATES

Situation Said To Be Most Dangerous In Years.—Movement Known To Have Financial Backing Of Moscow Gov't.

(Canadian Press.) VIENNA, Aug. 13.—Vienna is today the focus of an amazing complexity of intrigues which may in the very near future burst forth with fatal consequences for the peace of Europe and the world. Not since the Soviet troops were beaten back from the gates of Warsaw by General Weygand has Europe been so near a general conflagration as at this moment, when the activity of the Macedonian national committee, that ancient firebrand of southeastern Europe, renders a movement stated in a general survey of the situation. In reality the working basis of the movement is the discontent prevailing in all Balkan countries and the exploitation of all anti-governmental tendencies. This general "anti" complexion of the movement covers a variety of conflicting aims—thus the extreme militant Macedonian Comitadj element is working hand in hand with Croa peasant leader, who has just passed through Vienna today, conferring with his friends. Thus the Macedonian national committee re-enters the stage in the guise of a body working for the confederation of all the Balkan peoples. Their professed aim is to bring together all the diverse races now arbitrarily divided into the existing Balkan States, making one democratic federated republic.
