The Preliminary Theory Examination in Music of the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and Royal College of Music of London, Eng., took place throughout the Dominion on the 2nd, and notwithstanding the small number of entries, which has evidently arisen from the limited time there was to prepare for the examinations, the Board not actuated by any mercenary or commercial motives has resolved to send out Mr. C. Lee Williams, Mus. Bac., to conduct the Practical Examinations.

Mr. Williams is a well-known composer and was until recently organist of Gloucester Cathedral and conductor of the Gloucester Musical Festivals, and has had a large and varied experience in examination work for the Board.

The Board has decided to hold the Examinations next year in May and June, and hopes that the date will be found more suitable for Canadian students.
