LOUD SPEAKERS VERSUS MINISTERS

LONDON, Aug. 18. (British United Press)—Will ministers ever be relegated to the ranks of the unemployed along with jobless vaudeville entertainers and musicians? According to A. Wellesley Orr, Vicar of St. Paul's Kingston, Surrey, the time is not far distant for already proposals have been made to authorize the substitution of loud speakers in the place of officiating ministers at church services...

One Bad Actor

The classic story of the late Nat Goodwin of the many wives is the one on the occasion of his attending a vaudeville performance and watching a mimic give an imitation of him. At the end of the effort the performer looked at Goodwin's box and said, "Nat, how's that?" Shot back Goodwin, "Well, my dear fellow, one of us is rotten."

MEXICAN MAYOR SCORES TALE BEARING AMERICANS

JUAREZ, Mex., Aug. 20 (U.P.)—Americans who cannot hold their liquor, become involved in trouble in Juarez and then return to El Paso to tell a story of "innocents abused" were scored by Baltazar Adame, Juarez mayor. "As acting police judge of the city, I personally know of each case that comes before the court," he said. "And it is not difficult to determine whether drunks arrested by officers were intoxicated the night before or not."

BRITAIN'S OLDEST SOLDIER

LONDON, Aug. 18. (British United Press)—Britain's oldest living soldier, Troop-Sergeant Major John Strafford, has just celebrated his one hundred and second birthday. He received a congratulatory message from the King. He was recently visited by Zare Agha, the 156 year old Turk, when recipes for long life were exchanged. The sergeant major joined the army in 1840. Tommy: "Why do you suppose Adam was created first?" Dad: "Oh, perhaps to give him a chance to say something."
