Bridge-Powell Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Church, Charlottetown, at 6:30 P.M., on Thursday, May 6th., when Edna, youngest daughter of Mrs. E. M. Powell, became the bride of Harry, son of Mr. Fred Bridge and the late Mrs. Bridge, Heywood, Manchester, England.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Ellsworth Buell, and was preceded up the aisle by the choir singing "We lift our hearts to Thee" She was wearing a dress of white silk crepe with veil surmounted with wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of red roses. She was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Robert Downe as Matron of Honor, wearing pink sheer with shoulder veil, and Miss Freda Powell, bridesmaid, wearing turquoise sheer with shoulder veil, and carrying pink and white carnations.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, assisted by Squadron-Leader the Rev. J. M. Cameron. During the signing of the register the choir sang "O Perfect Love."

The groom was supported by Peter Avery and the usher was Sgt. Pilot Leslie Jones.

The bride's mother was wearing an ensemble of navy blue with corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. A. Gardner, representing the groom's parents, wore a blue ensemble with corsage of talisman roses. There were a number of friends and relatives attending the wedding, among them was Mrs. Weston Carmody of Saint John, sister of the bride.

A reception was held at the home of the bride where the table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. John MacKenzie of Cardigan and Mrs. Ira Brown of Charlottetown poured tea while the girl friends of the bride assisted in serving.

Many messages of congratulations were received by the happy couple before leaving for a honeymoon at Hamilton, Ontario.

Prepare To Call Married Men 26-30

OTTAWA, May 10 —(CP)— The Ottawa Journal said today in a newspage story that registration cards of married men between the ages of 26 and 30 have been sent to mobilization boards, preparatory to their call-up for military service.

"This new class, like the others which have preceded it, would be called up by proclamation, but when this could be expected Mr. MacNamara (Arthur MacNamara, director of National Selective Service) declined to say.

" 'When the call will be sent out." he declared, "Depends entirely upon the circumstances.

" 'We are preparing for it anyway.

" 'The registration cards of the eligible men have been gathered together and sent to the mobilization boards.

" 'When it becomes necessary to call up the married men in that older age group we will be in readiness to do it.

" 'I cannot go further than that.'

"Previously the assembling of registration cards of any one age-class has been a forerunner of a new draft call."

". . .The district mobilization board expected the new age group of maried men would be called 'before midsummer.' "

Call up regulations at present apply to single men and childless widowers from 19 to 40 and married men and widowers with children from 19 to 25 years.)
