

Does the One You Have Appointed Executor Possess All the Necessary Qualifications?

Your executor should be financially strong as a guarantee of integrity. Your executor should be conservative—not one liable to speculate. Your executor should be one who will live until the trust will be carried out. Your executor should not be subject to illness or absence from the city. Your executor should be trained in that very work. These are just a few of the important requirements. This company is an ideal executor and trustee. Its paid-up capital and reserve is $2,800,000. It is conservative. It will not die, be ill or travel. Its officers and staff have spent years in study and actual experience in this very work. Consult us today regarding your will. There is no charge for such consultation.

EMPRESS EUGENIE'S TOMB IS READY

LONDON, Nov. 7.—In view of the disquieting reports concerning the condition of Empress Eugenie, the widow of Napoleon II., who is said to be failing rapidly, public attention is attracted to the fact that the former empress has prepared for herself one of the most remarkable and magnificent tombs in England if not in the world, where, in the fullness of time, she will rest by the side of her distinguished husband and her only son, the Prince Imperial, whose death in the wilds of Africa has so greatly saddened her life. The mausoleum is connected with the Benedictine Abbey Church at Farnborough, where the ex-Empress has her magnificent estate. On either side of the high altar of the mausoleum are granite sarcophagi containing the remains of Napoleon III. and the Prince Imperial. Behind the altar is a small door leading into the mausoleum and over this the Empress had an excoelum constructed, in the crypt of which the sarcophagus containing the remains of the Empress will rest.

CENTRAL TEXAS M. E. CONFERENCE. TEMPLE, Texas, Nov. 7.—Hundreds of ministerial and lay delegates have assembled here today to take part in the annual meeting of the Central Texas conference of the M. E. Church, South. The conference sessions will continue for five or six days and will be presided over by Bishop James Atkins of North Carolina.

—ANOTHER VALUABLE TRAIN.—Another valuable fox train passed through O'Leary, Thursday afternoon. It had on board foxes of the Rosemont Live Stock Company of Alberta en route to the ranch of the Consolidated Silver Black Fox Co., Summerside, with which the Rosemont Company has been amalgamated. The foxes are valued at $110,000. Among them are the parents and the 1913 brothers and sisters of the celebrated Sir Charles, raised in the Rosemont ranch in 1912. Mr. P. W. Turner, secretary of the Rosemont Live Stock Company, who is now one of the directors of the Consolidated Silver Black Fox Co., and Mr. Campbell of the office of F. F. Tuplin, Summerside, were in charge of the precious beauties during their transfer to their new home in Mt. Carmel. The foxes might well be the pride of any company and the Consolidated shareholders are to be congratulated on securing such a "bunch of good ones"—O.

WORLD'S PURITY NOW IN CONGRESS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—Nearly two thousand delegates, representing leading religious, educational, social, civic and reform bodies in nearly all parts of the world, and including official representatives of the governments of the United States and of Canada and of many governments in Europe and in other sections of the globe, were assembled in the Westminster Presbyterian church on Nicollet Avenue, in this city today when the opening session of the Seventh International Purity Congress was called to order by E. S. Steadwell, of La Crosse, Wis., the president of the World's Purity Federation. The congress will remain in session until including next Wednesday, Nov. 12, and in addition to the general sessions to be held in the Westminster Presbyterian church there will be special and departmental meetings at the Auditorium, a short distance from the church. At a gathering which was held in La Crosse, Wis., on Oct. 17-19, 1906, the National Purity Federation was organized for the suppression of the traffic in vice, the promotion of a high and single standard of morals for men and women, the safe and sane instruction of youth in sex hygiene, and in furtherance of such economic, civic and moral reforms as will conserve the highest character and life of individuals as well as of nations. As the international character of the work undertaken was realized, the name of the organization was later changed to the World's Purity Federation and the movement begun in La Crosse met with cordial support and sympathy in all civilized countries of the world. B. S. Steadwell, the original organizer of the movement, who was elected president of the National Purity Federation when it was founded in 1905, was retained as president of the World's Purity Federation and is supported by a large staff of co-workers, vice-presidents and members of the advisory board. Among the distinguished delegates in attendance who will address the congress upon various topics under consideration are Dr. Neshava Shastri, an educator and reformer of India; the Rev. T. A. Moore of Toronto, one of the vice-presidents of the federation; Governor Eberhart of this State; C. M. Sheldon of Toledo, Kas., author of "In His Steps"; Rev. Theodore Hanson, of Topeka, Kas.; Stanley W. Finch of Baltimore, Md., commissioner of the federal department for the suppression of the white slave traffic; Rabbi Rudolph Cuffe of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Arthur Burrage Farwell of Chicago, president of the Law and Order League of that city; United States Senator William S. Kenyon of Iowa; W. W. Byers, formerly speaker of the house and attorney general of Iowa; Rev. L. Gordon, two noted reformers, of L. Gordon, two noted reformers, of St. John's, Nfld.; Flint Crozier, delegate from the Philippine Islands; Reinald Wright Kaufman of Cloughton, England, and many other men and women of national or international prominence in the field of reform. Special addresses will be delivered by other distinguished workers, including Mr. Poor, mayor of Canton, China, one of the greatest and most brilliant scholars and reformers of that country; Mrs. Catherine Booth-Clibborn, daughter of the late General William Booth of the Salvation Army; Virginia Brooks of Chicago, known as the modern Joan of Arc; Mrs. Florence Kelly of New York, general secretary of the National Consumers' League and Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, the first appointed and most widely known "vice-woman" of America.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. GEORGE MCLEAN.

Announcement of the death of Mr. George McLean yesterday was received by citizens generally with a shock of surprise and deep sorrow. As previously announced the late Mr. McLean had been injured in a runaway on Wednesday, but his injuries were not at first regarded as very serious. He was taken to the P. E. I. Hospital and his condition became alarming. He continued to sink until the end came at 1.30 yesterday morning. The deceased, who was 49 years of age, was a native of West River and had resided in Charlottetown for some 20 years past. He first entered the service of the late Major Beate, as gentleman's attendant, with whom he remained for five years, part of which time he spent in England. He was afterwards employed in the same capacity with the late Hon. Fred Peters and the late Hon. Thomas Dodd, respectively. During the past nine years, he had been continuously in the employ of Mr. H. J. Cundall. Of his gentlemanly, honorable and upright character, as a man and as a citizen, nothing perhaps could be more expressive than the tribute paid to him by Mr. and Miss Cundall, who said to a Guardian representative in Charlottetown, a friend to everybody, and everybody was his friend. He was an upright, good man, and we thought a great deal of him. Everyone thought well of him." Mr. and Mrs. Cundall fell keenly his sudden and unexpected death. His kind and genial manner had won for him the respect and esteem of all citizens. He was looked upon by the young especially as their intimate and trustworthy companion and friend here or elsewhere had more friends among the children. He leaves to mourn four brothers, two on the homestead at West River, John J. and William, Daniel at North Wiltshire, James, Elm Ave., and one sister, Mrs. Catherine Small, Springfield, Mass. A short funeral service, conducted by Rev. Dr. Fullerton, of whose church he was a member, will be held at the home of his brother, Mr. James McLean, Elm Ave., this afternoon, and the funeral will leave for the Rocky Point Ferry at 2 p. m. for West River. WEDDING CUSTOM IS NOW CHANGED

Wedding breakfasts have quite fallen out of fashion in London. Such is the testimony of Messrs. Gunter & Company said:—"When the hour for weddings was changed from eleven o'clock in the morning to two or half-past two in the afternoon the wedding breakfast became unsuitable for the occasion. Those who attended the wedding had already had their lunch and therefore, could not take a heavy meal after the ceremony. Another cause of the presence of five or six hundred people now in place of other views on the subject were obtained from the firm of Barbellion. "We find that a large dinner the night before the wedding has largely taken the place of the old fashioned breakfast. Usually the dinner is held at a fashionable hotel, in order to avoid trouble. Cutting the cake, too, is going out of fashion. Now tiny boxes of wedding cake are handed round to guests on silver salvers. It is an easier, prettier style than dealing with a cumbersome entire cake." Another innovation was told of by Messrs. Bussard. "Dances held two or three weeks before the wedding," they said, "are a popular substitute for the breakfast. Our experience is that a dinner the night before is not very popular. Receptions are favored as they involve little trouble to prepare and clear away."

FOOTBALL GAMES OFF.

COLLEGEVILLE, Pa., Nov. 5.—Following the death of George Gay, an Ursinus College student and athlete who had his neck broken in a football game Saturday at Phoenixville, the Faculty met last night and decided to cancel the remainder of the football schedule. The two games to be played were with Pennsylvania Millage College, Franklin and Marshall.
