Mr. and Mrs. Brendan Wallace, who had spent the winter months in Montreal, returned to their home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Edmund Kelly spent a few days last week as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Dunn and Mr. Dunn.

Misses Catherine Wallace and Edna O'Brien students at Prince of Wales College, spent the Easter holidays at their respective homes.

Friends and relatives regret to learn that the condition of Mr. George Matthews, who is a patient in the Prince County Hospital, remains unchanged.

Master Delbert O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh O'Brien, Alberton, was a recent visitor at the home of his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hardy had as guests over the Easter holidays their son Vernon and wife, Miss Nadine and Miss Dorothy, students at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown.—E

Mr. K. R. Matthews left on Saturday for Montreal, and on return will be accompanied by his daughter, Velda, who has been receiving treatment in the Royal Victoria Hospital for the past several weeks.

Messrs. James, John W., and Charles Adams and Mrs. George Adams left by car on Saturday for Sydney, being summoned by the news of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. James Graham.

Mr. Earl O'Brien, student at St. Dunstan's University, and Miss Alfreda O'Brien, student at Notre Dame Academy, Tignish, spent their holidays at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. A. E. O'Brien.

The Misses Joan and Norma McKenna students at Notre Dame Academy, Tignish, spent the Easter holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McKenna.

Mr. Patrick Butler of Glengarry, Lot 7, who is well-known in musical circles in Prince County as a gifted pianist and singer, has recently been discharged from Western Hospital where he had been receiving treatment.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Wilfred Gavin, Tignish, (nee Rosetta O'Brien) on the death of her husband, also to Mrs. Alfred O'Brien in the death of her brother, the late Mr. Wilfred Gavin.

The good news has been received recently that Mr. James Pendergast, better known as "Big Jim," is making a splendid recovery at his home in Kensington after spending some time in a Moncton hospital. He has the best wishes of all his Western friends for a speedy return to his usual robust health.

The many friends of Mr. Edmund Kelly are pleased to learn of the general improvement in his condition as a patient in the Western Hospital. Mr. Kelly narrowly escaped serious injury so-

About fifty of the neighbours and friends of Honorable Horace Wright and Mrs. Wright, Lower Bedeque, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waugh last Saturday evening to bid them farewell as they are removing to Charlottetown. Mr. Wright has recently been appointed Chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board. A most pleasant evening was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Wright were presented with a beautiful electric radio as a slight token of the esteem in which they are held. This worthy couple will be greatly missed in the community but we hope to see them frequently in our midst during the summer week-ends.

and Doris Wright, Edward Pearson, Georgina Leard, Georgie Johnson.

Mrs. W. J. Reid, Middleton, and Mrs. Elliott Wright of the same place, were visitors to Sackville last week. They were guests of Mrs. Wright's brother, Mr. Lewis Wright. Mr. Wright was a former resident of Bedeque.

Miss Olive Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Craig, Middleton, plans to leave for Vancouver, B.C., in the near future, on an extended visit among relatives. Miss Craig has been doing secretarial work in Charlottetown for some time.

The sympathy of her many Bedeque friends is extended to Mrs. Robert Reeves and family, Freetown, on the recent death of her husband. Mrs. Reeves was a former resident of Bedeque. She is a sister of Mr. T. J. Inman of Central Bedeque.

A splendid congregation was present at the Easter service in the Bedeque United Church last Sunday morning. Besides a fine sermon delivered by the pastor, Reverend Mr. Crowe, the music was of a high order. The choir feebly rendered the Easter selection: "I Am The Resurrection. And Mr. Gordon MacCallum, Charlottetown, a native of this place, was heard with much acceptance in the singing of a solo entitled "Open The Gates Of The Temple." Mr. MacCallum always receives a most cordial welcome when he comes "home" and adds his voice to the singing in Bedeque's fine choir. Mr. MacCallum's sister, Mrs. Walter Craig, is the efficient organist.
