Senator Howard Disagrees With Senator Bouchard

OTTAWA, June 29—(CP)—Senator C. B. Howard (L.-Quebec) said in the Senate today that he did not agree with statements of Senator J. D. Bouchard (L.-Quebec) that activities of the Jacques Cartier order in Quebec provided cause for alarm.

(Senator Bouchard, speaking in the Senate, June 28, said the order was conducting subversive activities directed at discouraging national unity and loyalty to the establishment of a French Catholic state.)

The Jacques Cartier order does not in any means represent the viewpoint of the people of Quebec, said Senator Howard.

Similar organizations existed in all democratic countries and were all marked by a lack of experienced judgment and mature development.

Senator Howard referred to a number of personalities of Quebec political history who had been the loyalty of Quebec to Canada. He spoke particularly of Premier Godbout, who he said was "faithful to the people, of the people and for the people," and was in a position to make a great contribution to national unity.

He cited instances in which English-speaking Protestants and French-speaking Catholics were elected in ridings where the voters were overwhelmingly

The motion which both Senator Bouchard and Senator Howard spoke proposes the appointment by the new Dominion Provincial conference of a committee to arrange for the preparation of a history textbook which would be acceptable to all provinces.

Senator Howard proposed immediate appointments to three French-speaking and three English-speaking historians to undertake the work.

In a brief discussion on the bill to establish a reconstruction department Senator John T. Helle (P.C.—Manitoba) said the approach to post-war problems should be realistic and the facilities for employment should be used as far as possible. Senator J. A. Calder (P.C.—Saskatchewan) said a "tor" might be sudden and no time could be lost in making preparation to meet inevitable post-war problems.

The bill received third reading and will be given royal assent tomorrow. A number of other bills tomorrow.
