Read The Headlines and You Have the Whole Story

THERE are few tailors who advertise their prices—we advertise ours in every announcement we make. Comparison will prove that our prices are less than other tailors ask for materials of War-Time manufacture. Make a second comparison and we will prove conclusively that not even in "Ready-Made" Stores and Upstairs Clothes Shops can you duplicate our fabric values at more than double our standardized prices. In English & Scotch Woollen Co. Tailored-to-Measure Clothes we give you all the desirable features of custom tailoring—no speculation about how your garment is going to look and fit.

SOLDIERS WELCOMED

On the evening of June the 19th, the friends and neighbors of Cable Head East and community assembled at the home of Mr. Clement Sutherland, to welcome back Ptes. Patrick and Bernard Barry after four strenuous years on the battlefield.

At an early hour the crowd assembled and the time was pleasantly passed with music furnished by Misses Mammie Sutherland, and Katie O'Hanley. In the arrival of welcome returned men an address of welcome was read by Miss Katie O'Hanley while Miss Mary Lewis presented each one with $15 in gold. The boys although taken by surprise made a fitting reply and thanked one and all for the kindness shown toward them.

Ice Cream, cake and drinks were then served in which everybody took an ample part.

The rest of the evening was innocently passed with violin selections furnished by Ronny McInnis, accompanied by Miss Mammie McKinnon. At a wee hour all departed well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Following is the address:

To Privates Patrick & Bernard Barry,

Dear Sirs.—It is with feelings of pride that we your friends and neighbors assemble here at this time to greet you, and to express our appreciation of what you have done in defence of our institutions and homes. When war clouds hung heavy and the Motherland called across the expanse of waters, for more men to defend the nation's liberty, and civilization from the onslaught of the treacherous Hun, not only did you hear, but you also responded. You have fought and suffered that we at home might enjoy freedom and peace. Many men who shall return no more. To these we owe an undying debt of gratitude which can best be paid by living up to the ideals they died to save.

These strenuous years spent on the battlefield, have brought you the record of "duty bravely done." And now, as you take up the broken threads of civilian life, we extend to you our best wishes for future happiness and prosperity.

In conclusion, we ask you in behalf of C. H. E. and community, to accept this gift, not for its value, but as a token of our appreciation of your loyalty and sacrifice.

Signed in behalf of the community,
JOHN O'HANLEY,
STELLA WELSH,
CATHERINE O'HANLEY,
MARY LEWIS,

Latest Infant Prodigy.

The latest "infant phenomenon" hails from Philadelphia. Her name is Edith Gruenberg. At the age of eight months Edith, from the confines of her cradle, mimicked the call of the quail with such conviction that the bird would answer back. At the age of two she could distinguish all the colors of the spectrum. One month later she was discovered in the act of humming Schubert's "Serenade," and at three and one-half years she could recognize 100 popular airs. Three months later Edith's favorite composers were Tschalkowsky, Wagner, Leoncavallo, Handel, Rubinstein, Liszt, Sullivan, Puccini and Beethoven. Edith could pronounce all these names without slip.
